Sails Today.—The Randolph is taking a cargo of general merchandise here today for Port Orford and Gold Beach.

Child Sick.—A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Pierce was taken to Mercy hospital this morning to undergo a minor operation.

Dance Saturday.—The dance to be given by the Coos Bay Concert band at the Eagles hall will be next Saturday night and not Friday night as has been erroneously announced.

Tabernacle Tonight.—The program committee decided yesterday to hold tonight a continuation of the testimony meeting which was abruptly concluded last Saturday evening.

Has Operation.—Mrs. Rhodes of South Inlet underwent an operation at Mercy hospital yesterday for appendicitis. It was a very acute case. She is getting along as well as could be expected.

Buys Hotel.—Frank Bowroff was in from Ten Mile today on business. He has bought the Chas Norris hotel property at Lakeside and will occupy it soon. Whether he has closed the deal for the sale of his ranch could not be ascertained.

Buys Home.—Col. R. J. Walrath has purchased from the Kaufman company the bungalow at the corner of Eleventh and Anderson, known as the Swanson and Davis property, for about $2,500. Mr. Walrath is the proprietor of the Rogers' hotel.

Makes Fill Complete.—The dredge Oregon this morning began pumping in near the Hirst residence property on North Broadway. Nearly all of the property owners have decided to have the flat filled and those who do not want their yards filled have had dikes built around their property to keep the water back. The fill will greatly enhance the property in that section.

Fine Concert.—One of the best programs that has been rendered by the Coos Bay Concert band was given at the City Park yesterday afternoon. Not as large a crowd was out as the concert deserved, but those present showed their appreciation of the fine work of Director Fenton and his organization by liberal applause.

Rejoice Over Daughter.—Coos Bay friends have been apprised of the arrival of a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Morse at the family home in Berkeley, Cal. Being the first daughter, there is much joy in the home over her arrival. Mr. Morse is chief engineer on the tug Columbia and his many friends will hasten to extend congratulations.

Council Meets.—The Marshfield city council will meet tomorrow night. While a number of matters will come up, the principal object of the meeting is to give all the property owners affected by the proposed improvement of Market avenue and the intersecting streets an opportunity to be heard and everyone who wishes to make any suggestions relative to the work is requested to be present as the definite plan for it will be adopted then.

Takes Out Lumber.—The San Pedro called this morning for San Francisco with a cargo of lumber from the Railroad dock.

Very Ill.—John Nye, a veteran of the civil war who resides on North Inlet, is reported very ill at his home there.

Is Receiver.—E. A. Dodge of Myrtle Point, has been appointed temporary receiver for the business of E. W. Hermann who recently filed a petition in bankruptcy.

Fish Warden Here.—Angus Goar, fish warden for this section of Oregon, is spending a few days on the Bay and visiting the South Coos River Hatchery. Mr. Goar is an old-time friend of Captain J. A. O'Kelly.

Dredge Brought Here.—The Larson dredge Oregon was brought over from Bandon today by a tug. The dredge completed the work on the Coquille river project a few days ago and has been waiting for good weather to be brought here.

Get Many Ducks.—H. J. McKeown, R. K. Booth, R. A. Wernich and Russ Tower returned today from an over-Sunday duck hunt at the Sand Hill lakes. They brought back about sixty-two but they killed a number of others which they were unable to secure.

Meet Wednesday.—The Altar Guild of the Marshfield Episcopal church will hold an open meeting at the Lutheran church hall Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 when refreshments will be served. It will be the first meeting of the season and will be an open one.

Starts Restaurant.—The rear of the building at the corner of Front and Commercial is being remodeled. The Langworthy barber shop will be slightly altered and a new room constructed between it and the Moore saloon in which Mr. Smith of Portland will open a restaurant.

Wed at Salem.—The Salem Statesman announces that Louis Delman Pettijohn and Miss Aida Eldred Cannon were married there October 15 by the Rev. P. S. Knight and that they will be at home at 415 South Twelfth street in that city after a short honeymoon trip. Both are well known on Coos Bay, having resided here a number of years, and news of their nuptials will come as a surprise to their friends here. Mr. Pettijohn was formerly a member of the firm of Pettijohn and Nichols and Miss Cannon was bookkeeper for the firm. Mr. Pettijohn is now engaged in the real estate business at Salem.

SURVEYORS BUSY

Work on the Electric Line to Roseburg is Progressing.
(From Roseburg News.)

Geo. Marsh was in the city today from Looking Glass. The gentleman informs the News that the railroad surveyors, who it is acknowledged represent the Astor interests, and are at this time working in the vicinity of Looking Glass, are progressing rapidly with the survey. The party consists of nine men, teams and all the necessary equipment for the work in hand and is making a thorough and accurate survey. It is quite probable they will reach this city in about two weeks. As noted in the News a few days ago, Mr. Marsh is of the opinion that the survey will cross the Umpqua in the vicinity of the Henry Conn farm and enter this city by way of Edenbowser with depot facilities in North Roseburg. The Astor people represent the proposed electric line.
