BORN.

MAGEE—To Capt. and Mrs. W. A. Magee at their home at Empire, Oregon, Tuesday, November 7, an eleven-pound son. Mother and son are doing nicely and the proud father who is master of the steamer Redondo, is happier over the arrival of his first child than words can tell and congratulations are being showered upon them welcoming the first Admiral of the Magee family.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet tonight to take up various matters.

Meet Wednesday.—The Marshfield Lodge of Elks will meet Wednesday night to ballot on candidates and take up other work.

Case on Trial.—Before Justice Pennock today, a case involving a lease between the Coos Bay Liquor Company, Anderson and others at Bandon is being tried.

Plan Dance.—Announcement is made that the Coos Bay Concert band will give another dance next Saturday evening at the Eagles hall in response to many requests.

Annual Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce will be held Friday evening, November 24, when officers will be elected and plans perfected for the ensuing year.

Saw Hurricane.—Cal. Wright has received a letter from his son, Reece Wright, who is a machinist on the steamer Alaskan, plying between Puget Sound ports and California and Mexico, saying that his vessel was in the recent hurricane which swept the Mexican coast. The storm was terrific but the Alaskan withered it fine. The letter was mailed from Salinas Cruz, Mexico.

Hearing Today.—The case of Mrs. Ojeda vs. the Chambers estate is being heard by Judge Coke at his office here today. The case involves about 1,400 acres of land near Coaledo which Mrs. Ojeda claims was illegally conveyed by the administrator of her husband's estate a number of years ago and in part of which, her son, for whom she holds the power of attorney, held an interest.

Big Turnip Crop.—Henry Sengstacken has returned from a trip down the coast from Empire. He reports that an acre and a quarter of turnips on the Bastendorf ranch will yield about one hundred tons, some of the turnips weighing about thirty pounds each. He says that the new road which L. J. Simpson is building to Shore Acres will be one of the finest in that section of the county. It is doubtful if it can be completed before next spring. Carl Albrecht has charge of the work.

Defendant Wins.—The jury in the case of F. J. Bingham vs. Herman Beck in Justice Pennock's court yesterday brought in a verdict for the defendant. It will be appealed, it is said.

Meet Tonight.—A meeting of the stockholders in the oil company being organized to prospect the Catch-

CHARGED WITH MISCONDUCT

Captain J. A. Johnson Alleged to Have Copied Answers to Questions Captain John A. Johnson was tried this morning before United States Inspectors Edwards and Fuller on a charge of misconduct. He was represented by ex-Senator C. W. Fulton.

Captain Johnson, who now has an ocean master's and pilot's license, made application for the extension of his license to include Tillamook, Coos Bay and Columbia river bars and for the Columbia river from Astoria to Portland. While Johnson was writing the answers to questions in the examination Chief Clerk A. F. Merrill, in the office of the inspectors, said that he saw him copying from another paper and taking it away from Johnson placed it in the hands of the local board, who immediately preferred charges. A decision will probably be rendered this afternoon. —Portland Oregonian.
