LOCAL NOTES

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON, Sept. 29.—Fair in east with occasional rain in west portion tonight or Saturday.

Play Today.—The Myrtle Point high school football team arrived today noon accompanied by a few rooters for the game at the depot grounds with the Marshfield high school boys this afternoon.

In Accident.—Dr. J. T. McCormac has received advises that his brother, J. W. McCormac, who has been spending the summer in England was delayed in returning by an accident. No particulars were received.

Still Ill.—Word has been received here that Elijah Smith, formerly head of the Southern Oregon company, is still confined in a sanitarium at Portland. There is little improvement in his condition.

Give Concert.—The Coos Bay Concert band will give a concert this evening at the corner of Front and Market avenues. It will probably be short so as not to interfere with the benefit performance for the Marshfield Public Library.

Tear Up Street.—Street Commissioner Lawhorne today began taking up the old planking on North Front street to have everything in readiness for filling the street by the dredge Oregon next week. The old planking can be used in the bulkheading and otherwise.

Big Ticket Sale.—There has been a very large advance ticket sale for the benefit at the Masonic Opera house this evening, of the Marshfield Public Library. The program will open at 8:30 and it promises to be one of the most interesting offered by local talent in a long time.

Doesn't Like Mexico.—W. P. Schieffele and wife who returned yesterday from an extended trip spent some time in old Mexico. Mr. Schieffele doesn't like Mexico and says that since the last revolution there, the antipathy of Mexicans for Americans is more marked than ever.

Was Misunderstanding.—Mrs. Thomas Blain informs The Times that the report that there had been a possibility of litigation over the settlement of the estate of her late husband must have been due to a misunderstanding. She says the estate was settled amicably exactly in accordance with the provisions made in her late husband's will.

No Service Sunday.—No services will be held in the Norwegian Lutheran church on Sunday, October 1, in Marshfield and North Bend, the minister preaching in Coquille. Second Sunday in October service in Marshfield 10:45, and Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Evening service 7:30 in North Bend. A. G. Lind, pastor.

Report on Water.—Engineer E. J. Anderson, who has been making an investigation of the water supply in this section and also of the present waterworks system, will complete his report October 1, according to information received by Edgar McDaniel, secretary of the joint committee of the North Bend and Marshfield city councils which has the matter in hand.

C. R. Smith Coming.—Herbert Armstrong, local representative of the Menasha Woodware company, was down from North Bend yesterday on business. He expects C. R. Smith, head of the company, here about the middle of October to inspect the local properties. At that time, Mr. Smith will probably determine whether or not the company will shortly begin the manufacture of lumber here.

Big Salmon Run.—Parties from South Inlet report that there was a great run of salmon there the day before yesterday. A school of the fish came in over the bar and started up South Inlet. They were so thick, George Wasson reports, that boats had difficulty in getting through and the fish could be killed with clubs. After going up South Inlet a short distance, they turned back and are supposed to have gone out to sea again.

Will Wed.—Friends here have been apprised that Dr. May Vanderburg and Judge Perry of Honolulu will be married in San Francisco early in January. Dr. Vanderburg is well-known on the Bay, having formerly been associated in practice with Dr. Leslie here and also through visits at the home of her uncle, J. J. Clinkinbeard on Coos River. She is now visiting in San Francisco. They will reside in Honolulu.

Would pay some difference. Call at Rood Apartments, ground floor, South Side.

FOR SALE.—Furniture for seven-room house. Enquire Times' office or address Box 792, Marshfield.
