CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.

Coos County Seat News as Told by The Sentinel.

The reunion of the Coos and Curry county veteran and relief Corps Association which was billed to be held at Bandon this month was postponed. No date has yet been set for the reunion.

Seeley and Anderson have the contract for grading a logging railroad into a large tract of fine timber on Bear Creek. The timber is to be gotten out for the Randolph Lumber company. A small crew will be put to work at first which will be increased as the work progresses.

Dr. W. Cullin had a very close escape Sunday when his Ford runabout turned turtle with him. He had just started up the grade on this side of the Collier bridge when the steering gear broke. The car gave a lurch to one side causing the throttle to open and speed up the machine. As the car went over the grade it threw the doctor on his face in the middle of the road. He was badly shaken up and his face was cut and scratched otherwise he suffered no serious injury.

It is expected the Coquille Mill and Lumber company will begin operating in two or three weeks. Most of the machinery has been installed except the resaws and the planers, and will soon be in place. The conveyor is nearly completed. At the last meeting of the board of directors J. S. Lyons was appointed superintendent. Clyde Gage was appointed manager. At the present time about ten men are employed but this force will be increased to thirty or forty men when the mill is in operation. It is expected there will be all the logs on hand that can be used when the mill is ready to begin to saw.

CURRY COUNTY NEWS.

Events There as Recorded by the Gold Beach Globe.

A pretty wedding occurred at the Gold Beach hotel at high noon last Sunday, September 3rd, 1911. Judge Bailey officiating. The contracting parties were Mr. Oscar J. Miller and Miss Ina M. Bailey.

Assessor Wm. Tolman who so narrowly escaped death last week on a runaway tram car at the Burbott mill, is able to be out again, apparently none the worse of the wear, except the broken arm and the loss of considerable skin from different portions of his body.

Elmer Miller with his pack of trained dogs spent the latter end of the week here. In company with Dr. Greenfield of San Francisco and some of the local sports, have been making war on the bear in the Hunters Creek country. The first day out they succeeded in freeing and killing an exceptional large fat one. The next day they got another one and the third day they killed the third one. The Doctor is delighted with this country as a sportsman's paradise and says he will sure spend his vacation here next summer.

ROSEBURG MAYOR TO QUIT.

Fred Haynes Not to Seek Place Again—City Thrives Under Him.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Sept. 11.—Alleging that the duties of Mayor of Roseburg have so multiplied that he is unable to give the office the time it deserves, Fred Haynes said that he would not consider re-election. Mayor Haynes' friends were hopeful that he would accept the office for another term, inasmuch as the town has enjoyed unprecedented prosperity during his administration.

Joseph Micelli, who served six years as councilman and chairman of the street improvement committee, is endorsed by heavy taxpayers to succeed Mr. Haynes.

The "wet" and "dry" elements have apparently buried the hatchet and henceforth, it is believed, will conduct elections along more substantial lines than heretofore. The election will be held here October 2.

ODD BUTTERFLY STORY.

Myriads of Them Block Autos in Lake County, Ore.

SILVER LAKE, Ore., Sept. 12.—Flying in swarms so thick that at times they obscured the sun, drove range riders from the trail and stopped automobiles, thousands upon thousands of brown butterflies or moths recently finished their migration to the south across the hills southeast of Silver Lake.

Whence this myriad of little insects came is as much of a mystery as where it was going, as none of the trees or other vegetation of the valley has been attacked by caterpillars this season. The insects apparently were caterpillar larvae.

P. M. Chrisman, a local merchant and George W. Marvin, secretary of the Silver Lake Commercial club were crossing the hills in an automobile when they encountered the cloud of butterflies. The insects were flying close to the ground and so dense was the swarm that the road was hidden and the autoists stopped their machine and waited for the drove to pass. It was more than an hour before the machine could proceed safely.

In the center of the swarm, Mr. Marvin says, the heat was stifling and the stench so nauseating that the motorists lay flat on the ground and tied oil-soaked handkerchiefs over their faces. Following the automobile a few miles back was Richard Sherlock, an old-time sheep raiser of Central Oregon. When Sherlock encountered the flight his horse became bewildered, lost the trail and wandered off into the wooded foothills.

A DANCING CLASS will be formed in the I. O. O. F. hall on Tuesday night, September 12. All those wishing to learn to dance will find this an excellent opportunity. Hours from 7:30 until 9:30.

MILITIA WILL BE CHANGED

Reorganization of Body Now Reported Underway—Men Hold Meeting.

A number of changes in the Oregon Naval Militia are now underway. The Portland Oregonian says: "Desirous of choosing their own officers, 100 enlisted men of the Oregon Naval Militia held a meeting at the Armory last night and adopted resolutions urging Governor West to order such an election. Action by the Governor is requested by the enlisted men in accordance with the provisions of the law passed by the last legislature and by which the Naval Militia was created. Secrecy was observed about the meeting, and the men refused to divulge the names of those who called the meeting, or of those who presided."

A Salem dispatch says: "Unless indications fall it is probable that some substantial changes may be made in the government of the Oregon Naval Reserve by Governor West in the near future. From intimations that have been dropped in the executive offices it is understood that the present Naval Board of five commissioned officers, which governs the affairs of the Reserve, will see an entire change of personnel.

"It is understood that some of the accounts which have been sent in under these conditions may have difficulty in passing the censorship of the auditing department in the office of Secretary of State. Whether such things as trophy cigarettes, cigars, sandwiches and various other obvious means of entertainment will be made the subject of warrants is a question which probably will come before Secretary Oicott, and if his actions in the past in this respect are any criterion for the future, it is probable the Reserve will have to pay some of its debts in another manner than through the appropriation for its upkeep.

"It will be the intention of the executive, from what can now be gathered, to merely ask the commissioned officers who now constitute the board to step down and out in their capacity as members of that board. In this event the governor will name an entirely new board of men who are not connected with the Oregon Naval Reserve. As the law provides that the members of the board shall be commissioned officers, it is barely possible that the governor will commission enough men to serve out the four-year term.

"Recent difficulties which have arisen, particularly following the cruise of the Boston, probably will be largely responsible for the rumored prospective action of the executive toward the Naval Board. The fact that some of the officers were accused of misconduct and that the officers of the Reserve are members of the board and were called upon to pass upon these alleged charges of misconduct, make it appear to the executive that possibly it would be better if commissioned officers entirely outside of the Reserve were named to have charge of such investigations.

Praise For Bandon.

A Portland paper has the following: "Portland divisions of the Oregon Naval Militia have been set a new pace by 28 members of the Bandon division, who drilled on the cruiser Boston at Marshfield, according to Chief Gunner's Mate Gavin, of the Philadelphia, who is in charge of caretakers on the cruiser Boston, and Chief Master-at-Arms Norris, of the Boston. They say that in three days the Bandon crew exhibited a proficiency in collision drill, fire quarters, abandon-ship drill and other work required aboard the vessel that surpasses any drill gone through by the Portland militiamen. The showing was more remarkable because the Bandon contingent had not been aboard a naval vessel before."
