GARRISON IS TO BE HANGED

JUDGE COKE AGAIN SENTENCES SLAYER TO GALLOWES FOR MURDER OF ROY PERKINS—PRISONER MAINTAINS INNOCENCE.

(Special to The Times.) COQUILLE, Ore., Dec. 26.—Frank Garrison convicted of murder in the first degree for slaying Roy Perkins near Marshfield was sentenced by Judge Coke here this afternoon to be hanged.

Before passing sentence, Judge Coke asked if the prisoner had any statement to make. Garrison made a lengthy statement maintaining his innocence.

Judge Coke in passing sentence stated that he could not credence Garrison's statement. Garrison insisted on talking and finally had to be taken by force from the court room.

The date of the execution will be announced later when Judge Coke makes out the death warrant. Upon his previous conviction, Judge Coke sentenced Garrison to be hanged but this sentence was set aside when the Oregon Supreme Court ordered a new trial in the case.

This afternoon, the habeas corpus case of Geo. Barton of North Bend, arrested for breaking jail in Idaho, is being heard by Judge Coke.

If that verdict is for hangings, the sentences of the courts will be promptly executed in the bill to be submitted, and which will be recommended for passage by Governor West, there will be a provision for life imprisonment for murder, with no power of pardon by the executive except on recommendation of the supreme court. All this is announced in a statement by Governor West.

STEVENS WILL VISIT OREGON

Former Hill Official to Come West Soon—Maybe Interested in Cooz Bay Line.

Whether John F. Stevens, formerly head of the Hill lines in Oregon, is in any way interested in any of the Cooz Bay railway projects, will probably be known as soon as Mr. Stevens is expected to visit Oregon within a few weeks. Concerning his approaching visit, a Portland paper says:

"John F. Stevens, former president of the Hill lines in Oregon, but now head of the John F. Stevens Construction company of New York, will probably pay Portland a visit in a few weeks. Mr. Stevens, according to word brought from Gotham is planning a business trip to San Francisco, and if he makes it, will come to Portland for a few days.

"If I make the trip to the coast, I shall certainly take a run up to Portland before returning east, because there is something I like about Oregon, I don't know exactly what," he told his friend. "I would feel perfectly contented in New York, if I only had Oregon here."

Mr. Stevens, it is rumored, will probably leave for Europe immediately after his trip to the coast, the report being to the effect that his company, which has been incorporated with a capital stock of $2,000,000, will engage in a very large project there, the completion of which it is said will involve the expenditure of about $70,000,000. The nature of the project has not been divulged, but it is believed to be an immense railroad project.

LOVES PRETTY CLOTHES MORE THAN HUSBAND

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 26

"Men don't understand the women. If they did they would keep their wives well supplied with pretty clothes. My husband wouldn't buy me the gowns I wanted, so I ran away from him, taking all the money we had in the bank."

This was the statement made at the Central police station by pretty Mrs. Ruth C. Smith of San Francisco, who deserted her husband, a railroad clerk, after taking all their savings, amounting to $1,900. When searched Mrs. Smith had $370. She said she had spent $700 for clothes and would not tell where the rest is.

"My husband is a good man," she said, "but he knows absolutely nothing about women. I love him very much but I care more for pretty clothes. So I left him. No, there was no affinity mixed up in this case."
