THEY "started something" at Lexington; and they finished it, too; and a great finish it was. We've started something here, also; a strictly high-grade clothing business with nothing but good quality to offer; such quality in clothes as produce; nothing better in the world; and other merchandise of similar excellence; and service in selling such as you want and ought to have. We'll finish on that line.

LOCAL NOTES

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.) OREGON, Oct. 20.—Fair to-night and Saturday.

Is Bankrupt.—E. W. Hermann, whose store in Myrtle Point was recently closed by creditors, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in federal court. His liabilities and assets have not been definitely determined.

Coming Soon.—C. A. Smith, head of the C. A. Smith Lumber Company, is expected here about November 1. Arno Meehan, who is looking after the business of the company at Oakland and Bay Point, is expected to accompany Mr. Smith here.

Injured at School.—While at play at the High school this morning, Whitford Hall, the eight-year-old son of Mrs. and Rev. G. LeRoy Hall, fell with such force that his face was badly bruised. It is feared that his nose has been broken.

Many Hear Lecture.—Quite a large audience gathered last evening to hear Floyd C. Ramp lecture on socialism. Mr. Ramp is a graduate of the Oregon University and an interesting talker. He will speak again this evening.

Social Tonight.—The social to be given by the Ladies of St. Monica's Catholic church at the Odd Fellows hall this evening promises to be largely attended and to be one of the most enjoyable functions of the kind in a long time. The hall has been prettily decorated for the occasion.

Nann Smith In.—The Nann Smith arrived in today from Bay Point after a good trip up the coast. At the present clip, Capt. Olson will succeed in carrying considerable over 80,000,000 feet of lumber out of Coos Bay during the current year. He hopes to get close to the 90,000,000 foot mark.

Fine Strawberries.—A. B. Campbell today brought in some fine strawberries to the Chamber of Commerce as a further demonstration of the ability to grow the delicious product here at all seasons of the year. The Chamber of Commerce is receiving many fine samples of Coos Bay fruit and vegetable products and they make a fine exhibit for the strangers who are constantly visiting the quarters.

Blast Old Scows.—This forenoon, workmen blasted out the old scows, which the government left at Coal Bank Inlet when the jetty work here ceased a few years ago, to get rid of them. The plan was to blow them to pieces so that the timber could be taken out of the channel and covered up with the section that is filled by the dredge Oregon. The shocks from the blasting were plainly felt all over town and at first caused some alarm. The blasts also caused a considerable tide in the upper Bay that shook the smaller crafts considerably.

Coos Bay Looks Good.—Dr. C. W. Tower, who returned yesterday from a visit with Dr. Jay Tuttle at Astoria, says that Coos Bay looks mighty good to him in comparison with Astoria. There is no hard paving, with the exception of a half block of concrete in Astoria, and the town generally has a dilapidated appearance. In order to pave the down-town section, it would be necessary to make a fill of about fourteen feet. Dr. Tower says that Dr. Tuttle and Gabe Wingate, formerly superintendents of the Eastport mines, are enjoying good health which will be gratifying news to their many friends on the Bay.

Builds Boathouse.—John Johnson of Ferndale is just completing a boat house for the nightwatch on the dredge Oregon. The latter has got tired of trying to sleep on the boat during the day time owing to the noise made by her operations and so is getting a quieter place. The boathouse will only cost him $250 and he figures that what he would pay out for room rent would soon make a big payment on it and besides this.

Coos Bay Investments

$4,500.—Fine 8-room house and bath, nice garden, well improved, within one block of Flanagan Bank. Splendid investment and will make you money while you sleep. Terms.

$3,500.—Farm of 100 acres, on deep water and within 1/4-mile of Creamery, fine store, hotel and village. This will double your money by spring. 25 acres in cultivation. House and barn. Small payment down, balance 1 to 5 years.

$3,300.—Farm of 80 acres, in Coquille valley, about 25 acres in cultivation. About $700 to $800 good timber, and remainder easily cleared. Low bench land. A great bargain. Owner compelled to sell.

$10,000.—Business property, in the heart of the city, 50x115, improved. A splendid investment. Look this up.

$3,000.—Prettiest little bungalow in the city. 6 rooms, all modern conveniences. 3 blocks from center of town.

$2,200.—Finely located bungalow, close in and splendid neighborhood. A bargain.

Acreage.—In tracts to suit including some splendid platting propositions.

he will have some property that he can convert into cash whenever he decides to do so.

Concert Sunday.—Director Fenton of the Coos Bay Concert band announces that a concert will be given Sunday afternoon at 2:30. If the weather permits, it will be given in the city park, and if the weather is unfavorable it will be given in the Masonic Opera house.

Board Adjourns.—The Coos County equalization board has adjourned until October 26, when complaints relative to land and personal property assessments will be taken up. Complaints against timber assessments will be heard October 27. Judge Hall, who returned today, stated that there were less complaints this year than in many seasons although it had been anticipated that there would be more.
