Who Wants This Grand JERSEY BULL?

Norris Humphrey, the well-known Dairy and cattleman of Eugene, writes a letter to The Times, asking the editor to prepare an advertisement offering for sale his fine Jersey bull "FLY-ING FOX." He encloses a pedigree and an adv. which says:

"I am offering for sale one of the finest imported bulls to be found in the world. A. P. Walker pronounces him a wonderful bull. He is easy worth $1,000. For a quick cash sale, the first check for $500 gets him. He is a most beautiful solid fawn color with black points; very gentle and fine disposition. Look at the pedigree. Correspondence solicited."

But I think the best advertisement is part of Mr. Humphrey's letter in which he says:

"I am offering for sale to the dairymen around Marshfield and Coos Bay, one of the grandest bred Jersey bulls that the 'Island of Jersey' ever produced. I bought him for myself, but circumstances are such that I desire to sell him at a great sacrifice, this bull, 14 months old, imported from the island last year, will make great money for the dairymen of Coos county. I have never offered him less than $500, but I am now going to offer to take $350 spot cash for him f. o. b. Eugene if taken at once. I consider him well worth $1,000 today. A. P. Walker, the greatest importer of Jerseys from the island, says that he is a wonderful bull. It is an opportunity that some of your dairymen cannot afford to let pass. Whoever gets him finds the best bargain in Oregon that I know of. I enclose also his pedigree."

"I forgot to say that dam of the bull is a very large milker and tested 7 2-10 April 14, 1911. You will see from this ad. that I have reduced my price to $350.00 in order to make a quick sale for cash. The bull is very kind and easy handled, and all right in every way. I am now leaving the whole matter to you."

Dairymen interested may see pedigree and photographs of the bull at The Times' office. Address all correspondence to
