LOCAL NOTES

THE WEATHER
(By Associated Press.)
OREGON, Dec. 4.—Fair in east, occasional rain in west tonight. Tuesday occasional rain in west, fair in east except rain or snow in extreme northeast. Southeasterly winds.

Probate Court.—Judge John F. Hail left this morning for Coquille to hold the monthly session of probate court.

Plan Fair.—The congregation of the Marshfield Catholic church is planning for a big fair or bazaar to be held in the near future.

Pension Day.—Today is pension day for the veterans on Coos Bay and they are having their quarterly vouchers fixed up and cashed.

To Nominate Officers.—The Marshfield Fire Department will meet Thursday evening to nominate candidates for the annual election of officers.

Dredge Working.—The dredge Oregon Saturday began operations on the big cut near the Libby coal bunkers, pumping the dredgings into the sawdust flat below the depot.

Sister Dead.—F. P. Norton has just received the sad news of the death of his sister, Mrs. Nancy D. Preston, which occurred at Lowell, Mass. She was 76 years and fifteen days old.

Funeral Tuesday.—The funeral of J. W. Linnahan, the Eastside veteran who died Saturday, will be held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the Wilson chapel, the Rev. Father Munro officiating.

School Opens.—School opens for the first time today in the new school house in the Allegany district. The building was erected this summer to accommodate the increasing school population there. The teacher is Miss Ida Mitchell formerly of North Bend.

Names Omitted.—Through a typographical error, the names of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Blatt and Miss Blatt were omitted in The Times Saturday from the list of guests entertained by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McArthur at their Thanksgiving dinner.

Find Pin.—Through a found ad in The Times, Emmett Pierce recovered a gold Masonic pin which he highly prized as a gift. It was picked up on the street near The Chandler hotel and brought to The Times' office and a found ad found the owner.

Plan Big Meeting.—The Marshfield Aerie of Eagles is arranging for a big meeting next Wednesday night when the nominations for the annual election of officers will close. The business session will be followed by a banquet.

Mother Is Dead.—Mr. Wm. Ledward received the sad news of the death of his mother at Grand Rapids, Mich. Mrs. Ledward was a pioneer resident of Grand Rapids, having moved there from London, England, in 1867. She was 78 years of age.

Son Is Born.—E. W. Bernitt and wife have received word of the birth of a nine-pound son to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kolm at Schuyler, Neb., December 2. Mrs. Kolm was formerly Miss Nellie Bernitt and the father was formerly agent for the local railway here. They now reside at Schuyler. The many friends of the young couple will unite in extending congratulations and also to the happiest grandpa and grandma you ever saw.

Leave Roseburg.—Chief Engineer Cattell and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Nevers left Friday morning for San Francisco. These gentlemen had been here for several days on business connected with the Coos Bay & Eastern Electric railroad, whose surveys are working in the vicinity of Sutherlin. They will be in the field all winter. Before departing, these gentlemen reported a favorable outlook for their movement and they expect to come here again later.—Roseburg Review.

Meet Friday.—The Ladies Art club will meet Friday, Dec. 8, with Mrs. N. Rasmussen, and not on Thursday, as was erroneously stated.

Court Meets.—The adjourned term of circuit court opened in Coquille this morning with Judge John S. Coke presiding and most of the Marshfield attorneys present. The old grand jury is in session and will probably return several indictments. The regular December term of court will open next Monday. Only arguments, motions, etc., will be taken up by Judge Coke this week.

THE CALL OF COOS BAY

All nations of the Earth shall glorify thy birth
And testify thy worth, Coos Bay,
All tides shall turn to thee, wealth shall thy tribute be,
Queen of the Sunset Sea, Coos Bay.
(Francis H. Clarke.)

Are you satisfied with the name Marshfield, which suggests a low, swampy, unhealthy location?
Coos Bay is known everywhere as one of the great harbors of the world.
"Coos Bay" suggests a harbor, our greatest resource.
