

AUTUMN IDEAS

WE ARE NOW SHOWING THE LATEST "AUTUMN IDEAS" THROUGHOUT OUR ENTIRE ESTABLISHMENT. ONE OF OUR "IDEAS" IS THAT QUALITY SHALL ALWAYS BE THE BEST. ANOTHER "IDEA" WE HAVE IS THAT NO CUSTOMER SHALL LEAVE OUR STORE WITH A GARMENT THAT IS NOT PERFECTLY FITTED, THAT WE SHALL NOT OVERCHARGE, BUT GIVE A FAIR PRICE TO THOSE WHO GIVE US THEIR CONFIDENCE, IS ALSO ONE OF OUR "IDEAS."

WE SHALL BE PLEASED TO SHOW YOU OUR LATEST "AUTUMN IDEAS" IN MERCHANDISE.

FALL SUITS

Distinctly mannish are the modes that prevail amongst the advance arrivals of new Fall Suits. Mannish in cut—mannish in weave—yet without a trace of tailored severity. Materials indicate a preference for Scotch or English tweeds—fancy twilled serges and worsteds—all of mannish tailored types. Natty little 28- to 30-inch coats that might easily be taken for masculine garments were it not for the rich linings and just a suspicion of the feminine in the lines at the waist. Skirts conform to the new dictum of fashion. Splendid assortments shown.

Prices From $16.00 to $40.00

Episcopal church. The name conferred upon him was James Lloyd, a combination of the given names of Grandpa James Ferry and the father, Lloyd W. Jacobs. The sponsors were L. W. Traver and Geo. Ferry.

Mrs. George F. Murch and Miss Charlotte Murch were hostesses at a rather delightful party this week. Invitations were issued for a farewell for Miss Nellie Tower who leaves tomorrow for Seattle to study music the coming winter. The early part of the evening was devoted to cards, Mrs. R. K. Booth winning first prize. When luncheon was served, the guests found a miniature birch-bark canoe at each plate and imbedded in the sweet peas in it was a little card bearing the names of Miss Charlotte Murch and Hugo Quist. The date of the wedding has not been announced but it will probably be early next spring. Among those invited were Miss Nellie Tower, Miss Lucy Horton, Miss Genevieve Sengstacken, Miss Edna Stanley, Miss Mabel Clare Mills, Mrs. E. Mingus, Mrs. P. A. Sandberg, Mrs. W. F. Miller, Mrs. R. K. Booth, Mrs. W. H. Kennedy, Mrs. M. C. Maloney and Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger.

Miss Nellie Tribbey entertained a few friends informally at cards Wednesday evening. The prizes were won by Miss Loretta Conlogue and Ansel Johnson. Delicious refreshments were served and a musical program enjoyed. Those present were Miss Loretta Conlogue, Mrs. Thos. Goodale, Mrs. G. W. Tribbey, Miss Nellie Tribbey, Louis W. Curran, E. Brooks Learned, Ansel Johnson and Abner Tribbey.

Mrs. H. V. Moffat, formerly Miss Anne Flanagan, who has been spending the summer at the home of her slister, Mrs. C. F. McCollum at North Bend and other relatives on the Bay expects to leave Tuesday for her home in Sacramento, Cal.

The announcements of the engagements of two of the most prominent young women of Marshfield this week were of much social interest. They were those of Miss Mabel Clare Mills, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mills, to Rev. Henry Shires and of Miss Charlotte Murch, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, to Hugo Quist.

Rev. Henry Shires is slightly known on the Bay, having spent the summer here a year ago. He was recently ordained in the Episcopal church and is now filling his first pastorate in New York.

Mr. Quist is well known on the Bay where he has made his home the past three years and now occupies a responsible position in the retail department of the C. A. Smith Lumber and Manufacturing company.

Both of the young ladies are well-known on Coos Bay where their accomplishments, attainments and charming personalities have won the friendship and admiration of large circles of friends.

The date of neither marriage has not been definitely announced but it is expected that the nuptials of Miss Murch and Mr. Quist will take place here early next spring while those of Miss Mills and Mr. Shires will probably take place in San Francisco, where the Mills family will move shortly, in the late fall or early winter.

The announcements have brought forth congratulations from the host of friends of the young folks.

Miss Dorothy Horton was hostess to two delightful little parties of the younger set Thursday afternoon and evening. They were rather informal various diversions being enjoyed. Refreshments were served on each occasion.
