

PIONEER HARDWARE CO.

"Wear-Ever" Aluminum Ware

This is the brand of aluminum cooking utensils that lasts forever. You have seen it demonstrated and know its merits.

Don't be misled into purchasing an inferior grade of aluminum ware because the first cost may be a little less. The "Wear-Ever" brand will save its cost in one year.

There is more "Wear-Ever" aluminum cooking utensils being used today than all other grades combined. Why? Because it wears forever.

BORN.

STADDEN—To Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stadden, Thursday, August 31, a daughter. Mother and child are doing fine and the proud papa declares that the old saying "Pretty as a picture" is absolutely inadequate in describing the little Miss Stadden.

On Camping Trip—Mrs. L. D. Smith, Miss Annie Smith, Mrs. Will Smith and Mrs. Jesse Smith of Coos River are camping out for a few days at the beach.

Leave Today—Among those leaving on the Coos Bay-Drain auto line this morning were Geo. Miller, Mrs. Enger, Master Enger, A. D. Allison and A. P. Greenough.

Gets New Auto—D. L. Foote and Geo Goodrum will leave tomorrow or next day for Portland to bring back one of the new 1912 self starting, electric lighted Cadillacs. They will drive it down. Mr. Foote expects to put it on the Drain-Allegany run.

Machinery Here—Part of the electrical machinery for the testing out of an electrical logging engine for the Smith-Powers logging company arrived yesterday and the balance is expected next week. It is expected to have it set up in a few weeks ready for the first trials.

Initiate One—Marshfield Lodge of Elks at a special meeting last night fitted F. W. Feeney, formerly of Marshfield but now located at Bandon, with the Antlers in the latest approved style. There was a good turnout and the initiation was followed by a little spread.

Improving Theatre—G. J. Lemansky, new proprietor is making a number of improvements in that popular play house. He will install a new electric piano here and also in North Bend. A new Powers moving picture machine, absolutely flickerless will also be placed in the Royal.

Clean Up City—Marshal Carter is receiving much praise from local business men for his efforts to clean up Marshfield and rid of it of a number of undesirables. During the last few weeks, he has collected $150 in fines from them and caused two to leave. He is now on the trail of some others.

Paper Moves—The Marshfield Weekly Sun is being moved from its old location on North Front street to the new building which Messrs. Luse and McLeod recently completed on North Front street, opposite the Cold Storage plant. The new quarters are large, well lighted and make an excellent printing shop.

New Priest—Word has been received here that Archbishop Christie has appointed the Rev. Father Monroe to fill the vacancy caused by the transfer of the Rev. Father J. A. Moran from Marshfield to Eugene. Rev. Father Monroe is expected here in time to hold services Sunday. He is a young priest, having recently been ordained.

Eastern Star Meeting—Tomorrow is the Natal Day of the Eastern Star and it will be observed by the Coos County Chapters in a district convention to be held at Myrtle Point. It is expected that there will be a large attendance from all the chapters in this section. The officers of Doric Chapter No. 53 of Marshfield will exemplify the work. Quite a large delegation will go from Marshfield and North Bend.

Raises Flax—Judge John F. Hall today informed The Times that the man who had just made the discovery that flax would grow well and mature here was at least sixteen years behind the times. Judge Hall's father raised some flax here then and every year, Judge Hall has grown a little since in the yard at his residence in West Marshfield. As proof he brought some splendid samples to The Times' office.

Drill For Oil—Wm. Button, who sometime ago sank a test hole near Langlois for oil, has formed a new company and secured equipment to drill deep after oil in Curry county. The old Joe Curless place there has been selected for the operations. Mr. Button has interested a number of Bandon men in the company which is also backed by Los Angeles and Portland capitalists and they are determined to ascertain if there is oil there.

Will Come Here—Lee Webster, for years a well-known resident of Empire, has resigned the postmastership there to become identified with A. B. Daly in the logging supply business in Marshfield. Mr. Webster will have charge of the office and bookkeeping for Mr. Daly, beginning September 1. He will move here and will be welcomed by the host of friends the family has here. His successor as postmaster at Empire has not been named.

Seeks Information—E. D. McCrary, Sr., is in receipt of a letter from an eastern man seeking information concerning the opportunities and possibilities for manufacturing and other industries on Coos Bay. He asks particularly about the harbors facilities for large vessels and concerning waterfront and saw mill sites. The Times prints much information in this issue in reference to the harbor and if parties having definite knowledge of mill sites will communicate with Mr. McCrary he will forward the information to the person requesting it.
