UPRISING IN CHINA THREATENS TO DEVELOP INTO REVOLUTION

Navy of Troops at Hankow

Broadcasting alarm Is Felt Throughout Country.

SPECIAL GUARD TO PROTECT PEKIN PALACES

Hundreds of Manchus Reported Slain by Former Soldiers at Various Points.

(BY Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

HANKOW, China, Oct. 12.- The Manchus in active revolt against the government with steamships at their command and a large force of troops under General Sun along the Yangtze and the Han rivers.

The revolt is attributed to the activities of General Sun, the Manchu who was said to be in command of a large fleet of steamships and was reported to be making ready for a move against the government. The news is said to have reached the government several days ago, and all the Manchus in the country have been ordered to be on the lookout.

The Manchus are believed to have taken the field in an effort to overthrow the government and establish a new dynasty.

Many of the Manchus are believed to have taken the field in an effort to overthrow the government and establish a new dynasty.

BILLY THE KID'S MURDERERS EXECUTED

LOUISIANA:

Justice Department

On Saturday morning, Billy the Kid's murderers were executed at the state penitentiary in Columbia, Missouri. The execution was carried out by the usual method, the prisoners being shot to death by a firing squad.

The Kid was one of the most notorious outlaws of the day, having been involved in many violent crimes.

WALSH'S NAME NOT ON LIST

LIST OF FEDERAL POLICE ISSUED

BEFORE IT CONTAINS ANY OF THOSE REPORTED DEAD OR MISSING FROM THE FUNC-TION.

(WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 12.- The list of names of those reported dead or missing from the function at the White House on Monday night, as issued by the White House press department, contains the name of no one, although the list was said to be in the hands of the bureau of internal revenue at the time of the function.

The names were said to be in the hands of the bureau of internal revenue at the time of the function.

Walsh's Name Not on List

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 12.- The name of John Walsh, who was reported missing from the function at the White House on Monday night, was not on the list of names issued by the White House press department.

The list contained the names of those reported dead or missing from the function.

SUGARFORD BANQUET

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 12.- The Sugarford banquet at the White House last night was attended by a large number of persons.

The banquet was attended by a large number of persons.

EASTERN WALL STREET

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 12.- The Eastern Wall Street is due to be completed next month.

The Eastern Wall Street is due to be completed next month.

TULIP MAN IS DYING

ARTHUR J. WOOD, THE TULIP MAN, DIES IN PORTLAND

The Tulip Man, Arthur J. Wood, who has been a popular figure on the streets of Portland for many years, died yesterday at his home on the corner of Fourth and Main streets.

He was 72 years old.

Tulip Man's Career

Arthur J. Wood, who was known as the Tulip Man, was born in Portland in 1867. He was the son of a well-known Portland family and was educated in the public schools of the city.

He began his career as a street performer in 1880, when he was 13 years old. He had been a street performer in Portland for many years.

His success as the Tulip Man was due to his skill in painting tulips on the faces of his audience.

He was married twice, and had one daughter.

Wood was known for his love of tulips and for his skill in painting tulips on the faces of his audience.

He was deeply mourned by his many friends and by the people of Portland.

His death is a great loss to the city of Portland, where he had been a beloved figure for many years.