

THE TIMES ARTIST'S IDEAS OF O'BRIEN DAY ON COOS BAY

Permit us the pleasure. Miss Coos Bay this is Mr. O'Brien, the gentleman of whom you have heard so much.

Welcome O'Brien!

We'll crown you king or most anything That men of ambition prize If you'll lay the rails that will bring the mails Across ninety miles of ties.

KNOCK!

Boost and Coos Bay boosts with you Knock and you knock alone. Opportunity's rap is the only tap That gets anything here but a groan.

Strike Up the Band

Of all true words of tongue or pen The truest are these, we like railway men.

Mr. Wendling, Too!

Mr. Wendling we're glad your kindling In Lane was getting wet. When you wanted the goods you went out in the woods And you got 'em, too, you bet.

Our Hour Has Come!

Our ship is in the harbor And our clock is in the hall. The time has come for railways And O'Brien leads them all.

ELKS WILL GO TO PORTLAND

MARSHFIELD LODGE PLANS TO CHARTER SPECIAL STEAMER AND TRAIN FOR TRIP.

Preliminary plans for chartering the Steamer Breakwater to take the delegation of Marshfield Elks going to the 1912 Grand Lodge in Portland next July as far as Astoria and then securing a special train from Astoria to Portland were made at a meeting of the Marshfield Elks' Lodge last evening. The plans are only tentative but they will probably be carried out.

The matter was taken up by a special committee consisting of W. F. Miller, H. S. Tower, E. D. McArthur, J. W. Hildenbrand, M. C. Maloney and Ivy Condon. It was first planned to charter a special steamer for the week to take the delegation to Portland and remain there and bring them back. However, it was found that this would be both expensive and sort of impractical not affording the convenience that the plan agreed would insure.

Two other committees were ordered appointed to cooperate with the original committee in the matter. One will have charge of the special uniforms to be worn by the Marshfield Elks and the other will arrange for hotel accommodations in Portland.

It is expected that between 100 and 150 members of the lodge will make the trip and most of them will take their wives.

At last night's meeting, Geo. W. Kruse was flitted with the authors and a little luncheon was enjoyed afterwards.

CAUGHT IN CALIFORNIA

Roseburg Elopers Finally Apprehended in San Francisco

The Roseburg News says: After a search of about four weeks, Willis Simpson and Mrs. Frank Chesbro, who eloped from Roseburg, were yesterday apprehended by the police of San Francisco, and are now held at that city awaiting the arrival of a local officer. Deputy Sheriff Remick Fate, of Myrtle Creek left for the southern city yesterday and will probably arrive in Roseburg with the couple on Thursday night. Simpson was employed as a clerk in a Myrtle Creek store, and while serving in such a capacity became acquainted with Mrs. Chesbro, wife of a Southern Pacific section foreman at Comstock. According to pre-arrangement the couple met in Roseburg about a month ago, and a day or so later departed for points unknown. Sheriff George Quine immediately sent out a number of photographs of the couple with the result that they were eventually apprehended in San Francisco. At the time of her elopement with Simpson, Mrs. Chesbro was accompanied by her two children.

A Great Advantage to Working Men
J. A. Maple, 125 S. 7th St., Steubenville, O., says: "For years I suffered from weak kidneys and a severe bladder trouble. I learned of Foley Kidney Pills and their wonderful cures so I began taking them and sure enough I had as good results as any I heard about. My backache left me and to one of my business, expressman, that alone is a great advantage. My kidneys acted free and normal, and that saved me a lot of misery. It is now a pleasure to work where it used to be a misery. For Sale at Red Cross Drug Store."

SCHOOL BOYS ON GRIDIRON

MARSHFIELD HIGH SCHOOL YOUTHS VYING FOR POSITIONS ON TEAM.

Football practice among the Marshfield High School boys is in full swing and everybody from the coach down is enthusiastic, with the prospects of one of the best teams in the history of the school. Of last year's players and subs, C. Larson, half back, Carlson, tackle, Harrington, half back, Jensen, end, George Johnson, sub, Seaman, sub, W. Horton, sub, and G. Sutsman quarterback, have returned and all the new material is showing up exceptionally well.

In the absence of the last year's full back, Larson has been switched to that position, and Byerly, a new man, is acceptably filling his position at half back. Seaman, La Chapelle and Flanagan are showing up well at the tackle and guard positions, while G. Johnson, Patterson, Horton and Jensen are all contenders for the end positions. A. Johnson, last year's guard, is out of the game with an injured hand but may be able to play later.

Coach Grannis has had several years of active playing and coaching and is rapidly rounding the team into shape.

Manager Johnson is busy scheduling games with the neighboring schools and many good games are expected.

SCORE THIRD DEGREE METHOD

OPINION OF OREGON SUPREME COURT IN FRANK GARRISON MURDER CASE.

R. O. Graves is in receipt of the opinion of the Oregon Supreme Court in which the conviction of Frank Garrison for the murder of Roy Perkins here was reversed and a new trial ordered. The decision contains a rather scathing denunciation of the "third degree" methods alleged to have been used in securing the confession acknowledgement of guilt from Garrison.

In the opinion, the history of the case is told and it is stated that Garrison was described by nearly all the witnesses as "not being very bright and rather weak-minded. J. E. Graham is referred to as "sometime a detective" and it is declared that the confessions or admissions should not have been admitted as testimony at the first trial. In regard to this, the opinion states that "to admit direct confessions of guilt obtained by either threats or promises designed to influence the prisoner is to put a premium on the unscrupulous methods of over zealous detectives and to take a step backward toward the thumb screw and the rack as a means of procuring testimony."

As a result of the rulings of the Oregon Supreme Court in the evidence at the first trial, the second trial will be watched eagerly as conviction will probably be much more difficult.

NO OBJECTION TO COOS BAY

POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT WILLING FOR CHANGE OF NAME FROM MARSHFIELD.

There will be no objection of the U. S. Postoffice officials to changing the name of Marshfield to Coos Bay, according to a letter just received by Dr. J. T. McCormac, president of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce. It has always been contended here when Coos Bay was suggested as the fitting name for the consolidated municipality here that the Postoffice Department would not permit compound names. After the matter was taken up the last time, Dr. McCormac wrote to the Department and here is the answer he received from E. T. Bushnell, acting first assistant postmaster general:

"In reply to your letter of the 2d instant you are informed that there would appear to be no objection on the part of the department to changing the name of the post office at Marshfield to Coos Bay after such a change had been made in the name of the town."

This is taken as a final refutation of the objections and now steps will be taken to effect the change. For a long time many have expressed themselves in favor of Coos Bay as the name for the city here. Just what steps will be necessary to effect the change remain to be determined. The Chamber of Commerce will probably take it up with the city council at its next session.

It is argued that Coos Bay is the name by which the place is generally known throughout the country. As an evidence of this, many letters directed to Coos Bay are intended for the Marshfield postoffice. It is held that the present name belittles the city while Coos Bay at once suggests a harbor and reason for a great and growing city.

In the United States there are a dozen cities named Marshfield and quite a number named North Bend, but there is no Coos Bay. The only similarity is to a small town in Vermont named Coos, a place of but a few hundred population.

Of course the changing of the name from Marshfield to Coos Bay is intended only as a preliminary step toward the consolidation of the towns on the Bay.
