"KEEP YOUR WORK AT HOME"

THE following advertisement under the above head appears in the Grand Forks, North Dakota, Daily Herald in a space three columns wide and seven inches deep.

"Whatever you do, keep your money in North Dakota. Invest it in your own business, whatever that is.

There are few businesses of any kind in this state that do not need or that cannot profitably use additional capital.

Buy North Dakota lands and develop them. Buy Grand Forks city property and develop it. Start a manufacturing plant in a small way and let it grow with the country.

Invest in any of a hundred different ways, but—invest at home.

We all use the dollar that works at home. The other fellow gets it when you send it away.

And, ten chances to one your investment at home will prove a more successful venture than it would abroad—You know home conditions—You are familiar with the situation in North Dakota.

Whatever you do keep your money at home.

—Grand Forks Commercial Club. This club has nothing to sell—its business is to promote Grand Forks and North Dakota—it represents all interests alike.

CITY COUNCIL WILL MEET THIS EVENING

Market Avenue Hill Question Likely to Come Up and North Front Street Grade.

The regular meeting of the Marshfield city council which will be held tonight promises to be a rather lively one. The old question of filling Market avenue and the interesting streets will come up and it is expected that Levi Heisner and Carl Albrecht will again enter protest against the use of the dredge.

The question of establishing grade on North Front street is also expected to come up.

This being the regular quarterly session of the council, the meeting comes on Monday, instead of Tuesday.

Gets New Auto—D. L. Foote received a telegram today from George Goodrum announcing that the new 1912 Cadillac car which he has purchased, has reached Portland and will be down on the next Breakwater. This will be the first 1912 model to reach Coos Bay.

CURRY COUNTY NEWS

Events There as Told by the Gold Beach Globe

News of Col. Muncey's death was brought to town by one of his party, and Will Bailey and Dave Colvin went up to the mine to assist in giving the body a respectable burial near the McKinley cabin. Deceased has a sister living in Salem, and a daughter and other relatives in Washington. He was 74 years old.

W. E. Smith and Mose Averill have bought the Smith sawmill at Pistol River and will move it to the Wenehuc't River before the fall rains set in. Averill started for eastern O. via Portland, to settle up some business affairs, and will bring in some horses. On his return, work moving the mill will commence.

The best season's catch of salmon with a hook and line was made 2:30 evening last week by Will Bailey, Will Childers and Floyd Huntley. The three of them, with three lines, in less than three hours, caught twenty three large chinooks.

Saw Mill Refuse too Valuable to Burn

Many saw mills and wood-working factories no longer burn their refuse or sell it for fuel.

The refuse is used for various purposes including the extraction of alcohol, acids, etc. It is made into a by-product of great value.

Electric Power, therefore, has replaced the steam engines in many saw mills and box factories. It is employed because it enables a substantial reduction in the cost of operation.

In West Virginia, electric power is being used in mining the better grades of bituminous coal. It can do the work cheaper even at the mouth of the mine.

We will supply experts who can solve every power need.
