LOCAL NOTES

THE WEATHER.
(By Associated Press.)
OREGON, Nov. 27.—Fair to night and colder in north. Tuesday fair. Easterly winds.

BORN.
GRUBBS—To Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Grubbs at Mercy hospital, North Bend, Sunday, November 26, a twelve-pound daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely. Mr. Grubbs is principal of the North Bend High school.

Gets Auto—F. E. Hague yesterday received a fine five passenger 1912 model Cadillac. It arrived on the Alliance and a few hours later he was trying it out.

New Market—Ed. Balch and Mr. Smith are planning to open "The City Fish Market" near Duncan Ferguson's warehouse at the Market avenue wharf the first of the month.

Was Relative—Capt. Holland has been advised that J. Harvinze, who died suddenly at Elkton last Tuesday while en route from Drain to Gardiner was an uncle of his wife.

Name Ticket—Eastside Socialists have decided to support the following ticket in the city election there: W. J. LaPalme for mayor, J. C. Steekle, Fred. Moore and Victor Alie for councilmen and Walter Robertson for marshal.

Is John Johnson—C. W. Nordstrom received word late Saturday confirming the belief that the Jack Johnson who died suddenly at Coquille last week was John Johnson.

a son of Pete Johnson of Coquille and a brother of Mrs. Nordstrom.

Elect Officers—The directors of the Coos Bay Oil and Gas company have elected E. A. Anderson president, E. Mings vice-president, John F. Hall treasurer, and Ray Kaufman secretary.

To Improve—Geo. F. Winchester of the Rod and Gun club, is taking up with the members of the organization the question of improving their reserve so that it will be available all winter for the members. The plan is to improve the cabin and provide a keeper.

Finds Purse—Harold Chapman, one of The Times' carrier boys, found the purse which City Engineer Gidley lost in West Marshfield last week. He picked it up on the street and notifying the lost ad in The Times, restored it to the owner who rewarded him for his honesty.

Give Program—The pupils of the Bunker Hill school will give a Thanksgiving program Wednesday afternoon. The following pupils there have been promoted from the Seventh to the Eighth grade: Abraham Dubay, Ralph Christenson, Florence Richardson, Vivian Craig and Lillian Therault.

Mine Black Sand—Capt. C. Henry Thomson, L. E. Porter and R. S. Schrader arrived here on the Redondo yesterday. They are from Los Angeles and are going to start mining the black sand near Port Orford on a large scale. They brought in about sixty tons of machinery. They have acquired about four hundred acres near Port Orford and believe that it will pay out big. Capt. Thompson is a well known mining engineer. He was formerly interested in the coal mines at Riverton.

Find Body—The body of Tim Boyle, the logger, who was drowned at Geo. Gould's camp last week, was found yesterday by companions on a sand bar a short distance below where he sank. The body lodged on the sand bar and was covered with gravel during the freshet. As the water receded, the deposit over the body washed away and left the body in view. Boyle's brother arrived here Saturday from Butte, Mont., and was at the camp yesterday when the body was found. The funeral was held this afternoon.

Hear Evidence—Evidence in the case of Jordan Schapers of Allegany vs. the Simpson Lumber company for about $20,000, which he claims is due him on an old account, is being taken today before Miss Violet Henderson as notary public.

Fine Day Sunday—The weather yesterday was about the finest that could be desired. Many autos were out but most of them confined their trips to the paved streets, the roads outside the city being too muddy to furnish any joy for autoists. Last night, a severe wind developed and awakened many but did no particular damage.

Sells Belle N.—F. P. Norton returned yesterday from Roseburg where he spent a few weeks at the horse farm of F. E. Alley. While there, he traded Belle N to Mr. Alley for a three-year-old pacer and two blooded mares which he brought back with him. He also brought Marin back with him, coming in via the old Coos Bay wagon road yesterday. He reports that considering the weather the last few weeks, the road is not as bad as he had expected. However, he says it is pretty bad in places and declares that the mail carriers are entitled to sympathy.
