

TWICE TO JAIL IN TWO DAYS

Sam Centers Gets Into Trouble For Causing Disturbances Here.

"In again, out again, in again" tells in brief the story of Sam Centers' experience with the Marshfield city jail. Yesterday afternoon, he and Frank Smith were arrested for fighting and creating a disturbance and this morning each paid a fine of $5. Shortly after noon, Centers was again arrested for disturbing the peace and placed in jail. Centers is from Libby and for a time was employed as a delivery man here.

Yesterday afternoon Centers and Smith had lunched too freely and the trouble followed. They had mixed it up several times and were disturbing the peace and quiet of South Broadway when Marshal Carter heard of it and started after them with an auto.

He finally located them but did catch them until after a chase. He brought them up town and at the corner of Commercial and Front, Smith jumped out and ran upstairs in a nearby building. Carter gave pursuit and Centers than hiked in the opposite direction. Fred Nelme corralled Centers and the two were finally taken to jail.

MANY TOOK BEER.

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 24.—Beer drinkers in America consumed 19,200,000,000 glasses last year, according to H. E. O. Helmmann, secretary of the United States Brewers' association, who addressed the brewers' convention on "Beer, the People's Beverage."

LAST HORSE DRAWN 'BUS

LONDON, England, October 24.—When Andrew Gibson, for thirty-seven years the driver of an omnibus in London, throws down his reins some night near the end of the present month, the last horse-drawn 'bus will have finished its final trip through the streets of the world's metropolis.

Gibson shakes his gray head sadly over the prospects and declares that the London of the motorbus and taxicab is not as happy as the London of the days when people were content to move more slowly. He said, "When I started driving folks seemed to have more time and were more contented. Passengers of today never think of passing the time of day with the driver, or asking questions like they used to." At the heyday of Gibson's career the two omnibus companies of London owned 31,000 horses.

WILL LAUNCH SHIP NOV. 15

Simpson Lumber Company's New Vessel Is Rapidly Nearing Completion.

The new steam schooner which is under construction at the North Bend shipyards for the Simpson Lumber company, is rapidly nearing completion and unless something unexpected interferes, she will probably be launched on or about November 15. She will probably be named the Astoria, in honor of the old tug of the Simpson Lumber company which did such excellent service for years and whose engines she carries.

It was first thought to name her the A. M. Simpson in honor of Capt. Simpson, but the latter objected. He said he had built many boats in his day and it was too late to name one for him now. However, the name has not been definitely decided upon. It is expected to get the boat closed in this week so that they will no longer be dependant upon good weather for working on her.

News of Sailing.
The Gardiner Mill company's schooner, the Sadie, was towed in to Coos Bay today by the Gleaner and will probably lead here for San Francisco.

The Breakwater will sail from Portland this evening for Coos Bay and reach here early Thursday morning.

The Alliance is scheduled to sail tomorrow from Portland for Coos Bay and will probably reach here about noon Thursday.

The Redondo is scheduled to sail from San Francisco for Coos Bay tomorrow afternoon.

ASSIST MARK TWAIN'S OLD TIME FRIEND

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

LONDON, England, October 24.—Joseph Verey, friend and courier of Mark Twain during nine of the European tours made by the American humorist, has been rescued from want by a society of professional humorists. Verey felt the pinch of poverty from the loss of his savings, which had been invested unwisely, and he was in actual want when discovered in obscure London lodgings by a London paper's representative. When his plight was made public, a number of admirers of Mark Twain interested themselves in his behalf and secured him a position as lecturer to a society for the encouragement of humor. Just prior to his late misfortune, the former courier was engaged as pheasant raiser by King Alfonso of Spain. On one of the visits of the royal family to the hatchery, Verey entertained them with stories of his travels with the celebrated American humorist. He has an endless store of recollections of his famous employer.

LESS CRIME IN ENGLAND

The report of the British Prison Commission just made public indicates that crime is on the decrease in the kingdom as there is a fall of 14,000 in the number of prisoners. The Commissioners denounce short sentences and plead for longer terms with a view to successful reformatory effects. The report bears testimony to the good moral effect of lectures and concerts in the prisons.

COKE DECIDES CASE.

Judge Coke of Marshfield has dismissed the injunction case of the Booth-Kelly Lumber company vs. the City of Eugene, which was commenced during the construction of the city's hydro-electric ditch and a demurrer to the complaint was filed by the city and in about 18 months Judge Coke sustained the demurrer. The amended complaint was filed and demurred to and the demurrers sustained, after which the attorneys for the plaintiff company wrote Judge Coke they did not care to plead further and the clerk received a letter saying the case had been dismissed.—Eugene Register.

SALTING MONEY.

Put seven dollars in the bank as soon as you can do it; prepare for seasons lean and bank and you will never rue it. I used to blow my wages in as fast as I could earn them. Whenever I had some scads of tin, I made a rush to burn them. I bought all kinds of raiment gay and shining ties and collars, and then one happy, fateful day I salted seven dollars. I put those roubles down in brine—an impulse led me to it. And now just take this bunch of mine; go likewise thou and do it. Those seven bones soon called for more and etsoons I had twenty; each week I put in three or four and soon I'll roll in plenty. Since I began this banking graft, my self-respect increases. I feel that I'm as big as Taft and just as slick as grease is. I am the young man unafraid, the youth with glad kydoodle. The whole town wants to get my trade, because I have the boodie. I do not fear the rainy day whereon the broke man hollers; so take my plan—go right away and salt down seven dollars.

ALUMNI TIED HIGH SCHOOL

North Bend Football Game Ends With Five to Five Score Yesterday.

The first football game of the season in North Bend yesterday afternoon resulted in a tie, the High school and Alumni each scoring five. For a little while, it looked as though the game might terminate in a squabble owing to the last quarter running over the time limit and the High school scoring five more. Finally the timekeeper, Prof. Grubbs, stated that the game should have been called before the High school scored the last time, leaving it a tie. Glen Grout was the referee.

The lineups of the two teams were as follows:
