Gardiner Minister.—J. S. Lee was appointed the pastor of the Gardiner Methodist church by the Oregon Methodist conference which closed this week at Salem.

Plan Picnic.—Mrs. T. Harvey and Mrs. H. A. Wells are arranging a picnic at Charleston next Sunday in honor of Mrs. Harvey of Grants Pass who is visiting at the T. Harvey home.

Is Injured.—A. M. Peters, a longshoreman, was quite badly bruised while assisting in loading a ship at the Smith mill wharf this week. At first it was thought his leg was broken but an examination showed it was not.

Norton Speaker.—F. P. Norton of Marshfield was one of those responding to toasts at a banquet given in Eugene last Saturday night by the Lane County Fair Association in honor of the horsemen who attended the races there last week.

Beale's Apples Won.—Geo Beale of Coos River grew the fine Graystein apples which won first prize for Coos county at the Oregon State Fair at Salem. If Mr. Beale had only known that they were to be exhibited, he might have picked out some nicer ones, but as it was they were

A Great Advantage to Working Men
J. A. Maple, 125 S. 7th St., Steubenville, O., says: "For years I suffered from weak kidneys and a severe bladder trouble. I learned of Foley Kidney Pills and their wonderful cures so I began taking them and sure enough I had as good results as any I heard about. My backache left me and to one of my business, expressman, that alone is a great advantage. My kidneys acted free and normal, and that saved me a lot of misery. It is now a pleasure to work where it used to be a misery. For Sale at Red Cross Drug Store."

IRRESISTIBLE GOODNESS

Healthfulness and purity are three of the qualities which make Stafford's chocolates so popular. The purest and freshest of chocolate is used, as well as the richest of cream fillers. They have a palatable flavor and freshness that distinguishes them from all other makes.

ones he had sent to the grocery. He has some on exhibition at the Chamber of Commerce that would win a blue ribbon at any apple show.

Model Lodge Meeting.—Everything is in readiness for the Model Lodge meeting of the Women of Woodcraft which will be held here this evening. There will be a large attendance, and the meeting promises to be one of the best that order has ever held here.

Smoker Tonight.—J. A. Matson, C. F. McKnight and C. E. Nicholson have issued invitations for the smoker to be given this evening in honor of W. C. Chandler at the Millecoma Club. They constitute the House Committee of the club. The program will be impromptu.

Supplies For Haines.—The Alliance today brought in three carloads of hay and feed for A. T. Haines, the local hay, feed and flour dealer. Mr. Haines, owing to his rapidly increasing business, is receiving shipments on almost every steamer now in order to give his customers fresh and high grade feed.

Weds In Los Angeles.—Howard Savage has received cards announcing the marriage of Miss Daisy Reed and Roy S. Parrent at Los Angeles, September 21. The bride will be remembered on Coos Bay, having resided here with her parents for a number of years and was once a local reporter on The Times.

Fine Exhibits.—The Marshfield Chamber of Commerce has been receiving some very fine exhibits from ranchers in this vicinity the last few days. Mrs. A. L. Redfield of North Bend sent down some unusually fine strawberries, W. H. Morgan of Daniels Creek some very large onions, and P. M. Hall-Lewis and wife some of the prettiest roses seen in many a day. Geo Beale is also arranging to bring in some other fine exhibits. E. E. Dyer of Dreamland Ranch has some fine potatoes on exhibition there.

Odd Name.—Harry G. Hoy in reading The Times' Associated Press dispatches of yesterday discovered an item about an old friend of his speaking before the Conservation Congress at Kansas City. The dispatch gave it as "W. J. McGee" when Mr. Hoy says it should be "WJ McGee," the given name being an odd combination of the two letters run together as capitals without periods separating them or without standing for any other name as are usually the case in abbreviating given names with initials. Mr. McGee's peculiar name is a special hobby of his and he has a hot time with newspapers everywhere because they can't understand the combination and use the letters as his initials.

WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT.
All members of the Women of Woodcraft are specially invited and requested to be present at a Model Meeting of Coos Bay Circle, No. 164, at I. O. O. F. Lodge rooms on Sept. 28th, 1911, at 8 P. M. Visitors from the Grand Circle will be present.
