

IN SOCIETY

PERSONAL notices of visitors in the city, or of Coos Bay people who visit in other cities, together with notices of social affairs, are gladly received in the social department. Telephone 133. Notices of club meetings will be published and secretaries are kindly requested to furnish same.

ACCORDING TO PRECEDENT.

The hen that cackles loudest may not lay the largest eggs;
The mule that kicks the hardest may not have the longest legs;
The tree that is the tallest may not bear the sweetest fruit,
And the girl who is the fairest may not wear the smallest boot.

The man whose brow is highest may not always know the most;
The hero who is bravest may not make the loudest boast;
The arm that is the strongest may not have the farthest reach,
And the man who talks the longest may not make the finest speech.

The rose that is the reddest may not have the sweetest scent;
The man whose strut is proudest may not be most prominent;
The woman who has jewels that she measures by the peck
May not have the slimmest fingers or the most delightful neck.

The man who works the hardest may not draw the highest pay;
The one with deepest knowledge may not have the most to say;
But the man who is most modest gets the last seat in the rear,
And the one who blows his bugle is the one whom people hear.

WHY DO so many young people set such store on non-essentials of love and friendship?

The girl who measures her fiancé's affection by the number of karats in her engagement ring is a pretty poor sort, writes Betty Vincent. Of course, any man who really loves a girl wants to give her as many pretty things and pleasures as his purse can afford. But it is the spirit of giving and not the costliness of the gift that counts.

The cost of courtship is a cause of real discouragement to many young men who have their way to make in the world. They aver that the modern girl requires a constant stream of bouquets, bonbons, and theater tickets to make her happy, and they frankly admit that they can't afford to know her.

Don't you think you'd be wiser, girls, to make yourselves less of a luxury and more content with comfort? Can't you be content with simple gifts when you know they are inspired by honest affection?

Mrs. Mary McKnight is expected home next week from an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. W. Loggie in Bellingham, Wash. She would have returned this week except that the floods in that section made it impossible for her to get to Portland in time to connect with the steamer for Coos Bay.

Miss Genevieve Sengstacken entertained a small party of friends at cards Wednesday evening complimentary to Miss Fortman who is the guest of Mrs. I. S. Kaufman. Among those present were Misses Fortman, Edna Stanley, and Charlotte Murch and Messrs. Roy Bleeker, Hugo Quist, Ansgar Lagerstrom and G. A. Brown.

Misses Evelyn Langworthy and Hazel Merryman will entertain a number of their friends at the home of Mrs. Frank Birch in South Marshfield, Dec. 1 at a Thanksgiving Candy pull.

Before leaving for the East, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Nevers were entertained at a dinner party at the Chandler by Mr. W. A. Cattell, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Merchant, Miss Helen Merchant, and Mr. Aston were additional guests of the evening. Mr. Cattell and Mr. and Mrs. Nevers left Wednesday for a trip over the proposed route for the Coos Bay and Eastern Electric line to Roseburg from where they will proceed east.

The Elks' Ball to be given Wednesday evening, Nov. 29th, at the Eagles Hall promises to be one of the pleasant social functions of the coming week for no efforts are being spared to make it enjoyable and pleasing to the many guests who will grace the occasion.

The committee on arrangements, Messrs. Geo. Goddard, C. R. Van Duyn and A. E. Neff, are moving most assiduously in caring for the smallest details. The caterers are Messrs. Arthur T. Haines, Edwin E. Barrett, Frank M. Parsons, J. Albert Matson, Wm. H. Kennedy, Eugene Crossbait, H. S. Tower, and Roy A. Weraich.

Mrs. D. A. Jones entertained the Xmas sewing club at her home Wednesday evening. Those present were Mrs. Tiedon, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. Thompson, and Misses Palmer, Stoffer, Silverman, Carpenter, Elmore and Baldwin. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs.

CONTRIBUTIONS concerning social happenings, intended for publication in the society department of The Times, must be submitted to the editor not later than 6 o'clock p. m., Friday of each week. (Exceptions will be allowed only in cases where events occur later than the time mentioned.)

Jones, assisted by her little daughters, Maxine and Elizabeth. Mrs. Thompson will entertain the club next week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lafon and little daughter will return about December fifteenth from a visit in Harrodsburg, Kentucky, with Mrs. Lafon's parents.

The A. N. W. club met with Mrs. Fannie Hazard Thursday afternoon. The afternoon partook of both business and pleasure. Mrs. John Bear who, having lately moved to South Slough, will find it difficult to attend the meeting regularly, was placed upon the Honorary membership list, and Mrs. C. F. McKnight was elected to her place. A very pleasant feature of the afternoon was the singing of Mrs. McKnight. The tea given last week was declared a financial success. There will be no meeting Thanksgiving week as the club day falls upon Thanksgiving day, but on December the 7th, Mrs. W. F. Squire will be hostess.

There will be no meeting of the Minnie-Wis club until Friday, December 1, the day after Thanksgiving, when the club will be entertained at an all-day reception by Mrs. Kelley. A unique feature of one of the meetings in the near future, possibly of the next one, will be a "swap" party, in which little gifts, made by the club members, will be exchanged by drawing them at random out of a big basket, thus furnishing a Christmas present to every member there. This is a very pretty idea and should afford great pleasure and fun.

The Sisters of Bethany met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Denning. There will be no other meeting until December 6, when the club will give a tea at the home of Mrs. J. W. Bennett to all the ladies of the Episcopal church, and will take in several new members.

Mrs. Jno. S. Coke was hostess Wednesday at a bridge luncheon to which beside the members of the Bridge club present, Mesdames E. K. Jones, W. A. Toye, H. S. Tower, Ward M. Blake, J. A. Matson, W. T. Merchant, Wm. Horsfall, Jr., and J. W. Bennett. The following guests were invited: Mrs. E. O'Connell, Mrs. C. M. Byler and Mrs. H. Sengstacken. Prizes at cards were won by Mrs. E. K. Jones and Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr. Mrs. J. T. McCormack has asked the club to her home Wednesday, December 6.

Miss Florence Powers entertained a number of her young friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Powers, Thursday evening, the event marking her fourteenth birthday. In the decorations, a color scheme of yellow and white was carried out and the flowers were used most effectively. Music and various games made the evening very enjoyable. Misses Marjorie and Myrtle Cowan assisted her during the evening. Among her guests were Misses Ruth Cowan, Maydream McLain, Dagmar Flesberg, Grace Williams, Isabelle Ferguson, Mary Kruse, Roxie Hall, Bessie Douglas, Marie Vasey, Virginia Clarke, Adelaide Clarke, Helen Dow, Doris Sengstacken, Ruth Dungan, Ursula Farringer, Elsie Hall, Myri Cox, Vera Dolan, Sarah Escott, Wilda Harris, Dorothy Horton, and Nellie Warwick.

The ladies of the North Bend Presbyterian church were pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. R. Holmes. Among those present were Mrs. N. C. Me-

Leod, Mrs. W. R. Simpson, Mrs. C. H. Farlow, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Wm. Vaughan, Mrs. A. H. Guernsey, Mrs. Geo. D. Mandigo, Mrs. Wm. Murr, Mrs. K. Rood, Mrs. Chas. St. Dennis, Mrs. J. Mendez, Mrs. C. A. Smith, Mrs. Robt. McCann and Mrs. Otis.

C. F. McKnight and bride will shortly be ensconced in their new home in South Marshfield, occupying the C. A. Metlin residence there. Mrs. McKnight is entertaining her father, M. Spangler of Corvallis, until after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. E. E. Straw was hostess at a charming bridge luncheon Tuesday afternoon at which Mrs. L. G. Johnson of Myrtle Point was guest of honor. The rooms were decorated prettily in huckleberry, and the yellow shaded candles and suggesting place cards combined to give the house an air of November. A beautiful hand-painted pitcher, the first prize, was won by Mrs. Maloney, while Mrs. C. W. Tower's prize was a pair of silver sugar-tongs. Among those invited were Mesdames E. L. C. Farrin, W. E. Dungan, C. E. Nicholson, Jno. S. Coke, C. W. Tower, F. E. Hague, H. Sengstacken, E. Minus, R. K. Booth, W. F. Miller, F. M. Parsons, J. Harrigan, H. M. Jennings, A. H. Powers, I. S. Kaufman, G. W. Kaufman, W. O. Toye, E. G. Perham, Dorsey Kreitzer, A. L. Houseworth, C. R. Peck, W. P. Murphy, C. G. Van Duyn, E. S. Bargelt, Ward M. Blake, H. S. Tower, P. A. Sandberg, F. K. Gettins, W. A. Reed, Otto Schetter, Joe Bennett, Arthur McKeown, L. J. Simpson, C. M. Byler, M. C. Maloney, O'Brien, J. T. McCormack, W. H. Kennedy, J. T. Stafford, Colby Perry, W. S. Chandler, A. T. Haines, L. G. Johnson of Myrtle Point, A. E. Adelsperger, Fannie Hazard, C. F. McKnight, W. S. Nicholson, Geo. F. Murch, F. E. Leele, Elsie Farringer, J. Milner, N. Owen, and Misses Agnes Hutcheson, Evelyn Anderson, Genevieve Sengstacken and Charlotte Murch.

In a note to Mrs. Kate Lando, Mrs. Annie Prentiss, widow of the late Dr. Prentiss of Coos county, stated that the announcement of her forthcoming wedding to John Herron of Marshfield was erroneous. The report was in general circulation among friends here. Mrs. Prentiss now resides at Portland.

Fred Listner, Mrs. Ezra Kinney, Mrs. Chas. Cavanaugh, Mrs. John Krick, Miss Ella Krick and Miss Minnie Cutlip.

Following the regular business meeting of the Epworth League at the Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday, November 22, about forty members and friends adjourned to the home of the Rev. Rutledge to enjoy an evening of games and amusements of various kinds. A very interesting talk was given by Miss Kenworthy, who has returned shortly from India, on the marriage rites of the natives of that place. To illustrate her talk she displayed several curious jewels and bronzes that she had brought back with her: bracelets, anklets and nose, finger, and ear rings. A bridal gown of Indian fashion and texture was also shown. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Rutledge after the talk. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Milo Sumner, E. Joehnk, Rutledge, Birch, Frank Sumner, Mrs. Larter, Misses Kenworthy, Westerlund, Ekblad, Evelyn Langworthy, Hattie Hansen, Fina Ray, Fina Mackintosh, Downer, Jamieson, Myrtle Downer, Florence Farley, Maybelle Farley, Bessie Ayre, Frances Sumner, Mary Hansen, Selata Howe, Messrs. Weaver, Moody, Madson, Church, F. Howe, Hunt and Dr. Winkler.

Miss Mildred Coke is expected home tomorrow by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Coke, from a few months' visit at Oakland and other California points. She was expected earlier in the week but did not make connections with the steamer at San Francisco.

Mrs. Frank Rogers of South Coos River is entertaining Mrs. E. F. Morse at her home this week. Next Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will entertain a number of their Marshfield friends at a Thanksgiving party. Among those going from here will be Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, Miss Mable Mahoney, Miss Gertrude Wilcox, John Kronholm, Mair Dano and Walter Butler.

Miss Blanche Fortman, of Helena, Mont., and Miss Eugenia Schilling of Gardiner, were guests of honor at an evening of cards given Saturday by Miss Helen Bradley. A good many of the younger set were present, among them Misses Blanche Fortman, Eugenia Schilling, Marie Waller, Florence Aiken, Grace Kruse, Frances Williams, Agnes Carpenter, Ruth Allen, Nora Tower, May Preuss, Messrs. Granis, Meece, Lagerstrom, Lamont, Thompson, Segersten, Peck, Williams, Hutchison, Ferguson, and Clarke.

Mrs. C. H. Wilson and little daughter, Thelma, are home again after a several weeks' visit in Washington and Idaho.

J. W. Elmore and wife are visiting their daughter, Miss Lillian Elmore for a short time.

The Band will give a dance Thursday, Thanksgiving night at the Eagles' hall. It will be welcomed by all lovers of Terpsichore as a delightful way in which to end a delightful day.

Mrs. C. R. Peck entertained at an informal sewing party Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Jennings who leaves soon for Eugene.

Miss Marie Waller was entertained Saturday by Mrs. C. R. Peck at an informal afternoon of sewing.

Miss Blanche Fortman entertained at an informal afternoon, Wednesday at the home of Mrs. I. S. Kaufman. With sewing and chatting, the afternoon passed pleasantly and at its close, Miss Fortman assisted by Mrs. Kaufman, served dainty refreshments. Among her guests were Mrs. Wm. Kennedy, Mrs. R. K. Booth, Mrs. M. C. Maloney, Misses Agnes Hutcheson, Charlotte Murch, Mable Mahoney, Gertrude Wilcox, Evelyn Anderson and Genevieve Sengstacken.

Mrs. Elsie Farringer will entertain the Chaffing-Dish club next Wednesday.

Monday afternoon the Progress Club met with Mrs. I. S. Kaufman. The quarterly reading of the constitution was read.
