LOCAL NOTES

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)

OREGON, Oct. 19.—Fair to night and Friday.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending at 4:00 p. m., Oct. 18, by Mrs. E. Mings, special government meteorological observer:

Maximum	69
Minimum	36
At 4:00 p. m.	50
Wind, Northwest, clear.

BORN.

LEE—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee at their home in South Marshfield, Thursday, Oct. 19, 1911, a daughter. Mother and child are doing well and the proud father is as happy as if it were the first of a family of eight. It is the second queen in the household and is very welcome.

Moves Office.—W. U. Douglas is moving into an office suite in the First National Bank building.

Rebuild Brewery.—Joe Houser is arranging to rebuild the brewery in Ferndale which was recently destroyed by fire. The debris is being cleared away.

Deal Closed.—The deal whereby Jack Davis becomes a half owner with Ed. Richmond in the Richmond billiard parlors in the Blanco hotel was closed today.

Resigns Place.—Miss Eliza Ayre who has been a capable and efficient employe of the local telephone office for the past eight years, has resigned her position, effective today.

Knew Mathewson.—The world famed baseball pitcher, and Rev. G. LeRoy Hall, pastor of the Marshfield Baptist church, were college mates at Bucknell University at Lewisburg, Pa. Then Mathewson was studying forestry but showed remarkable ability in athletics. Mathewson was a junior when Mr. Hall was a senior.

Socialist Lecture.—Floyd C. Ramp, who recently delivered a number of interesting talks on "Socialism" in this city, returned today and will deliver addresses tonight and tomorrow night on this much discussed topic. Admission is free and the talks are said to be scholarly and interesting.

Stops Speeding.—Marshal Carter has warned the various auto drivers that they must cease racing on South

Broadway. For some time, there has been race between the autos to and from the depot and often pedestrians have been menaced and Marshal Carter has decided to put a stop to the practice. The first offender will be severely dealt with.

Price of Flour.—Through a typographical error in yesterday's Times the price of a sack of Bluestem hard wheat flour was erroneously quoted at $1.50 per sack when it should have read $1.25. As it especially called attention to lowering the high cost of living it was a joke but the low price is no joke. The ad appears correctly in today's Times.

Meet November 1.—County Judge John F. Hall calls attention to the fact that the Coos county commissioners will meet November 1 to take up the fixing of the precincts for next year's elections. He says that petitions for changes in precincts should be filed with County Clerk Watson before 10 o'clock November 1 to receive consideration by the commissioners.

Deer is Tame.—While returning from Coos River yesterday, A. M. Prentiss' launch broke down near the creamery. He went ashore and was suddenly awakened from his reveries by a deer coming out of the brush and passing within a few feet of him. He did not have a gun with him and so he had to merely watch the deer while it took a swim in the river and later returned to the brush.

Seeks Brother.—Tom Christenson of Ferndale believes he has at last found a clue to the whereabouts of a brother, Chris Christenson, whom he has not seen since the latter left the old home in Norway about thirty-six years ago. Mr. Christenson has searched far and wide for the brother and recently heard of a Chris Christenson who is a fisherman on the Columbia River who maybe the long sought relative. He is now trying to get in communication with him.

Elks Meet.—The Marshfield Lodge of Elks at their meeting last evening appointed F. M. Marhofer head of the refreshment committee of the lodge and made arrangements for a special social session for the lodge's meeting next Wednesday when it is expected that two or three candidates will be initiated. The lodge also instructed the committee arranging for attending the grand lodge at Portland next July to engage fifty rooms for the accommodation of Marshfield Elks there.

Likes School.—The many acquaintances of Miss Jessie Chase who taught for three years in the Marshfield High school will be glad to hear of her liking for the eastern school which she is attending. In writing to a friend on the Bay, Miss Chase says, "I like Simmons immensely. If you ever come east to school don't fall to consider this one. It is far ahead of Smith and Vassar. I think." Miss Chase is taking the librarians' course at Simmons' College, Brookline, Mass.

Remodels Store.—The Anona Grocery has been entirely remodeled the last week and with new furniture and fixtures presents a fine appearance. It is now a model, modern and metropolitan grocery store, among the finest in the city.

ering his potato crop, bringing in 350 sacks today.

F. B. COUCH and wife and child arrived today on the Breakwater, and expect to make their future home on Coos Bay. Mr. Couch is an expert carpenter. The family has taken apartments in the Rood house on Fourth and Park streets.

R. J. MONTGOMERY and wife and children will leave tomorrow for Berkeley, Cal., where Mrs. Montgomery will visit her brother while Mr. Montgomery proceeds to his old home at Decatur, Ill., for a short stay. His grandmother, Mrs. Marietta King, will return to Decatur with him.

GUS ANDERSON, an employe in the lath department of the Smith mill, returned with his family today from Minneapolis where they spent the summer visiting relatives and friends. He was accompanied by his brother-in-law Alfred Carlson, his wife and two children who have come to Coos Bay with a view to making their future home here.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN GRIM arrived today from Leadville, Colorado, and may make their future home here. About the first person Mr. Grim met on arrival was an old friend, E. D. McArthur. Their friendship is of many years standing back in Leadville where Mr. Grim was superintendent of a large smelter with which Mr. McArthur had a contract. Mr. Grim is a brother of Mrs. Mary E. Thompson, one of the Marshfield teachers.
