

ONE reason for giving this store the title above, is that it shows you very clearly just what kind of a store it is. There's no better way to make clear, in a very few words, that this store is a quality center, headquarters for good merchandise, than to call it the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes. We're ready to show you now the latest new styles in these goods; the new fall stock is in; a fine display of best clothes.

Smart fashions for young men; the Shape-maker, Varsity and English model in suits; the new Raglan slip-on, the new English boxcoat, and the new adjustable collar ulsterettes.

Grays, browns, blues, blue-grays; an immense variety of patterns.

Suits $18 and up
Overcoats $16.50 and up

LOCAL NOTES

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)

OREGON, Sept. 22.—Fair to night and cooler with frost in east portions. Saturday, fair with westerly winds.

Is Improving.—Glibert Steckles of Eastside, who was quite badly hurt by a fall from his bicycle a few days ago, is reported improving.

Is Recuperating.—Mayor E. E. Straw is now reported rapidly recuperating from his recent illness of pneumonia and a complication of ills.

Gets Auto.—Anderson Lamb came over from Coquille yesterday to take back with him a new E. M. F. auto that arrived on the Breakwater for Allen Collier.

Is Better.—Alex Simpson of Haynes Inlet, who recently underwent an operation at Mercy hospital for an injury to his knee, is reported getting along nicely.

Butter Higher.—Butter jumped to fifty-five cents for a pound and a half square on the local market this week. Owing to the diminishing supply of milk, it is expected that it will continue to advance from now on.

Has Blood Poison.—Carl McCullough of Haynes Inlet was brought here today for treatment for blood poisoning. He was taken to the home of Wm. McKeown, a relative. The infection resulted from the extracting of some ulcerated teeth. His condition is rather serious.

Owl Saloon Sold.—Herman Krueger has sold his Owl saloon on North Front street to Robert Willis of Portland, who has taken charge. Mr. Krueger expects to leave in a few weeks on a four months' trip to his old home in Germany after which he will return to Coos Bay.

Hit by Globe.—This afternoon B. H. Keller narrowly escaped serious injury. He was putting a big sign board up against an electric light pole. The slight jar caused one of the big globes to fall out and it struck on top of his stiff hat and glanced off to the pavement.

Made Fast Time.—Geo N. Bolt this morning received a card from Eric Bolt who left this week on his bicycle for Roseburg en route to Salem where he will attend Willamette University next year. On his wheel, Eric made the twelve miles from Myrtle Point to Bridge in forty minutes. He made the trip through to Roseburg in nine and a half hours, and says he had to walk about twenty miles of the distance and push his bicycle.

Stowaway Lost.—A stowaway named Louis Englegreen lost his life as a result of a foolhardy attempt to escape when detected on the Redondo as she was leaving San Francisco last Sunday. The Redondo had gone only a short distance when they were discovered and Capt. Magee decided to put back with them. Englegreen jumped overboard and although he made no effort to swim, the Redondo's lifesavers rescued him. He died a short time after they reached San Francisco, although he had been resuscitated soon after being taken from the water. He had been on a prolonged spree at San Francisco before stealing aboard the Redondo. There were some other stowaways aboard who were put off.
