MRS. N. C. KELLEY of Coquille is expected here today to visit friends

MRS. JOHN BEAR of Kentuck Inlet was a Marshfield shopper today.

D. O. KENYON and wife of Lakeside were Marshfield visitors today.

MISS SPENCE WILSON returned yesterday from a short stay at Ten Mile.

J. A. STAUFF arrived here last evening from California to visit relatives.

WARNER OGREN and wife arrived home last evening from their honeymoon trip to California.

MRS. BENNETT SWANTON and children returned Sunday night from a few weeks outing at Dora.

MRS. E. W. HERMANN of Myrtle Point was in Marshfield yesterday as a guest of Mrs. L. W. Traver.

ERIC BOLT, Herman Edwards and Rev. J. C. Beatty left this morning for a short outing at Golden Falls.

MISS MARTHA BANE, who has been a guest at the W. J. Rust home at Flagstaff, left today for her home in Bandon.

CARL JOHNSON, son of C. A. Johnson, returned yesterday from San Francisco where he has spent several weeks.

MRS. ALBERT SELIG and Miss Clara Johnson returned last evening from a few weeks visit in San Francisco.

MRS. PETER MIRRASOUL and children arrived home last evening from a pleasant visit with relatives in California.

DR. BURGEN and wife, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. August Carlson, are spending a few days at the "Ark", the Smith mill boys' houseboat, on Coos River.

OPERATOR SHIRLEY of the United Wireless station, has returned from Ten Mile where he spent his vacation in quest of the elusive trout and enjoying other summer outing recreations.

W. ED. TRIBBLE and brother, W. L. Tribble, returned Monday afternoon from a trip to Rock Creek and up country. They reported plenty of fish, but had no big game in their pouch.

MRS. LAGERSTROM and Miss Lydia Lagerstrom left on the last Nana Smith for their home in Minneapolis after a pleasant visit with Cornell Lagerstrom and other relatives on the Bay.

W. L. TRIBBLE of Spokane, Wash., who has been visiting his brother for ten days, left for his home this morning via the Allegany-Drain route. Mr. Tribble was very much enthused over the prospects of the near future of the Coos Bay section and will return late in the fall to make some investments in large acreage.

ROBERT SWANTON of the Brown Drug Company, has returned from a few weeks outing at Dora. During the trip, he killed a couple of nice bucks, caught innumerable trout and communed with nature in one of the most beautiful spots of the coast.

NED C. KELLY of Coquille is in Marshfield on business and pleasure.

A. Z. DOWNS returned yesterday by Roseburg from a two weeks' outing in California.

MARTIN M. McLAIN and W. L. Tribble were among the outgoing passengers on the Coos Bay-Drain auto line this morning.

MR. and MRS. C. E. NICHOLSON have returned from a fortnight's outing at their pleasant summer home on South Coos River.

REV. A. O. WALKER, formerly pastor of the Marshfield and Myrtle Point Christian churches, and his family passed through here today en route to the Deschutes section. He has property interests there to which he will give his attention for a while.

MRS. ARTHUR WARDEN, who will be better remembered by many Coos Bay friends as Miss Isabel Wilson but now wife of a mining engineer at Goldroad, Arizona, is here visiting at the home of Mrs. Wilson and also her sister, Mrs. Jennie Babcock.

SENATOR JAS BAINES arrived here on the Redondo from California to look after property interests on the Bay. He expects to remain here a considerable length of time and will probably engage in the real estate business with his brother, George Baines.

DR. G. W. LESLIE arrived home yesterday from a six weeks visit in the middle west during which he attended the National Osteopathic convention in Chicago. He had a fine trip but declares that Coos Bay looks better than ever to him, after comparing it with some of the other widely heralded sections of the country.

GEO MURCH, who returned from a trip by auto to Crater lake, says that while they escaped most of the real hot weather still it was a bit warm and dusty. "Why would you believe it, it was so hot at some places over there in the valley that they had to put ice in the duck ponds to keep the ducks from laying hard-boiled eggs."

F. E. LEEFE left today for the Coquille where he will spend the balance of the week inspecting the work done by the dredge Oregon. The Oregon and the Larson dredge have moved to the Parkersbrug shoal and are rapidly clearing the channel. Today he was accompanied over by L. C. Balz who will become inspector of the Coquille work in place of J. E. Kelley who returns to his old home in Pennsylvania for a short visit.

C. C. NORRIS and mother, Mrs. S. R. Norris of San Diego, Cal., arrived Monday evening, coming via the Roseburg-Myrtle Point route. Mr. Norris and mother comes to Coos Bay for a visit and short vacation to look over this section of Oregon with the view of locating. At first sight they are more than pleased, most enthusiastic over finding such a substantial city here as Marshfield and marveled over the beauty of the county and bay location. Mr. Norris is a personal friend of W. Ed. Tribble, a former San Diegan, who recently located here.

Buy's Business.—F. S. Dow has bought the business of the Unton Fisheries company and plans to begin the active operation of its fish freezing and shipping business at once.

Makes Serious Charges.—Samuel Archer of Eastside has sworn out a warrant in Justice Pennock's court charging Clive Vineyard, aged 17, with taking his horse and going away with it without his permission.

Many at Ball.—It is expected that the public ball which the officers and men of the Oregon Naval Militia will give aboard The Boston Wednesday evening will be largely attended. A cordial invitation has been extended to the public generally to attend.

Back From Beach.—Late Sunday evening, a party of Marshfield people returned from a delightful outing at the beach. Among those in the party were Wm. Kardell and family, Myrton Curry and wife, Misses Ethel Clark and Eva Wilson and Messrs. Fred Wilson and Fred Barnard.

Finish Work.—Contractor D. W. Small has completed his city improvement work at Eastside. E. G. Perham will shortly have his contracts finished. The work has done much to enhance the appearance of Eastside and will also be a big stride in the development of the enterprising community.

Find Lost Articles.—The Times Want Ads have again proved their supremacy for recovering lost articles. Mrs. C. C. Going lost an infant's scarf, inserted a lost ad in The Times and last evening a boy who found it returned it. Mrs. F. K. Gettins lost a veil, inserted a lost ad in The Times and it was promptly returned to her.

Open Street.—C. A. Johnson and other West Marshfield property owners will petition the Marshfield city council to have Anderson avenue opened from Tenth street west. The stretch of street to be opened extends for about seven blocks. It is expected that all the abutting property owners will concur and if they do, it is the intention to improve it by private contract.

Engineer Here.—A. L. Richardson of Portland, who was selected by the Marshfield and North Bend city councils to make a preliminary investigation as estimates as to the installation of a municipal water system on Coos Bay, arrived last night to begin his work. He was unexpectedly detained by some other work which he had on hand. He hopes to complete the preliminary work here within a couple of weeks.

Make Complaints.—Marshal Carter has received complaints about a number of alleged Gypsies who are camped near town. They parade as fortune tellers. If some of the reports circulated about them are true, he may take action to compel them to move on. One report is that they have frightened several women to give them articles of jewelry, etc., telling the owners that the articles in question have an "ill omen" attached to them and will bring bad luck unless given away at once.
