The Belles.

Oh! the belles!
Summer belles:
What a plentitude of heartaches their giddiness compels;
How they giggle, giggle, giggle,
In the sea-breeze-laden night,
How their victims squirm and wriggle
In an ecstasy of fright.
How they hurt
When they flirt,
When with ghoulish glee they gloat
On the squirming of a fellow when they have him by the throat.

Oh! the belles!

Brazen belles;
How they conjure, scheme and plan
To entrap the Summerman.
The ribbon counter gentlemen who masquerade as swells.

Oh! the belles!

Greedy belles;
How they wring, wring, wring
Soda water, everything,
From the pockets of those "Cash!"
exclaiming swells.

Oh! the belles!

Foxy belles;
What a wealth of hints they fling
To compel the pleasant ring,
Diamond ring,
Ah! the heart-engaging ring,
Of the golden wedding bells, bells,
bells, bells, bells.
Oh! the belles!

Don't take other people into your confidence if your John offends you. Neither your mother, your aunt, your college chum, your dearest girl friend nor the agreeable stranger whom you met the other day should be the recipient of your grievances, if you have them. Your home should be a sanctuary inviolable from profanation, and remember that it is profaned when you complain to someone else of John's ill temper, his neglect or his parsimony. I know this is a very difficult don't but the instant a wife permits herself to complain of her husband to people beyond her door she breaks down a barrier and makes a way for every sort of trouble to enter the field of home, says Margaret Sangster.

Don't be so meek and spiritless that you suffer in silence while you spoil your husband by letting him drift into the role of a domestic despot. Mrs. Henry De la Pasture, in her novel, "The Tyrant," shows the eclipse of gayety and the crucifixion of family love which follow in the wake when a husband is overbearing and a wife overgentle.

Whatever you do, don't nag or sulk. A wife who goes about with the air of a martyr kills her happiness. Don't be inconsolable when your husband carries late at the office and keeps the dinner waiting. Don't object to his bringing home guests unannounced. If he arrives with them unexpectedly, don't apologize for the house or the meal or the children or anything else. Put on extra plates and cups and let them share "pot luck."

Don't have bills if you can help yourself. Pay as you go, and do persuade your husband to give you a definite house keeping allowance from the beginning of your housekeeping. Don't be afraid of the maid. Thousands of us are in awe of this personage, and she has unfortunately discovered it and behaves accordingly.

Mrs. A. T. Haines was hostess at two of the most delightful social functions of the past week when she entertained last Saturday at a Progressive luncheon and on Tuesday at a bridge luncheon complimentary to Mrs. E. D. Brownlee and Mrs. J. C. Roberts of Oklahoma who are guests of relatives on the Bay. The decorations were unusually pretty, sweet peas and Shasta daisies being used effectively in the flower scheme. On both occasions, Mrs. J. W. Ingram rendered some very pleasing vocal solos.

At the Progressive luncheon Satur-

CONTRIBUTIONS concerning social happenings, intended for publication in the society department of The Times, must be submitted to the editor not later than 6 o'clock p. m. Friday of each week. Exceptions will be allowed only in cases where events occur later than the time mentioned.)

day, Mrs. Haines was assisted by Mrs. F. A. Haines, Mrs. C. K. Perry and Mrs. F. M. Parsons. At the head table were seated Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Brownlee, Mrs. Karl Haines, Mrs. Pauline Moore Riley and Mrs. J. W. Ingram, the guests of honor. Among those invited were Mesdames E. D. Brownlee, J. C. Roberts, J. W. Ingram, Karl Haines, Pauline Moore Riley, P. M. Wilbur, D. Y. Stafford, P. A. Sandberg, A. O. Rogers, A. H. Powers, Eugene O'Connell, L. M. Noble, E. F. Morrissey, W. F. Nevers, Mrs. Pauline Moore Riley and Mrs. Durham.

After an enjoyable week's outing near Silver Falls, a party of Summer and Coos Bay young folks returned home today. On their trip to camp they had an experience that they had not included in their outing program. It was the accident near Allegany last Monday when their rig toppled into the canyon when the horses became frightened at an auto preceding Gov. West's party. Although all of them were badly frightened and considerably jarred, no one was hurt seriously. Mrs. L. G. Masters of Summer sustained a slightly sprained ankle. That Gov. West was one of those coming to their rescue was partial recompense for the experience. Among those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Masters of Summer, Miss Lillian McCann of North Bend, Miss Blanche Landrith of Coos River, Miss Ada Clinkinbeard of Daniels Creek, Miss Ollie Richard of Summer, Roy Landrith of Coos River, Carl Clinkinbeard of Daniels Creek and George Smith of Coos River.

Mrs. O'Mara of North Bend entertained the Baptist Ladies Aid Society at her home Thursday afternoon at her home on Sherman avenue. Aside from the regular business, sewing was a diversion of the afternoon. Among those present were Mrs. Geo Hazer, Mrs. W. R. Simpson, Mrs. Robert McCann, Mrs. R. C. Holmes, Mrs. Wm. Murr, Mrs. Ira B. Bartie, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. C. H. Wells.

Mrs. E. W. Fishy and little daughter, Hazel, of Bullards, who have been visiting friends in North Bend, expect to leave soon for Portland.

Miss Marian Heveor of North Bend Heights will leave soon for Portland where she will spend the winter with relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Ingram who will leave shortly for Washington to make their home have been the recipients of a number of informal, social honors during the past week and a number of others are planned for them. Last Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Parsons entertained at a dinner party at The Chandler in their honor and Thursday Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Horton were hosts at dinner in their honor.

The annual visit of the Worthy Grand Matron of the Oregon Eastern Star, Mrs. Pauline Moore Riley of Baker City, to Doric Chapter of Marshfield last Tuesday evening was made the occasion of a delightful social event. Besides the members of Doric Chapter, a number of members of other Chapters were in attendance. The exemplification of lodge work and inspection by Mrs. Riley was followed by informal talks and refreshments.

Mrs. R. K. Booth was hostess at an informal tea on Wednesday. Among her guests were Mrs. E. Mings, Miss Lucy Horton, Mrs. W. H. Kennedy, Mrs. M. C. Maloney, Miss Nellie Tower and Miss Mamie Mahoney.

Two receptions and dancing parties on the United States steamship Boston the past week added much to the social life on Coos Bay. On Wednesday evening, the officers and men of the Oregon Naval Militia entertained at a public reception and dancing party which was largely attended. Friday evening, the officers entertained at a military ball and reception which was largely attended and most enjoyable.

Mrs. F. K. Gettins has issued invitations for next Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Lucy Horton and Miss Nellie Tower will leave about September 14 for Seattle where they will attend school the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Whisnant and children of Portland are guests at the J. W. Gardner home at North Bend. They have been recipients of a number of social courtesies during their stay, having made many friends during their residence on the Bay when Mr. Whisnant, who is now connected with The Timberman at Portland, was editor of the North Bend Harbor.

Mrs. A. H. Powers and Albert and Florence Powers are spending a few weeks with friends at California points. They are expected to return next week.

Mrs. Albert Sellig and Miss Clara Johnson returned this week from a few weeks visit with friends in San Francisco and other California points.

Warner Ogren and bride returned this week from their honeymoon trip to California and are now happily cooched in their new home.

C. A. Smith and wife, Rev. A. D. Macleod, Misses Blanche and Grace Williams and Bessie Immel of North Bend and A. W. Myers of Marshfield composed a party who have been enjoying an outing near Golden Falls.

The marriage of Alfred Brunell and Miss Anna Hoglund was solemnized last Sunday at the future home of the young couple on Coos River by the Rev. B. F. Bengtson. Only immediate relatives and friends were in attendance. They are among the best known Coos River young people and their many friends will unite in wishing them all the happiness that the future can bring.

Mrs. W. T. Merchant and daughter, Helen, who have been camping at Bullards, are Bandon visitors during the Carnival.

Mrs. J. S. Coke and children accompanied Judge Coke to Gold Beach this week for a ten days visit and outing in Curry county while Judge Coke is holding the regular term of circuit court there.

C. E. Nicholson and wife returned to town this week after a pleasant two weeks outing at their summer home on South Coos River.

F. M. Friedberg and wife left this week for California where they will visit friends and relatives at various points for a few months.

Mrs. Peter Mirrasoul and children arrived home this week from a visit with relatives in California.

Mrs. Charles Jackson was the recipient of many flowers and friendly calls at her Catching Inlet home the past week. On Tuesday Mesdames John, Wm. Curtiss, I. Lando, J. Lee Brown, and Mrs. Whereat drove from Marshfield and presented their pleased and surprised hostess a number of bouquets. On Wednesday among those calling were: Mrs. Alva Doll, Mrs. Charles Marsh and Miss Mamie Gulovson of Marshfield, Mrs. Dick Noble and son, Clarence, and Mrs. Herbet Haines of Coos City, Mrs. Harry Noble of Marshfield, Mrs. Wm. Saunders of Empire City and Rev. G. LeRoy Hall of Marshfield.

Mrs. H. H. McPherson and son will leave next week for California to make their home with Mrs. McPherson's parents.

Mrs. Arthur Warden, formerly Miss Isabelle Wilson, arrived here this week for an extended visit at the homes of Mrs. Wilson and her sister, Mrs. Jennie Babcock. She now resides at Goldroad, Nev.

Mrs. B. F. Bengtson and niece, Miss Alice Dahlgren of Portland who is spending the summer with her, have returned from a pleasant visit with friends on Catching Inlet.

The tennis girl goes out to play her nerve-producing game; the flirtant girl goes out larking because her life's too tame; the reading girl betakes herself into a world of books; the scheming girl to the seaside goes to fish with artful hooks; the flirting girl goes anywhere she thinks there is a man; the dressy girl goes to a store to buy a dress and fan; the beauty goes upon the street to show her handsome looks; but the girl that gets the husband stays right at home and cooks.

Wm. Grimes and wife, who have been spending the summer touring the east are expected to return to Marshfield this week.

The Ladies' Art club will meet at the home of Mrs. Jas Cowan Friday afternoon, September 1. This will be the first meeting of the season for the club which is one of the first on Coos Bay to end its summer vacation.

Mrs. C. R. Peck has issued invitations for bridge for Monday afternoon as a farewell to Mrs. J. W. Ingram, who will leave shortly for Washington.

Mrs. T. G. Leyland entertained a few friends at the home of her parents Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Torrey, the day being the anniversary of her birth. Music and games made the evening a very pleasant one. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Leyland plans to leave in a week or so to join Mr. Leyland in Portland where they will make their home. Among her guests were F. C. Birch and wife, Arthur Drews and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Flagg, Miss Josephine Eddy, Miss May Stauff, Misses Merryman, Miss Jameson, Eric Bolt, Jas Stauff and Mr. Campbell, Gertrude Robinson, Enos Draws, Will Stauff, Mrs. Peralta, Evelyn Langworthy, Clyde Dindinger, G. F. Dindinger, Clara Rehfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Campbell, Ray Campbell and Mrs. Stauff.

Mrs. E. F. Morrissey returned yesterday from a pleasant week's outing at the home of Mrs. Frank Rogers on South Coos River. Mrs. Rogers who has been feeling poorly for some time came down with her to spend a week or so in Marshfield.

Mrs. F. K. Gettins was hostess at a luncheon Wednesday complimentary to Mrs. J. Ralph O'Brien. It was a "railroad party," a unique idea which was cleverly carried out. The guests were seated at a round table on which was a miniature railroad, trestles, tunnels and trains. The place cards were names of various

Candy of Quality

Quality in Candy is a matter we are rather fussy about. That is why everything that enters into Stafford's Coos Bay made confections must be unadulterated and wholesome. This matter of purity in candy is a question of pride with us and it is safe to say that more delectable sweets cannot be found on the Pacific coast than Stafford's. All our candies are pure, fresh, sweet and delicious. They are the come again kind.
