Official Paper of Coos County

FRUIT GROWER WHO LOVES THE APPLE.

P. POWELL is an eastern fruit-grower who loves the apple as if it were his own child. What he writes about the model apple orchard is written with such heartiness...

You and I can make a living. We will do it without sacrifice of the beautiful. You folk and we trees will undertake to make a model home and a model orchard.

The apple was meant by God to work with human folk. Each needs the other. The man who loves apples and apple trees is the man for Brother Powell...

The man who succeeds is the man with imagination, the poet in things. The fellow who does not love the trees and land and crops had better not leave the city for the farm.

Mr. Powell thinks that the Garden of Eden had nothing so fine as any country cottage in the United States may have when it has developed the model orchard.

"Well, what are we called?" asked the governor. "Maniacs."

The one compensation of poverty is the line that it gives us on our friends.

MEANEST FORM OF THIEVING.

THE Financial World, one of the so-called Wall street papers, but one that has nothing but strongly pronounced contempt for some of the practices of big business, says:

Should the government agents discover any tangible evidence on which to base an attack (on the sugar) we trust it will be made. Concerning the necessities of life at this time, when the average man in ordinary circumstances finds it so difficult to make both ends meet...

We are glad that this authority on big business confirms the general opinion of trust, and middlemen combinations that are bringing distress to many people and that are reducing the purchasing value of our dollars.

BOOST YOUR TOWN.

When you pull down the town in which is your home, you are pulling down yourself, and when you build up, you are building up yourself and your neighbor.

"When a man has worked like blazes from the morning till the night, & then has played at billiards till the East is streaked with life.

No wonder that his wife at home can make him shake & quail—The female of the species is gamer than the male.

That is enuff, that will do, sed Pa, I dont care to hear the next verse. —Exchange.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING. The Great Law never cheats any man of his just due. JAMES ALLEN.

WHY HUNTERS USE PROFANITY

Ever sneak up to a pot hole on a chilly Sunday morn. After weeks of patient plannin' leave your fellows all forlorn; Nerves a-tingle, blood a-boilin' and your trigger finger friz;

Ever take a tramj in autumn where the green skunk cabbage grows, Dogs a-workin' like a Trojan, bettin' scads on his good nose;

Talk about your wounded feelings, broken hearts and all the rest, But the feller from the office with the shootin'-fever zest?

There's a rocky, rugged island, where there never was no ducks; Where the fish was never bitin' and they're never jumpin' bucks;

Nat Goodwin has informed a reporter that all of his marriages except the first were purely matters of business. And a few more business marriages like them will leave him a bankrupt.

STORY OF THE DAY

The Folks From Maine.

The governor of Maine was at the school and was telling the pupils what the people of different states were called.

"Now," he said, "the people from Indiana are called 'Hoosiers,' the people from North Carolina 'Tar Hells,' the people from Michigan we know as 'Michiganders.'"

At 5 years of age, the Chinese emperor is already regretting that he inherited the job.

A Brooklyn woman has won plaudits as a "perfect wife" because she has never called her husband a liar. That ought to be a lesson to other wives.

When a woman wishes to give another woman a cat-scratch she says: "How well you are looking. You must have gained fifteen pounds on your vacation."

A Cincinnati man is being sued for divorce because he kept the key to the chicken house and fresh eggs while he said "store eggs" were good enough for his wife. It is truly wonderful what fiendish cruelty some men can devise.

HOW IT HAPPENS ACCORDING TO HOWE

I not only believe in honesty, but that the people are not honest enough. If I knew how many of the people are only half honest, I would not give the figures—they would be so disgraceful.

Know why preachers are so poor? Because the women, who admire them most, have no money.

How good a yawn tastes at about 10 o'clock at night, just before going to bed.

A man I know is having trouble with his wife, but he is very honorable about it; he says he knows something "on" her (but it is so terrible that he won't tell.)

All sorts of queer people are necessary to make a world, and there are those who say you are one of the queer kind.

The man who expecta something for nothing has a little bandit blood in his veins.

WOMAN REGISTERS AT 102

"Thought I Ought to," Says Grandma Kennedy. SANTA ROSA, Cal., Nov. 18.—Mrs. Electra Kennedy drove into this city from her home in Healdsburg and registered as a voter at the county clerk's office, putting down here age as 102 years.

BIG BALLOT NEXT YEAR.

Voters to Pass on Many Questions Next April. SALEM, Ore., Nov. 18.—When the voters of Oregon go to the polls at the primary election April 19 they will have a formidable array of candidates for a large number of offices from whom to choose.

In addition to voting for the candidates for President of the United States and Vice-president of the United States under the new Oregon preferential primary plan, voters in each of the First, Second and Third Congressional Districts will be called upon to select their choice of candidates for representatives in Congress.

The office of Secretary of State is to be filled and one Justice of the Supreme Court is to be elected to succeed Chief Justice Eakin. The term of J. W. Bailey as State Dairy and Food Commissioner will also expire.

Representatives from all of the districts will be elected for the Lower House of the Legislature, and 16 Senators are to be elected.

FIVE-YEAR-OLD HAS REAL HARD LUCK

Marion Reynolds received a letter from his mother at Point Terrace stating that his little brother Tom had suffered another accident which resulted in a broken leg. He fell from a swinging gate. Last year he broke the other leg and before that he had both arms broken.

ESTABLISH NEW CAMP.

Southern Pacific Prepares For Work Near Elmira. The Eugene Guard says: "Carson Mathews has been engaged by the Southern Pacific construction engineers to take two big wagon loads of camp outfits to a point a short distance west of Elmira on Friday. The engineers will establish a camp there to direct active construction work which will probably begin in a few days.

A MAIL CARRIER'S LOAD

Seems heavier when he has a weak back and kidney trouble. Fred Duchren, mail carrier at Atchison, Kansas, says:—"I have been bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and had a severe pain across my back. Whenever I carried a heavy load of mail, my kidney trouble increased. Some time ago, I started taking Foley's Kidney Pills and since taking them I have gotten entirely rid of all my kidney trouble and am as sound now as ever."

STRANGE TRIBE TO BE SOUGHT

Dr. Rice Plans Exploration of Unknown Sections of South America.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

PARIS, France, Nov. 18.—To penetrate unknown wilds of Brazil, Venezuela, and Columbia, to discover and trace to their sources unnamed rivers, and lastly, to seek to find the habitation of a supposed tribe of mysterious Indians, are the objects of Doctor Hamilton Rice, of Boston, who will soon leave Paris on a tour of exploration to South America under the auspices of the Royal Geographical society of England.

The doctor's previous visits to the wilderness of northern South America have convinced him of the existence of a strange tribe of Indians somewhere in the direction of the source of the Orinoco. The women of the tribe are said to live apart from their husbands in a secret city the greater part of the time.

Henri Cheron, in a report on the budget for 1912, which will shortly be presented to the Chamber of Deputies, calls attention to the growing burden of taxation in France, which, including State, Departmental and Communal charges, amounted in the year 1907 to over $26 per head of the population as compared to $22 in 1903.

M. Cheron also calls attention to the excessive number of officials and functionaries of all kinds, of whom there are nearly 1,000,000 in France 664,000 being in the pay of the State and 278,000 in that of the departments and communes.

According to the report, there is excessive formality and delay in the despatch of business and a general tendency to shift all responsibility to the central administration in Paris, which is so overburdened with arrears that in many cases administrative questions are decided on purely formal lines instead of upon their merits.

Farmers and manufacturers who use milk to any extent, have been reduced to the last extremities by the enforced rise in the price of that commodity, and have been experimenting with an artificial substitute for which great things are claimed.

It has been discovered that by steeping the beans of the soja plant, a variety of pea indigenous to Asia, and grinding them afterwards in a mill, a white homogeneous liquid is obtained strongly resembling milk in composition. From this, quite passable cheeses have been made, although its use for drinking purposes does not seem quite practicable.
