

MANY ATTEND WEDDING HERE

Roy A. Sanber and Miss Hannah Larson United Last Evening.

A most pleasant and largely attended wedding took place last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Larson in South Marshfield when their daughter, Miss Hannah T. Larson, was united in marriage to Mr. Roy A. Sanber from Acme, Ore. Rev. G. LeRoy Hall of the First Baptist church conducted the ceremony. Attendant upon the bride and groom were Miss Signa Larson, a sister of the bride, as maid of honor; Miss Emma Erickson and Miss Esther Nelson as bridesmaids; Hemming Larson, a brother of the bride, and Charles Fredellus as best men, and Myrtle Nelson as flower girl.

The bride appeared in a beautiful gown of white silk and lace, the bridesmaids and flower girl also being dressed in white, the maid of honor wearing a beautiful dress of cream colored silk. The home was elaborately decorated with flowers and greenery, the wedding ceremony taking place under a canopy of roses and ferns arranged in one corner of the parlor.

The wedding march and music during the evening were rendered by a noted violinist, accompanied by piano. The bride and groom having received the congratulations and wishes of friends and relatives, a most delicately prepared and sumptuous supper was served. The new married couple received a number of valuable and useful presents. As evidence of the popularity of bride and groom, a great crowd of young people assembled outside giving expressions to their interest in the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanber will in a few days leave for their future home at Acme, Ore., where Mr. Sanber is interested in a combined sawmill and store business with his father. Those present were: Miss G. G. Erhart, Orville Erhart, Eurilla Erhart, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thorwald, Johnny Thorwald, Clifford Thorwald, Lucy Thorwald, Lily Thorwald, Grace Johnson, Anna Gidmark, Lily Gidmark, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Carlson, Erman Carlson, Beatrice Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Walmark, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olson, Mr. and Mrs. August Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. August Frizeen, Betty Frizeen, J. E. Hellenius, David B. Hill, Mrs. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Larson, Elizabeth Anderson, Mrs. Green, Doris Green, Roy Green, Arthur Willd, Alfred Erickson, Willie Burman, George Ramburg, Mr. Harry Borin, Miss Mil-lgan, Mrs. Egan Allquist, Irma and Henning Allquist.

Following the marriage ceremonies a large number of boys and friends gathered around the Larson home and indulged in a most vociferous charivari, the echoes of which could be heard for a mile or more.

BIG PROFIT IN OREGON.

Southern Pacific Made Big Sum Last Year.

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 19. — The annual report of the Southern Pacific company has been filed with the Railroad Commission. The report covered the entire line, separate reports for Oregon being in up to the date of the report.

Operating revenues were $91,108,761.40, and operating expenses $52,234,137.34, leaving a net operating revenue of $38,874,624.06. Dividends of $21,626,282.08 on stocks were declared during the ruling year. The company has had during the year 43,764 employees and has paid out $39,190,639.82 to them in wages. The mileage of lines operated is given at 6,198.28, number of passengers carried was 34,199,459, and the number carried one mile was 1,429,600,384.

Over 18,000,000 tons of freight were carried and over 4,000,000,000 tons carried one mile. The total freight revenue for the year was approximately $53,000,000, and the passenger revenue $31,000,000. Details for Oregon will be sent later to the Commission.

Operating revenues for the state of Oregon total $8,777,260. The total operating expenses for the state were $4,580,471. The dining and special car service for the entire line amounted to $1,671,824 in revenues, and expenses were $1,983,331, or a deficit for this service of $311,506.

WANT LIFE SAVERS.

Papers were circulated here this week setting forth in the form of affidavits the reasons why a life saving station should be established by the government at the mouth of the Siuslaw river.—Florence West.

FOR WIRELESS STOCKHOLDERS.

The story of the United Wireless Telegraph company shows how much real value an investor in wildcat stock gets for his money. Of $4,000,000 received, only $900,000 went to the company, the rest being divided among the promoters. What the investors really did was to donate fortunes to the astute men who are now wearing stripes.—Portland Oregonian.

Sails Tomorrow.—The Redondo will sail tomorrow morning at nine o'clock for San Francisco.

On Vacation.—Postmaster W. B. Curtis is taking his annual vacation and on it he will return to his old love—the high seas. He has gone to Portland where he will join a steam freight of which his brother is captain and will make the trip from there to San Diego and return, and will be absent about two weeks. Mr. Curtis followed the seas for many years and at one time was shipwrecked on the coast of Africa.

NORTH BEND NEWS.

There will be a regular meeting of the North Bend Mother's and Teacher's Club at the Central School house at 3 o'clock P. M. tomorrow. A full attendance is desired as the annual election of officers will take place.
