

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

Where the finest biscuit, cake, hot-breads, crusts or puddings are required Royal is indispensable.

Royal is equally valuable in the preparation of plain, substantial, every-day foods, for all occasions.

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

No Alum—No Lime Phosphates

SOCIETY GOSSIP

(Continued from page 2.)

ship. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. H. I. Hyde Thursday, December 14. It is stated it would greatly facilitate preparations if all club members will notify the hostess of their proposed attendance or non-attendance, as in a club of such size there must necessarily be a great deal of preparation wasted when the full club is not present.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mable Noah of Allegany and Harvey Russell of North Bend, in the latter city, December 20. The wedding will be held at the residence of Mr. Geo. Trueman. The groom is captain of the launch Toga and both he and Miss Noah are well-known on the Bay. The young couple will live in North Bend.

The American Women's League met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Emery, but as the inclement weather prevented a full attendance, a special meeting was called for December 12, at which Mrs. Chas. Murr will be hostess. It is planned to hold a bazaar at some future date in the old exchange building on Sherman avenue. The home of Mrs. Emery was tastefully decorated with purple and white flowers, the league colors, and refreshments were served.

The Bridge club is declared adjourned till the first Wednesday of the new year, January 3, when it will be entertained by Mrs. Horsfall.

Mrs. Walter Livengood, who is a daughter of Mrs. A. A. Emery of North Bend, and two children, left on the next Breakwater for Lewiston, Idaho, where they will spend the winter with relatives.

Announcements were received here this week of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kolm of

This Bond in Every Pair

This Glove is Guaranteed All Right for 30 Days' Wear.

You are absolutely protected by the manufacturer—if the glove isn't right it will be made right to your satisfaction. That really is the most conclusive way of proving to you that these gloves are made from only best skins, carefully cut, sewed and fashioned to a perfect fit. None but a good glove could be so unconditionally guaranteed. Ask for

IRELAND'S GUARANTEED GLOVES

They are made in Cape, Moche, Chamois and Glace (for men, women and children).

We recommend these gloves because they are good and you are sure to be satisfied.

Let us show them to you.

THE TOGGERY

Schuyler, Neb. They formerly resided here, Mrs. Kolm having formerly been Miss Nellie Bernitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bernitt. Mr. and Mrs. Kolm are expected to spend at least part of next summer on Coos Bay.

Mrs. C. J. Mahoney of Portland, who has been visiting relatives at Coquille and who has spent the last few days as the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Adams and Miss Mamie Mahoney, left today for her home.

The launching of the Simpson lumber company's new steam schooner, the "A. M. Simpson" was made the occasion of a social turnout by the people of North Bend and Marshfield last Tuesday. The launching was most auspicious, the handsome new vessel gliding easily from the ways into the waters of Coos Bay. The vessel was christened by little Miss Isabelle Maegenn, daughter of T. J. Maegenn of the Breakwater. Original poems by Capt. Maegenn were read on the occasion. The Kruse & Banks shipyard, the scene of the launching, was thronged with people witnessing the event.

Miss Marie Waller, who has been spending several weeks as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Parsons, left Tuesday to visit for a few days with Miss Eugenia Schilling in Gardiner. After this visit Miss Waller will return to her home in Boise, Idaho, stopping a day or two in Portland en route.

Mrs. E. Anderson and children arrived here this week to visit at the homes of her mother, Mrs. Mary Ogren, and other relatives.

Mrs. L. M. Tozier returned to her home in Marshfield this week, having fully recovered from the operation she recently underwent at Mercy hospital. The complete restoration of her health will be a source of much gratification to the many friends she and Mr. Tozier have made since their removal here from Eugene.

Mrs. R. O. Graves, who has been quite ill at her home on Central avenue, is reported improving, much to the gratification of their many friends.

Miss Agnes Tupper of Bandon was the guest of friends in Marshfield this week. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Perkins were other Bandonians visiting friends on the Bay during the week.

The North Bend Bridge club will discontinue its semi-monthly meetings until after the Christmas holidays.

A new dancing club is being organized in North Bend under the management of the young people there. It is to be called the U. M. O. club and is planning to give at least one dance before the holidays.

The Sunday evening choral service of the Episcopal church was excellently rendered and was very much enjoyed by the large and appreciative congregation to whom such music is always a treat. "Praise Ye the Lord, O Jerusalem" by Maunder, was one of the best of the anthems given, and the incidental solo was well sung by Mrs. Chas. Stauff. Mr. L. K. Ballinger sang the baritone solo, "The Publican," by van de

Water, with splendid effect. "Hear Ye, Israel" from Mendelssohn's great oratorio "Elijah", was artistically given by Mrs. A. B. Gidley. Mrs. Gidley possesses a dramatic soprano voice of wide range and especially pleasing quality. Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., organist and director, reports that the choir is rehearsing some fine Christmas music including "There Were Shepherds" by Vincent, and Dudley Buck's "Festival Te Deum."

Mrs. A. L. Houseworth was hostess at one of the most delightful functions of the week last Thursday when she entertained at eleven tables of Bridge at her home in South Marshfield. The house was most attractively decorated, a pink and green color scheme being carried out. Pink carnations were effectively used with backgrounds of huckleberry and smilax. The scheme was carried out in the refreshments also. Assisting Mrs. Houseworth during the afternoon were Mrs. C. R. Peck, Mrs. Chas. Van Duyn and Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer. At bridge, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr. won first prize and Mrs. E. S. Bargelt second prize. Among those invited were Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer, Mrs. E. S. Bargelt, Mrs. C. R. Peck, Mrs. W. H. Kennedy, Mrs. McEldowney, Mrs. W. M. Blake, Mrs. H. S. Tower, Mrs. F. K. Gettins, Mrs. Eugene Crosthwait, Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. Frank Horton, Mrs. Chas. Van Duyn, Mrs. C. K. Perry, Mrs. D. Y. Stafford, Mrs. A. Ralph O'Brien, Mrs. Eugene O'Connell, Mrs. E. K. Jones, Mrs. Effie Farringer, Mrs. Wm. Grimes, Mrs. M. C. Horton, Mrs. Wm. Warwick, Mrs. E. G. Perham, Mrs. R. T. Street, Mrs. C. A. Sehlbrede, Mrs. W. A. Reid, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. F. A. Hazard, Miss Marie Waller, Miss Evelyn Anderson, Mrs. E. E. Straw, Mrs. A. E. Neff, Mrs. J. T. Harrigan, Mrs. W. E. Dungan, Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. W. T. Merchant, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., Mrs. P. A. Sandberg, Mrs. F. M. Parsons, Mrs. W. A. Toye, Mrs. Neils Rasmussen, Mrs. E. F. Morrissey, Mrs. David Vaughn, Mrs. F. E. Hague, Mrs. Harry Namburg, Mrs. L. J. Simpson, and Mrs. C. M. Byler.

The P. Q. Sewing club, like most of the other societies, has adjourned until after the holidays.

Mrs. A. J. Ness left today for Portland where she will spend the holidays at the homes of her parents and Mr. Ness' parents. Mr. Ness will join her there for Christmas week.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrd C. Lattin have issued invitations for the celebration of the silver anniversary of their marriage December 12.

Henry Lecoq returned this week from a visit in Mendota, Wash. Mrs. Lecoq and the children will return later.

Miss Eugenia Schilling returned to her home in Gardiner this week after a pleasant visit at the home of her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Murphy, and with her many friends on the Bay.

The weekly practice of the Marshfield Methodist choir took place at the home of F. C. Birch Wednesday evening. Sometime next week the choir members and the Epworth League are planning to give a social. When or where is not yet determined.

The Tuesday Night Whist club was entertained for the first time this season at the home of Mrs. E. F. Morrissey in West Marshfield. At cards, prizes were won by Mrs. A. T. Haines and W. F. Miller. Mrs. Frank Rogers was a guest of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Perkins of West Marshfield, entertained last Sunday at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. D. Faires, Mrs. Hullet of El Paso, Texas, and Mrs. May Paxton of Spokane, Wash.

This afternoon the St. Mary's Guild of the North Bend Episcopal church is holding a Xmas sale and tea at Taylor's hall.

Mrs. T. J. McCormac assisted by Mrs. M. C. Maloney, entertained the Bridge club Wednesday at the McCormac home. Pretty decorations and dainty score cards were features of the afternoon. Mrs. W. A. Toye won the first prize, Mrs. J. A. Matson the second, while Mrs. W. S. Turpen carried off the consolation. Those present were Mrs. E. K. Jones, Mrs. W. S. Turpen, Mrs. W. T. Merchant, Mrs. J. A. Matson, Mrs. Ward M. Blake, Mrs. H. S. Tower, Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., Mrs. J. W. Bennett and Mrs. M. C. Maloney.

Mrs. Effie Farringer is now director and organist of the Marshfield Catholic choir to which a number of new voices have been added.

Mrs. Mary McKnight, who has been spending several weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. W. Loggie in Bellingham, Wash., and who was detained there by the floods of recent date, returned Thursday on the Breakwater.

The Athletic Association of the Marshfield High School is planning to give a big invitational dance at the Eagles' hall Wednesday evening, December 27. Several hundred invitations will be sent out and no pains will be spared to make the affair one of the most successful ever attempted by the students.

In honor of her ninth birthday, a delightful children's party was given Miss Maxine Jones last Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Jones, to which many of her friends and school mates were bidden. For amusements all the old games and several very clever new ones were played. At luncheon, instead of the conventional cake with candles, a pretty red and white center-piece was effected, with apples, each holding a tiny candle, and pop-corn strings, flanked by sprays of parsley, making a very pretty and striking center decoration. The big birthday cake was covered with white roses. The guests who present at the pretty birthday party were Misses Virginia Clarke Lillian Seaman, Dorothy Dungan, Callista Walters, Margaret Powers, Jeanette Upton, Anna Myers, Catherine Nicholson, Kathryn Ho-ton, Elizabeth Jones and Esther Holms.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran church met at the church hall Wednesday afternoon. As it was the last meeting of the year, officers for the following term were elected. Mrs. Fred Holm was chosen president, Mrs. John Holm vice-president, and Mrs. B. B. Ostlund, treasurer. The work of the past year was voted a great success, both financially and socially. The first meeting of the new year will be held at the church hall the first Wednesday in January.

Cards were received here this week announcing the marriage of Miss Harriett E. White to Harvey Carlson Leavitt on November 29, in Long Beach, Cal. They will be at home in Long Beach after December 15. Miss White is well known on the Bay having resided here with her sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prait for several years until they moved to California three years ago. Her many friends here will wish the couple much happiness.

Mrs. A. E. Llewellyn of Bellingham, Wash., arrived here this week to spend the winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Ashman. Mrs. Llewellyn resided here until about seven years ago and was warmly welcomed back by her old friends.

Miss May Stauff and her mother are planning to leave soon for California where they will make an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Hillis Short of Lakeside is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, in Marshfield.

The Marshfield lodge of the Fraternal Union of America will shortly issue invitations for a social and dance to be given at the Odd Fellows hall Friday evening, December 15.

Mrs. Myrtle Johnson of Marshfield is reported getting along nicely at Lane hospital in San Francisco where she underwent an operation this week. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Abbott of Marshfield are in San Francisco with her.

The Ladies' Art club met Friday for a pleasant afternoon of sewing and conversation at the home of Mrs. N. Rasmussen. As part of the business of the day, nomination of officers for the ensuing year was held. Mrs. E. D. McArthur was chosen president; Mrs. J. G. Kinney, vice-president; Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand, secretary; and Mrs. Wm. Hoagland, treasurer. Mrs. L. H. Helmsler was elected to membership. The club is in receipt of several packages of red-cross stamps which will at once be placed on public sale, the proceeds to be contributed to the building fund of a tuberculosis sanatorium in Portland. At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Rasmussen, assisted by Mrs. W. H. Kennedy, her sister and the guest of the club, served dainty refreshments. Mrs. Rose Sumner will be hostess at the next meeting, January 5.

Mrs. A. Ralph O'Brien entertained at a Bridge luncheon at the Chandler hotel Tuesday afternoon. At cards, which followed the charming luncheon, Mrs. E. S. Bargelt won the first prize, and Mrs. Arthur McKeown the second. Among those invited by Mrs. O'Brien were Mesdames J. A. Matson, T. C. Russell, C. R. Peck, F. K. Gettins, Chas. Van Duyn, J. W. Bennett, E. O'Connell, Wm. Horsfall, Jr., Arthur McKeown, A. L. Houseworth, E. E. Straw, D. Y. Stafford, H. S. Tower, E. K. Jones, E. S. Bargelt, W. A. Reid, C. A. Sehlbrede, and R. T. Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bradford entertained at cards Thursday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand, Mr. and Mrs. Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kinney, Mrs. Turner and Mr. Geo. Dindinger.

The ladies of the Norwegian church are holding a tea and auction this afternoon at the church hall.

A silver tea was given at the home of Mrs. J. T. M. Knox Wednesday afternoon by the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church.

A pleasant surprise party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chapin in honor of Miss Vivian Craig's birthday. Music, games and dancing were the diversions of the evening, and a lunch was served at eleven o'clock. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Green, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grinolds, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gale, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Craig, Mrs. Bentz, Joe Clauson, Miss Ada Clauson, Misses Hattie Wheeler, Anna Wheeler, Minna Clark, Vina Clark, Clara Lovelass, Doris Green, Mabel

Wear A Benjamin

THIS phrase has been adopted by the best stores on the coast—

It signifies the highest types of clothing made—

Sold in our way—it costs less—and is higher grade—than other clothes.

The Holidays are drawing near—

You Probably Need a Benjamin Suit or Overcoat—Perhaps Both—

BUY THEM HERE.

"Money Talks"

Hub Clothing & Shoe Co.

MARSHFIELD

BANDON

And what shall it be this Christmas?

That perplexing, pleasing puzzle what to give your family for Christmas is likely occupying a large share of your thoughts at this time. Allow us to suggest something entirely unique as a Christmas present and yet thoroughly practical. A "Standard" "Modern Bathroom" which fills all the requirements of a present; dainty, beautiful and moreover will be a constant pleasure and daily reminder for years.

Pioneer Hardware Company

FRONT ST.

MARSHFIELD, ORE.

BAND CONCERT HERE SUNDAY

Director Fenton of the Coos Bay Concert Band today announced that the following program will be rendered at the Masonic Opera House, Sunday afternoon at 2:30:

1. March, "Kaiser Friedrich" Lewis
2. Overture, "Martha" Flotow
3. Song poem, "Roses and Memories" Snyder
4. Description fantasy, "Winter" Lampe

(Synopsis—"All aboard for the sleigh-ride"—"Scramble for Seats"—"The sleigh-ride party"—"The Snow storm"—"Arrival at the road house"—"Country dance"—"The skater's waltz"—"Homeward bound"—"The race"—"The smashup"—"The sleigh is all smashed to pieces and we'll all have to walk home.")

5. "An Album Leaf" Wagner
6. Selection, "Mikado" Sullivan
7. March, "Sunshine" Chambers

"Star Spangled Banner"

Provision has been made that the Opera House shall be comfortably heated for the event.

Coos Bay made CANDY, FRESH and pure. Try LEWIS' confectionery.

Craig, Gracie Chapin, Jody Craig; Messrs. Fred Bentz, Henry Lemieux, Roy Green, Clarence Green, Guy Churchill, Erma Church, Chas. Knox, C. Willis, Chas. Skerretz, Lyman Chapin, Byron and Clarence Craig, and Grandma Forty.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Miller were host and hostess at a delightful launch-party down the bay Sunday. Visits were made to Charleston Bay and adjacent points and across to the ocean beach. The day was thoroughly enjoyed by the party which consisted of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Morrissey, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Miss Marie Waller, Miss Charlotte Murch, Miss Blanche Fortman, Miss Eugenia Schilling, Messrs. Thayer Grimes, Hugo Quist, Cornell and Ausgar Lagerstrom. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Parsons and Mr. Ray Kaufman were unable to join the party.

ICE CREAM for parties. Lewis' is the best and purest made on Coos Bay. Phone 246J for prompt delivery.

$1.00 WILL BUY more TOYS at the COOS BAY CASH STORE than anywhere on Coos Bay. Let us prove it to you.

CUT prices on all HOLIDAY goods PRENTISS & Co.

The LATEST MONOGRAM Stationery at 50c box—RED CROSS.