RAILWAY NEWS OF COOS BAY

But Few Developments In Local Situation Today—No Bridge Across Bay.

There was a decided dearth of railway news or rumors here today. Engineer Sumner of the Pacific Coast line, who has established his winter survey camp at Winchester Bay, came down today on business. However, he wasn't talking relative to the company's plans. He says everything is going nicely with the survey.

There have been no new developments on the Coos Bay and Boise, or in the Coos Bay and Eastern Electric, so far as can be ascertained.

Engineer Sandberg is still busy with a force of men on the preliminary survey for the Terminal railway.

Relative to the Southern Pacific bridging the Bay, a Coos Bay man declared today that he knew absolutely that the company was not going to bridge the bay. He said that the only question now was whether they would ferry across from North Inlet to Pony Inlet or follow the route indicated by their tide-flat purchase on the east side of the bay.

MYRTLE POINT TEAM STRONG

Far Outweighed Marshfield High School Football Aggregation Saturday.

The Marshfield High school football team captured its first championship game of the season Saturday when it defeated the Myrtle Point boys by a score of 5 to 0 on the latter's grounds. The game was fast and hard fought although it was evident from the start that Marshfield had Myrtle Point outclassed on the fine points of football. Myrtle Point was strong on the defense but did not show up quite so well in carrying the ball.

The grounds were about as hard as they could possibly have been, and it was at first feared that numerous injuries would result. "Puskey" Johnson, however, was the only man who was forced to retire, the cause being an ugly gash in his right hand over a half-healed wound.

In size the Myrtle Point team would compare favorably with most of the varsity teams. Marshfield was outweighed from 15 to 20 pounds per man and at times it was humorous to see the way some of the smaller men of the Marshfield team bucked up against their much larger opponents.

Marshfield started the game by kicking off to Myrtle Point. Myrtle Point, however, was unable to make much headway and lost the ball on downs. Marshfield carried the ball close to the Myrtle Point line and it remained in Myrtle Point's territory for the rest of the quarter, sea-sawing between teams.

In the second quarter, Marshfield again took the aggressive, and after carrying the ball to Myrtle Point's 12-yard line, sent G. Johnson around end for a touchdown. The goal was missed.

In the third and fourth sessions, Myrtle Point played a somewhat stronger game and the result was that the ball remained well in the center of the field until time was called at the end of the contest.

Many of the supporters of the Marshfield boys expected to see them pile up a much larger score against Myrtle Point than they did in the previous game when the score was 25 to 9, but Myrtle Point made so many changes in its lineup and strengthened its team in so many ways that it had an entirely new team on the field. The trip over and the condition of the grounds took some of the ginger out of the Marshfield team and also helped to hold down the score.

Coach Grannis of Marshfield, and Coach Johnson of Myrtle Point gave entire satisfaction as officials. There was a large crowd out, most of the business houses of Myrtle Point closing for the game.

Next Saturday the Myrtle Point team plays at North Bend. The game is looked forward to with much interest as it is the first scheduled game North Bend has this year, and it will give rise to much speculation as to what team will win the 1911 championship.

Today the North Bend team plays its alumni team. The following men will be in the lineup for the high school: Dewey, Hanson, Welling, Davis, Golder, Weir, Conro, Sheppard, Van Zile, Grout, Newkirk and Hunt. On November 4, Marshfield meets

North Bend on its home grounds for the last game to be played here this season. Preparations are already underway for a rally and a big time. It is hoped that the supporters of the Marshfield team will pull together and ring out the biggest crowd that ever attended a football game in Southwestern Oregon.

BROTHER IS DEAD.

Relative of E. H. Joehnk of Marshfield Passes Away at Oregon City.

Word has just been received here of the death of a brother of E. H. Joehnk at Oregon City. The latter left here a few days ago in response to a message announcing the critical condition of the latter. A dispatch from Oregon City gives the following particulars of his demise:

"Adolph William Joehnk, a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Joehnk, of Mount Pleasant, died at the family home. The young man was taken ill about 1 1/2 years ago with typhoid fever. He was recovered from his illness and hopes were entertained for his recovery, when he was taken ill three weeks ago with tuberculosis of the spine, which was the cause of his death. Adolph Joehnk was born at Mount Pleasant May 13, 1889, and at the time of his death he was 22 years of age. He was employed for some time at Portland, but has spent most of his life in this city. He left, besides his parents, of Mount Pleasant, one sister, Miss Wilhelmina Joehnk, a journalist of New York; two brothers, Edward Joehnk, an attorney of Marshfield, and Carl Joehnk, register clerk of the Oregon City postoffice."
