LOCAL NOTES

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)

OREGON, Oct. 24.—Fair to night and Wednesday, with easterly winds.

Loggers Incorporate.—The Seeley-Anderson Logging company of Coquille has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state at Salem, the capitalization of the company being $100,000.

Plays Again.—Gordon Rasmussen, son of Neils Rasmussen, played part of the game with the Oregon Agricultural team against Pacific University Saturday. He played left half. A strong bandage to protect his weak wrist has been made. Pacific University was defeated 26 to 9.

Sent North.—Emma Ingram, the North Bend girl who was recently found guilty of delinquency by the Coos county juvenile court, was taken north Saturday on the Breakwater to Portland to enter a rescue home there. En route, she was placed in the keeping of Capt. T. J. Macgeen.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening to take up the improvement of Market avenue and the intersecting streets. It is expected that there will be a large turnout of affected property owners as this will be their last chance to express themselves on plans for the improvement.

Willamette Loses.—Saturday, Willamette University was defeated at Portland by the Multnomah club eleven by a score of 17 to 0. The Multnomah club team far outweighed the college men. In its account of the game, the Salem Statesman says that Eric Bolt of Marshfield played a strong game on the offensive and defensive. Bolt played at right tackle.

New Billiard Hall.—Alfred Matson, who has been connected with the Richmond Billiard parlors for some time, has leased the room in the new Alliance building at the corner of Front and Central avenues and will open a billiard and pool parlor there. He has gone to Portland to purchase tables and fixtures and expects to return with them the latter part of the week.

A TURKISH BATH will do you GOOD. Phone 214-J.

EXPECTS LINE TO ROSEBURG

San Francisco Man Thinks Southern Pacific Will Build From Here There.

That the Southern Pacific plans a line from Coos Bay to Roseburg regardless of its present plan to build from Coos Bay to Eugene is the belief of Robert A. Bruce of San Francisco who is in Marshfield. Mr. Bruce is in a business way connected with the railroads and his son is now employed as a civil engineer by the Southern Pacific. He expects his son to be on the Bay within a month or so.

As reasons for his belief that the Southern Pacific will build from Coos Bay to Roseburg, Mr. Bruce gives the fact that the company is arranging to erect new shop buildings at Roseburg. The plans for the new buildings call for concrete structures and one of them will be a twenty stall concrete roundhouse. For the present shop business at Roseburg, he says, a twenty stall roundhouse would not be needed. Furthermore, if the announced plans of the Southern Pacific are carried out and the bulk of the through business between Portland and California points handled over the new Natron cut-off route instead of the old Shasta route, on account of the lesser grade on the new road, there would not be as much business for the Roseburg shops as there now is. He cannot figure any other need for the larger shops at Roseburg than anticipation of a line from there to Coos Bay.

IN CALVIN'S DISTRICT.

San Francisco Southern Pacific Official's Territory Includes This Section.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 24.—The first news of an eastward and northward extension of the Pacific system territory of the Harriman lines, was made public here, in the first official circular issued by William Sprule, the new president of the Southern Pacific company. The circular announced that after November 1, the jurisdiction of William F. Herrin, E. E. Calvin and E. O. McCormick, vice-presidents of the Southern Pacific railroad, will extend over the lines south of Portland, west from Ogden and west of the Rio Grande river bridge, just this side of El Paso.

The present eastern and northern limits of the territory are Sparks, Nevada, and Ashland, Oregon. San Francisco will at the same time become the headquarters of all the roads operated by the Southern companies. It is understood that the lines in Oregon will be provided with an organization of their own, so as to be readily responsive to local business demands.

Get Bloodhounds.—Al Nichols of Empire was in Marshfield today. He and Glen Rozelle have just received two fine bloodhound pups from Seattle which they will use in varmint hunting and also in man-hunting if the latter becomes necessary. The pups are of the red breed and are about eight months old. They are going to try and keep them chained up most of the time but if they should get loose, they are urging all their friends not to shoot them as worthless animals because until they are trained they are liable to follow almost any trail and might be mistaken for deer dogs.

EDUCATOR CRACKERS

The kind you have been reading about in the magazines. New shipment just received at this store. EDUCATOR TOASTERETTES ARE A DELICIOUS, DAINY, BELOVED ALIKE BY YOUNG AND OLD.

One of the many varieties of Educator Crackers. They are baked by the daughter of their creator. She personally samples each day's baking and insists upon the same high quality that has made Educator Crackers famous for twenty-five years.

THE CRACKER OF CHARACTER AND ECONOMY.

Educator Toasterettes are made from whole wheat flour—freshly stone-ground in the good old-fashioned way. The flour is mixed with pure, sweet spring water from our own Artesian wells.

Then it is savored with tab'e salt. And toasted to a delicate brown. And touched with table butter. Yes, you'll find Toasterettes a unique and wholesome delicacy—delightfully different from any other cracker you ever tasted. Just try them once. Then you'll never be without them.

DAUGHTER IS INJURED.

Child of Former Coos Bay Couple Bitten by Dog at Klamath Falls.

The following dispatch from Klamath Falls will be of interest to the many friends here of L. R. Robertson and family. Mr. Robertson having been manager of the Coos Bay Telephone company for several years prior to its sale to the Coos Bay Home Telephone company a couple of years ago:

"Hattie, the 5-year-old daughter of Manager L. R. Robertson of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, was severely bitten this afternoon by a presumably tame St. Bernard dog belonging to Thomas Drake, an attorney. The attorney was in a store while the dog waited outside. The little child came running up to the dog to play with the brute and it growled. A clerk heard the growl and says he asked Drake if it would bite, Drake replying that it would not harm children.

"Hardly an instant afterwards a scream was heard and when the men went outside found that the canine had made a snap at the little girl and bitten severely her left ear, upper lip and scalp. Dr. J. E. Taylor treated her under an anaesthetic. She is expected to recover."
