

PASTOR BRINGS CONDEMNATION

DR. KNOX BRINGS CHARGES AGAINST CHRISTIANS OF THIS CITY—SAYS THEY ARE HALF-HEARTED.

(By Rev. G. LeRoy Hall.)
"There are Christians in Marshfield who are putting their enthusiasm into the social functions each week in order to get their names printed in the Saturday evening newspaper."
TABERNACLE TOPICS.
Sunday morning, "Crown or Crucifix."
Sunday evening, "A Fatal Neglect."

(By Rev. G. LeRoy Hall.)
"There was no one who went to sleep at the service held in the Tabernacle last evening. The enthusiastic sermon by Rev. Dr. Knox was one to make people sit up and take notice. He speaks directly to the point and says what he thinks and means what he says."
"He said that if Christians put as much energy into the advancing of the cause of Jesus Christ as the people put in the advancing the things of this world, Christianity would be far more advanced today and there would be no need of a great evangelist to come to Marshfield, but people would be doing the work that God intended them to do and that too with enthusiasm."
"He held out encouraging things for Marshfield and said that our city would not always be the way it is now. When in the future we get a better council and mayor into office, the Sabbath will not be used for selfish pleasures and amusements as it is at the present time."

CHANGED CONDITIONS

When you and I were younger, Kate, And money hard to get, my dear, Do you recall our anxious state, The bore of duns and debts, my dear?
But ah! the table you could set— And how you did it, goodness knows!
On fifty cents a dinner, net. 'Twas Youth that did it, I suppose.
Those rolls from round the corner, Kate— Their memory still may whet, my dear!
An appetite that's grown sedate— And then your omelette, my dear, The lettuce crisp, and red rosette Of ripe tomato, such as grows (In fancy) by some rivulet!
'Twas Youth that did it, I suppose.
The ham in two thin slices, Kate, And from the parapet, my dear, Where pigeons oft perambulate, You bring one bottle—yet, my dear Enough for two of us, you bet.
From one to other how it goes! Nor needs more formal etiquette. 'Twas Youth that did it, I suppose.—Puck.

2 1/2-CENT LUNCH PLEASES PUPILS.

St. Louis Scholars Enjoy Soup and Chocolate Provided by Board.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 26.—Pupils of four public schools, served Monday for the first time with 2 1/2-cent luncheons provided by the Board of Education, seemed so well satisfied with the food and the arrangements made for serving it that the board will extend the service to all city schools. Each of the following articles sold for 2 1/2 cents:
Bowl of noodle soup and four crackers, beef and rice croquettes, cup of chocolate with a roll, glass of milk and two slices of bread and a cup of custard.
The first day's menu will be varied from time to time. A list of food that can be served for the same price has been prepared. This menu ranges from milk and soup to chopped meat sandwiches, gingerbread and blanc mange.

Does Marshfield Want Advancement

I can remember some thirty years ago when the only railroad in the county was the old wooden railroad across the isthmus from the head of Beaver slough across the divide to the head of tide water on this side. The motive power was a hand-car and the coach was a small push-car. The men would work the hand-car and the women and children would ride on the flat car. Still it was the best to be had in those days and served the purpose. Evidences of this old road are still to be seen in the rotting rails and trestles. At last came a step in advance and the iron horse came with his rush and roar to awaken the echoes in the wooded hills and made life so much easier for those who wished to travel. And now we are looking for the coming of the great transcontinental lines to connect it with the east. And all things are on the advance. We would not go back to our old modes of living and travel, and this is right.

Let our slogan be "Advance." There were people who did not welcome the coming of the iron horse. They had gotten into a groove and did not care to advance. The old way was good enough for them. You frequently see young people treading the grooves made by their elders, all following a deeply beaten path. The path of tradition, "Life is crossed and recrossed with such paths, so that one may hardly escape falling into one of them."

The old way—the way that things have been done, is the easy way. It is so much easier to follow a beaten path that leads to things already accomplished and discovered than it is to find or make a new one that will lead to real accomplishment.

One generation follows in the footsteps of the last generation. Even when new and better methods have been discovered, so many would cling to the old way. In all of the walks of life we find these people trying to balk the progress of the times.

Tradition! We must uphold tradition; they cry, when you ask them why they do not attempt something new.

Tradition! It has wrecked nations, and kept able men forever in the rut that they were not strong enough to escape.

The Chinese sailor still builds his clumsy junk, rigs it with clumsy sails and navigates it in a clumsy fashion, because his father and grandfather did the same things. Better means of navigation are available but he scorns them. "What was good enough for my father and grandfather is good enough for me." He might easily be released from his slavery to tradition, but he refuses to be and so, like the young man or woman who begins life with the idea that what is old is necessarily right and what is new is necessarily wrong, he will have a poor chance in competition with his more wide-awake fellows. Every trade, profession, science and art must be improved.

We must not despise the new, but look for advancement, investigate and give merit where merit is due. I come to you people of Coos county with something that is new to many of you in the way of curing disease, although in other parts it is taking the place of the old methods. I have only been here a short time, still in that time I have brought the glow of health to some of the sufferers right here in Marshfield and they are only too glad to recommend me to their friends and to any one I would gladly give their names to those making inquiry. If you are suffering with any chronic disease call and see me. If I can help you I will tell you so and if not I will be just as frank. Why stick to the old way? Think this over, it costs you nothing to investigate. And it may be the means of relieving you of much suffering. Do not let others deter you by scoffing at the new way, for it has come to stay, until some other new and better way is discovered. And then we must welcome that for as the world rolls on light must come on many things and we must not be the ones to try to block advancement, but get out of the groove and adjust ourselves to the new conditions. Yes, even put our shoulder to the wheel and help along. Consultation free.

SHANIKO MAYOR SHOT

Eastern Oregon Banker Slain By Drunken Man.

SHANIKO, Or., Oct. 27.—J. C. Fowle, cashier of the Eastern Oregon Banking company and mayor of Shaniko, who was shot on the street of this city by D. A. Howell, died at The Dalles hospital after an operation from which he did not rally. No reason can be given for the shooting except that Howell was drunk and harbored a grievance against his victim which is not generally known.
The shooting occurred in front of C. P. Wilson's drugstore. Howell was being taken to the city jail by City Marshal G. H. Reeder for assaulting a farmer in the washroom of a local hotel. At the drugstore corner he stopped and engaged Mayor Fowle in conversation concerning his arrest. Mr. Fowle told him he knew nothing of the trouble and advised him to go to bed, whereupon Howell drew a 32-calibre automatic pistol from his trousers pocket and fired twice at arms' length. One bullet entered Mr. Fowle's abdomen, ranging downward and lodged under the skin a little above the right hip. Howell was thrown to the sidewalk and disarmed by Officer Reeder and Councilman R. I. Kinney. The Mayor walked into the drugstore unaided but soon became sick.

Even Most Powerful Rulers Fear War; None Fear Peace

By Pope PIUS X.

I AM happy to learn that in the United States of America under the leadership of men enjoying the HIGHEST AUTHORITY with the people the more judicious members of the community are fervently desirous of maintaining the advantages of INTERNATIONAL PEACE.

To compose differences, to restrain the outbreak of hostilities, to prevent the dangers of war, to remove even the anxieties of so called ARMED PEACE, is indeed most PRAISEWORTHY, and any effort in this cause, even although it may not immediately or wholly accomplish its purpose, manifests nevertheless a zeal which cannot but redound to the CREDIT of its authors and be of benefit to the state.

THIS IS ESPECIALLY TRUE AT THE PRESENT DAY, WHEN VAST ARMIES, INSTRUMENTALITIES MOST DESTRUCTIVE TO HUMAN LIFE, AND THE ADVANCED STATE OF MILITARY SCIENCE PORTEND WARS WHICH MUST BE A SOURCE OF FEAR EVEN TO THE MOST POWERFUL RULERS, SOMETHING NOT TO BE SAID OF INTERNATIONAL PEACE.

I most heartily commend the work already begun, which should be approved by ALL good men.

I do not doubt that the same distinguished men who possess so much ability and such wisdom in affairs of state will construct in behalf of a STRUGGLING AGE a royal road for the nations leading to peace and conciliation in accordance with the laws of justice and charity, which should be SACREDLY observed by all.

FREE TO YOU—MY SISTER

Free to You and Every Sister Suffering from Woman's Ailments.
I am a woman.
I know woman's sufferings.
I have found the cure.
I will mail, free of any charge, my home treatment with full instructions to any sufferer from woman's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or White discharges, Uterine Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Prolapsus, Scanty or Painful Periods, Ulcers of Ovarian Tumors, or Growths; also pains in head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, bad flashes, weariness, dizziness, and bladder troubles when caused by weakness peculiar to our sex.
I want to send you a complete ten day's treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that if you get nothing to give the treatment a complete trial, and if you receive a cure, or less than two cents a day, it is yours, and I will send you the treatment for your case, entirely free, in plain wrapper, with explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to think for herself. Then when the doctor says, "You must have an operation," you can decide for yourself. Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home remedy. It cures all old or young. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectually cures Leucorrhoea, Green Discharges and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in young Ladies, and Pimples and health always results from its use.
Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell any sufferer that this home treatment really cures all women's ailments and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your name and address, and the free ten day's treatment is yours, also the book "Write to me, as you may not see this offer again." Address
