A very pleasant party was gotten up Saturday night by Mrs. N. M. Matson and Mrs. Peter Scott as a surprise to Mrs. Emmett Pierce of South Marshfield. Music and games and dainty refreshments enlivened the evening, and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all. A good many guests were present, among them Mr. and Mrs. Peter Scott, Sr., Mrs. O. Hanson, Mrs. Taylor, Miss Florence Pierce, Miss Gladys Scott, Miss Helen Sneddon, Mrs. N. M. Matson, Mr. W. D. Bain, Wayne C. Stead, George Kuehn, Don Griffin, H. Lashaway, John Liegel, Joe Liegel, Grace Jones, Jennie Jones, Dr. Clarke, Bessie Bain, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Doane, Clifford Doane, Mr. and Mrs. James Scott and Wm. Abel.

Mrs. Frank Rogers was hostess of a charming launch party Tuesday, given in honor of Mrs. W. F. Miller. The party spent a delightful day in and about Mrs. Rogers' pretty Coos River home, and enjoyed extremely the delicious luncheon the hostess served at midday. Those forming the group of guests were Mrs. W. F. Miller, Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. E. F. Morrissey, Mrs. E. Crosthwait, Mrs. Wm. Grimes, Mrs. A. L. Houseworth, Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer, Mrs. F. M. Parsons, Mrs. Chas. Van Duhn, and Mrs. E. L. Bessey of Coos River.

Miss Anna M. Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cox, who has been spending the last few months in Portland, returned home this week.

The Tuesday Night Whist club will meet with Mrs. A. T. Haines Tuesday evening, December 19.

A linen shower was given last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Geo. Truman in North Bend in honor of Miss Mable Noah who is shortly to be married to Harvey Russell. The house was decorated in pink and green and a large bell was arranged overhead in such a way that when a string was pulled, the pretty linen showered down upon the prospective bride, Miss Noah, who was also the recipient of many other gifts. During the evening the guests worked at piecing blocks into a quilt, and a luncheon was served in the dining room. The wedding will take place next Wednesday evening, December 20, at the home of Mrs. Truman. The guests of the evening were Misses Winifred Rood, Mildred Rood, Lola Ritchie, Ruth Gurney, Annie Isaacs, Nora Hage, Marjorie Swearingen, Lula Hodson, Florence Rooke, Beryl Noah, Edna Ray, Anna Truman, and Mrs. Woodbury, Mrs. Joe Olin, Mrs. Roy Brainard, Mrs. J. Grimes, Mrs. Truman, Mrs. Walter Russell, Mrs. Elmer Russell and Miss Gurney.

Mrs. Frank Rogers of South Coos River spent part of this week as the guest of Mrs. Adams and Miss Mahoney in Marshfield.

The bazar given by the Altar Guild of the North Bend Episcopal church last Saturday, was voted a great success by its participants.

STUCK UP

is no name for the feeling we have about our present offering of high class Christmas Candies. Proud as we have been of previous offerings this one caps them all. For in excellence of quality and moderation in prices we have never before seen the like and hardly expect to again—not for many years any way. Don't fail to stop in and investigate. You'll find what we say is right.

Stafford's
TWO STORES.

Everything was sold out and about $70 was cleared. In the afternoon, tea, coffee and cake were served. There will be no meeting until after the first of the year when Mrs. Kinney will entertain the club at Plat B.

The North Bend Bridge Club was entertained Wednesday night by Mrs. W. E. Best. At cards, Mrs. T. W. Rennie and Mrs. C. M. Byler were successful in winning prizes. Mrs. Frank Frame was guest of the evening. No definite time was set for the next meeting which will not be held until after the holidays.

The A. N. W. club spent a very pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. I. Hyde Thursday. In addition to the regular members, Mrs. Langdon, Mrs. Tiedgen and Mrs. Barker were present. After a prolonged absence Mrs. Mary McKnight also attended. The club adjourned to meet the first Thursday of the new year, Jan. 4, 1912, with Mrs. Chas. Kaiser of North Bend.

The Progress club will meet Monday, December 18, with Mrs. I. S. Kaufman.

Miss Grace Kruse entertained Friday evening at one of the most delightful parties of the Christmas season at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Matson. Six tables of "drive" whist furnished ample diversion and excitement rose high as points were won or lost. Miss Mable Mahoney and Hugo Quist won the pretty prizes, a little brass flower bowl and a silver automobile or traveling drinking cup. After the last hand, a delicious luncheon was served at the individual tables. And red and silver shaded candle at each table and red carnations distributed as favors, produced a very beautiful effect in the darkened rooms. Miss Kruse was assisted in serving by Miss Mary Kruse and Miss Grace Williams.

Among those invited were Misses Genevieve Sengstacken, Mable Mahoney, Blanche Fortman, May Preuss, Edna Stanley, Nora Tower, Helen Bradley, Frances Williams, Ruth Allen, Hazel Powers, Clara Myren, Florence Alken, Charlotte Murch, and Messrs.
