

MILLICOMA IS LATEST NAME

Mr. Graves said that while he knew, it was difficult for him to inform the council. He thought that it signified a sort of a welcome, the same as the expression "The latch string is out." Mr. Coke said that it was an Indian name and that the Millicoma of Indian legends was the daughter of a chief but that he wasn't sure of its meaning. He said he was opposed to changing the name of Marshfield at all. He then brought up the question of what "Coos Bay" means. He and Mayor Straw declared that "Coos" is a Bible word and not Indian as some thought. Mr. Coke, said some thought it was a contortion of the word "Goose."

Duncan Ferguson insisted that Coos Bay was of Scotch origin. He said that in Scotland that they call "Cows" "kews" and that some Scotchman happened along here in early times and seeing the fine chance for dairying, termed it "Kews Bay" and that it later became "Coos Bay" and then "Coos Bay."

Finally the ordinance for the submission of "Millicoma" was adopted, the five councilmen present voting for it. Councilman Albrecht was absent. After the voting on it, Councilman Cople said that in the future he thought that the council should require a petition showing who was demanding that such matters be submitted. He said that the Chamber of Commerce was sponsor for the submission of Coos Bay which led Councilman Coke to inquire who the Chamber of Commerce was.

City Caucus Law.

City Attorney Goss verbally reported that owing to the Marshfield charter being a special act of the Oregon legislature and being later than the Oregon primary election, the provision in the charter that candidates for city offices should be nominated by a caucus governed.

Councilman Ferguson thought the special primary election law should govern until Mr. Goss explained that the Marshfield charter was really a state law of equal force and effect and being adopted later was the one that governed.

Mr. Goss suggested that it would be well for the council to adopt an ordinance providing that the city consist of one ward. The charter provides that the council shall have the power to divide the city into wards but if more than one ward is created, the councilmen will have to be elected by wards and then there would be a question as to how the candidates should be nominated.

The state law provides that a booth shall be provided for each forty voters. As there are about 700 voters, this would mean thirty-five booths in one polling precinct, too many to be accommodated in any available room for holding the election.

Some bills were allowed, an alias warrant ordered issued for the collection of the balance of the assessments on Elrod avenue and the council adjourned for two weeks from last Tuesday night, following a "little experience meeting," as Mayor Straw termed it in which Messrs. Straw, Coke, Goss and Powers talked on various subjects.

MANY HONOR LOCAL PASTOR

Large Attendance at Reception to Rev. H. I. Rutledge and Wife Last Night.

The reception in honor of Rev. H. I. Rutledge and wife at the Marshfield Methodist church last evening was largely attended and one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind ever held here. The occasion was the reappointment of Rev. Rutledge to the Marshfield charge and the object to show the appreciation of the congregation and the many friends of the worthy couple of the excellent work they are doing here.

The meeting opened with a song by the entire assemblage. Mrs. J. O. Langworthy presided. I. S. Kaufman delivered a short address of welcome and this was followed by remarks by F. A. Saechi in behalf of the Epworth League, Frank Sumner for the choir, Milo Sumner on the Future of the Congregation, Mrs. F. E. Allen in behalf of the Ladies Aid society, Rev. G. Leroy Hall in behalf of the other denominations and a brief report by F. E. Allen on the recent Layman's convention at Salem. Rev. H. I. Rutledge also responded expressing his appreciation of the honors shown him and the courtesies they had enjoyed in the past.

Then followed a fine program which included recitations by Miss Mary Hanson and Mrs. Howard Savage, instrumental selections by Will Stauff, Jas. Stauff and Miss May Stauff, a mandolin duet by the Isaacson boys and a vocal solo by Miss May Stauff.

At the conclusion, refreshments were served.

Back From Trip.—E. Marsh returned home today from Denver and Pueblo, Colo., where he spent the summer. Miss Uma Marsh, who has been visiting in Portland returned with him.

Hand Infected.—Mrs. Lester Smith of Coos River is suffering from a badly infected hand as a result of pricking herself with a fish hook.

Very Ill.—David Sneddon of Libby who is ill of peritonitis and other complications at Mercy hospital, is reported to be in a rather critical condition today.

DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION FOR ECZEMA

The most advanced physicians of this country and Europe are now prescribing a wash of wintergreen thymol and other soothing and healing ingredients for the cure of Eczema, Psoriasis and all other forms of skin trouble. This compound is known as the D. D. D. Prescription.

Dr. Holmes, the well-known skin specialist, writes: "I am convinced that the D. D. D. Prescription is as much a specific for Eczema as is quinine for malaria. We have been prescribing the D. D. D. remedy for years."

We ourselves vouch for the D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema and absolutely guarantee that it will take away the itch the instant you apply it.

If you will call at our store we will be glad to let you have a $1.00 bottle on the guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find it does the work. And you decide. For that matter a trial bottle for 25 cents ought to be enough absolutely to prove the merits of the remedy.

Drop into our store, anyway, and as we have seen a great many cases of skin trouble, we will give you free a pamphlet giving directions for bathing, diet, etc., for all kinds of skin trouble.

Ask for the D. D. D. pamphlet, "Cause and Cure of Skin Disease." Get posted on this wonderful remedy today.—Red Cross Drug Store.

Preferred Stock Tomatoes

come out whole—can be served as stewed tomatoes, or any way, at less cost than fresh ones though equally as good.

Notice the ordinary kind—more like soup than tomatoes; then open a can of Preferred Stock—the kind you would pick from the vine if you had your choice.

Preferred Stock Canned Goods

*Packed Wherever the Best are Grown

For our tomatoes we go to the famous Santa Clara Valley in California. These tomatoes are firmer, with more meat and less water. Only the best of these are selected for Preferred Stock use; they must be just a red, firm ripeness.

We pay more for our tomatoes than most canners do, and we insist on having the first pick, accept only the best fruit, of uniform, medium size, and have it put up right where the tomatoes are grown, by one of the nearest, most expert canners in all California. Tomatoes are a staple necessity in every household. Even the United States Government regards them as an important food from an hygienic and nutritive point of view. Preferred Stock Tomatoes may cost a trifle more than some kinds, but look at the way they come out of the can—and mostly neat; observe the quality and flavor—and the quantity.

Be sure the Tomatoes are Preferred Stock, from your Grocer ALLEN & LEWIS, Wholesale Grocers, PORTLAND, OREGON, U. S. A.
