LOCAL NOTES

THE WEATHER.
(By Associated Press.)
OREGON, Dec. 19.—Generally fair tonight and Wednesday. Westerly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.
For twenty-four hours ending at 4:00 p. m., Dec. 18, by Mrs. E. Mings, special government meteorological observer:
Maximum ..... 53
Minimum ..... 28
At 4:00 p. m. .... 42
Wind, Northwest; partly cloudy.

Is Better.—Mrs. R. M. Sartor, who recently dislocated her arm by fall, is now able to be up and around.

Attend Trial.—A number of Marshfield citizens went to Coquille today to attend the Garrison trial, some as witnesses, others of popular interest in the proceedings.

Wed at Point Terrace.—A marriage license was issued to Anton Morris Beck and Miss Violet L. Schillertrom, both of Point Terrace, in the western part of the county.—Eugene Register.

Heavy Rainfall.—The total rainfall from September 1, 1911, to date is 16.71 inches, according to the official records kept by Mrs. E. Mings, local weather observer.

Is Injured.—Ed. Moss, an employe of Camp 7 of the Smith-Powers Logging company, sustained a broken nose in an accident this week. He was brought down yesterday for treatment.

Very Ill.—It was reported today that A. M. Ross, who is ill at his home on Catching Inlet, near the mouth of Shingle House Slough, was in a rather critical condition. He is suffering from a complication of diseases.

Now in New York.—New York papers announce that Lillian Elbertson who appeared as the leading lady in one of Jim Keane's troupes on Coos Bay a few years ago, is now one of the stars in "The Talker" which is making quite a hit on Broadway.

To See Mother.—Ralph Jackson, who is serving a year's sentence in the county jail for contributing to the delinquency of a minor, came over today to visit his mother. Mrs. Jackson is said to have granted a special permit for the sake of the mother.

No arrests were made, and Acting Marshal Richardson stated that he had not been advised of any such trouble. Day left this morning for Coquille.

Many Changes.—A number of improvements are taking place in Marshfield these days. They are of a kind to attract very little attention but are nevertheless of great importance, especially as indicating the plans for the future. A great number of dwellings and other buildings have been ordered to conform with the established street grade, in violation of filling in of the low lands. And the dredges Oregon is now busily at work filling in these lands to the east of Coal Bank Inlet. All arrangements for the filling of the properties adjacent to Market avenue are also made and the work will soon commence.
