Let Us Be Thankful For The Good Things of Life

SHOTS AT RABBIT AND HITS SIX YOUNG WOMEN

John Clemm of McLouth, Kas., Seriously Injured by Poor Marksmanship.

HOT GUN SCATTERS WITH AWFUL EFFECT

Shot at Rabbit Running Around House and Hits Lady Onlookers.

(By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

McLOUTH, Kan., Nov. 30.—While setting rabbits on his farm near McLouth, John Clemm accidentally shot six young women who were standing on the front porch of his home. The shot ran around the house and struck Clemm with a shot gun which missed the rabbit, the shot striking all six of the young women in the lower limbs.

FRANCHISE NOT BE VOTED ON

Terminal Company Withdraws Application to North Bend Voters.

Owing to the error of trying to submit the franchise for the Terminal Railway in North Bend to the voters of that city without having obtained an initiative and referendum petition, the parties seeking the franchise have requested that it be withdrawn from the ticket and from the pamphlets containing the proposition to be circulated among the voters. It is claimed that the Oregon statutes require that a franchise be submitted only on petition of legal voters, thus making it impossible for the city council to submit it on its own. As the council can do in case of amendments, etc.

However, it is understood that in view of the charter amendments which will be submitted at North Bend, the city council there can grant the desired franchise without a vote of the people. While there has been much discussion about the matter, it is difficult to tell what the outcome of the election will be. Some thought that the franchise if submitted would be defeated while the charter amendments would be likely to carry. This would have left the North Bend city council in a rather embarrassing position if it had desired to grant the franchise.

Little Interest There.

There is very little interest manifested in the coming North Bend election. Mayor Simpson, who was in Marshfield yesterday, reported that very few voters were registering. So far, only one ticket has been mentioned. The city caucus there will be held Friday evening. The following are the only announced candidates, their names being linked together under the name of the Citizens' Ticket: For councilman, one year—L. F. Alkenstein. For councilmen, two years—C. H. Howland, Geo. D. Mandigo and J. Horn. For recorder—A. H. Derbyshire. For treasurer—C. S. Winsor.

With business practically suspended, Coos Bay is today observing the Thanksgiving holiday. Some of the stores were open this morning for a while but practically all closed before noon for the balance of the day. The banks remained closed all day and the postoffice is observing the regular holiday hours.

AD. WOLGAST MUCH BETTER

Lightweight Champion Pugilist Recovering From Serious Operation.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 30.—After spending a comfortable night in his hospital bed, Ad. Wolgast, lightweight champion, awoke early today. He passed a restful night and declared he was "feeling fine." As a substitute card for the Wolgast-Welsh battle this afternoon, promoter Tom McCarrey will stage a bout between Welsh and Willie Ritchie, training partner for Paekoy McFarland.

Welsh says that he will defend the title for Wolgast until the latter is able to step into the roped arena once more, when Welsh will meet the champion for the title. In the meantime, fight fans are busy discussing who, considering Wolgast's retirement, is champion of the world. Many believe Wolgast cannot legitimately retain the title during the long period of convalescence, and ceased to be champion when he became unable to defend the title.

ELECTION EXCITEMENT AT MYRTLE POINT ALSO

Valley own is Greatly Concerned With Port Commission Question.

(Special to The Times) MYRTLE POINT, Ore., Nov. 30.—The great question of the day in this coming election is to determine the creation of the Port of Coquille River. Present indications are that the election will be almost unanimous in favor of the Port, since the people in this locality consider that only in this way will they be able to control and decide the manner and magnitude of river improvement and the assessments to be levied for the project.

—Mr. A. H. Ray, who owns a farm just north of the forks of the river, had the misfortune to cut himself badly in the right ankle with an axe.

ELKS' BALL IS BIG SUCCESS

About One Hundred Couples Enjoy Social Function Last Evening.

* The ball given by the B. P. O. E. at the Eagles' hall last evening was one of the most successful and brilliant affairs ever held in Marshfield. Beautiful women, gowns and decorations made the scene lovely and one to be long remembered. Music and floor were excellent as was also the punch served through the evening. The toast "Our Absent Brothers" was especially impressive to those by whom it was seen for the first time. The whole affair was a triumph of artistic skill and management. About one hundred couples were present.

A more detailed report of the affair will appear in the Society department of The Times on Saturday.

BE THANKFUL YOU LIVE ON COOS BAY

Down South They Have Been Suffering From a Snow Storm.

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 30.—This section is still shivering from one of the heaviest snow storms experienced in years. During its progress the temperature dropped to the lowest point known in years, retarding railway traffic and doing much damage to stock.

prelates of church including three American prelates, Cardinals Falconio, Farley and O'Connell, were invested with the red hat indicating their rank. The ceremonies were wonderfully impressive and were viewed in whole or in part by thousands of people who gathered on the streets and within the Vatican. Travelers from all over the world were in attendance and in the hall of beatification which had been prepared for the occasion one thousand Americans were provided with standing room tickets.

BRIDE IS "SET" IN HER WAY

Former Coos Bay Man Has to Cut Out "Obey" In His Wedding Ceremony.

The following press dispatch will be of considerable interest on Coos Bay as the "man in the case" is supposed to be the Heinrich Rousseau who had charge of a branch house of the Elfers Piano company in Marshfield a few years ago. Mr. Rousseau became quite well acquainted here, especially in musical circles.

The dispatch which is supposed to refer to him follows:

BRIDE "SET" IN HER WAY

Portland Girl Goes 4000 miles to Wed and Won't Promise to Obey ELGIN, Ill., Nov. 29.—Miss Mabel Walter Hough, of Portland, Ore., forced her fiancé, Heinrich Rousseau, to accompany her on a 4000-mile journey that she might be married by the father of the "obeyless" wedding ritual. The bride said that she would not promise to obey any man.

THANKSGIVING REMEMBRANCES

C. A. Smith Company Presents Turkeys to Employees—Purse to Rev. Browning.

In accordance with their established custom, every married employe of the C. A. Smith mill yesterday received a turkey from the company as a Thanksgiving present. Just how many birds were presented, could not be ascertained today.

The company also remembers the married employes in a similar way at Christmas time. The mill is closed down today, permitting all to enjoy the holiday.

Among the other Thanksgiving presents was a purse of about $150 presented to Rev. R. E. Browning, pastor of the Marshfield Episcopal church, by members of his parish in appreciation of his faithful and efficient service the past year.

MAY DELAY PARCELS POST

Senator Bourne Says Demand For Penny Postage Likely to Cause It.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 30.—The great danger to the parcels post, according to Senator Jonathan Bourne, lies in the demand for the one-cent letter rate, which should be adopted, would make such a material reduction in the revenues of the postoffice department that a delay in the establishment of the parcels post would inevitably result.

Big Water Power Plant.

The latest development news in this section comes from the south fork of the Coquille, where it is said a syndicate contemplates harnessing the waterpower for commercial purposes. The improvement includes the driving of a long tunnel and runs into the millions in expenditure. This power-generator will be located about 30 miles from Myrtle Point on South Fork.

So Far Average Has Been One Juror to Each Seventy Veniremen Summoned.

TWELFTH VENIRE IS CALLED FOR FRIDAY

Will Make 605 Men Summoned In Order to Secure Jury to Hear Case.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 30.—Progressing at the rate of one sworn juror for every seventy venireman drawn from the jury wheel, the McNamara trial was stopped for a legal holiday today, with eight sworn jurors and 2 talesmen passed for cause in the jury box. The twelfth venire comprising nearly fifty men has been summoned to appear in court Friday. This venire makes the total number drawn thus far 605.

PHELAN MILL OPENS SOON

Myrtle Point Active Industrially—Large Local Demand For Lumber.

(Special to The Times) MYRTLE POINT, Ore., Nov. 30.—P. L. Phelan expects to start his saw mill in about a week. He has had a crew of men repairing the platforms and bridges and also putting the mill in shape during the last couple of weeks, and everything is now in readiness. He expects to be running the mill for some time in order to meet the large local demands for lumber, but does not contemplate shipping anything to the outside this season.
