New Home.—Andrew Storey is finishing a fine new residence on his Coos River ranch near the Creamery.

Engagement.—Lee Backman and Miss Ellen Sarin of West Marshfield, announced their engagement on Christmas eve. Their marriage will take place in the near future.

Instal Officers.—Doric Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, and Blanco Lodge, A. F. & A. M., will hold a joint installation of officers at their hall this evening.

New Postmasters.—Washington dispatches announce that the Senate has confirmed the appointments of Jay B. Stewart as postmaster at Myrtle Point, and Chas. E. Hazard as postmaster at Drain.

Is Injured.—While coming down the West Marshfield hill yesterday, Mrs. Hans Reed, a well-known Coos Bay woman, slipped and fell and severely bruised herself. No bones were broken. She is reported getting along nicely today.

End Xmas Visit.—There has been a regular exodus of people from Marshfield today. Three coaches were attached to the afternoon train for Myrtle Point and way points, and they were crowded with passengers.

Sunday School Entertainment.—The Sunday school of Emmanuel Episcopal church will hold its Christmas tree entertainment this evening at 7:30 at the Swedish Lutheran Hall. All the members of the church and their friends are cordially invited.

Is Injured.—"Dad" Miller, a well-known tailor, slipped and fell the other night on the walk. He struck severely on the back of his head, cutting an artery. He almost bled to death before a physician could be obtained to stop the flow of blood.

Today he was reported getting along fairly well.

Falls Off Walk.—Mrs. L. A. Wherret was slightly injured last evening by slipping and falling on the abrupt decline leading from Commercial avenue into North Fourth street.

Sale a Success.—The sale conducted at the Ladies' Emporium on Central avenue has been a remarkable success so far. It will continue throughout this week, closing on Saturday night.

Vessels Sail.—The Redondo sails from San Francisco for Coos Bay today and the Alliance will sail from Portland for Coos Bay this evening. Both should reach here early Thursday and the Alliance will probably sail the same day for Eureka.

Due Thursday.—The M. S. Dollar, the big lumber carrier which is to take on a couple million feet of lumber at the Smith mill here for China, is scheduled to sail from San Francisco for Coos Bay today. She should arrive here early Thursday. Capt. Olson of the Nann Smith remained here to pilot the M. S. Dollar up the Bay.

Children Festival.—The Sunday school of the Baptist church held its Christmas festival in the church last evening. The church was full to its capacity, and a very enjoyable children's program was rendered. Santa Claus arrived over Coos Bay and Boise and the Electric Railroad in time to deliver presents to all children and most of the old people as well.

Wed Yesterday.—Perry W. Dodson and Mrs. Ethel J. Reynolds were married yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Myers on Elrod avenue, the Rev. D. A. Macleod of the North Bend Presbyterian church officiating. Only immediate relatives and a few close friends were present. They went to housekeeping at once in a cottage they had furnished on Second street near Elrod, the well wishes of a host of friends following them there.

Big Christmas Trade.—Most of the business men of Marshfield are elated over the result of the trade during the holiday season so far. D. Y. Stafford says his trade this season has been the best he ever had. The Woolen Mill Store, Brown Drug company, the Hub Clothing and Shoe company, the Fixup Clothing, Nasburg grocery, the Lockhart-Parsons Drug company, Goling and Harvey company, the Lockhart grocery, the Perry-Nicholson company, the Bazar, the Ladies' Emporium and many others report very good business while others state it is being fair or up to expectations.

Wed Christmas.—Miss Eva Wilson of Sumner, and Fred. Barnard of Marshfield, were married at the home of the bride's mother at Sumner yesterday, the Rev. H. I. Rutledge officiating. A few intimate friends and relatives were in attendance and enjoyed a wedding supper following the nuptials. The bride is a sister of Fred. Wilson of Marshfield and they will reside at the corner of Market and Third streets, occupying the apartments recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Bradford. The groom is a well known Marshfield barber. Both have scores of friends here who will unite in wishing them all the happiness that the future can bring.

The following item from the Portland papers will be of interest to those who have heard and known Mrs. Schwab in her visit to Marshfield.

"Mrs. May Dearborn Schwab and her husband, Richard (Dick) H. Schwab, have left for New York City to make their home there for some time to come. Mr. Schwab is considering a business proposition to locate in New York City and Mrs. Schwab is busy herself with advanced vocal study and recital and church choir work there. She came to this city, with her parents, from New York State, over ten years ago and today is one of the most esteemed lyric soprano soloists in Oregon. She has a clear, sweet, high-pitched soprano voice of remarkable purity and is at her best at ballad singing, in rendering Thomas' and Delibes' compositions and in coloratura work requiring trills and fine interpretation. She was lately soprano soloist at the First Unitarian Church choir and formerly occupied the same position at the Taylor-street Methodist, First Presbyterian and First Congregational Church choirs. She has also won applause here in concert work.

They state that the recent road difficulty there was not as represented by Mr. Smith when he appeared before Justice Penneck. They claim that the proposed new highway ends on a high bluff so that it would not be of any use without a great deal of work being done. The old highway is still open and they state that a score of ranchers and homesteaders besides themselves use it.

NEWS OF CATCHING INLET.

"Grandma Bonebrake" is slowly recovering from a fall which occurred several weeks ago. She accidentally fell and struck the back of her head on the porch, rendering her unconscious for some time.

Mr. Albee of Bay Park, was the guest of Wm. Higginson Sunday afternoon.

B. F. Ross, who has been suffering from stomach trouble for over two weeks, is still confined to the house.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Crawford were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Higginson at dinner Christmas Eve. Mrs. W. D. Wallace, who has been taking care of Mrs. Major, returned home Friday. Mrs. L. J. Hodson of South Coos River is visiting among relatives on the Inlet.

Veri Bonebrake and W. R. Higginson went duck hunting Saturday, but both returned duckless. They both got a good ducking at the mud flats when they fell overboard, fortunately the water was not very deep or they might not have gotten off as luckily.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE

Coos County Seat News as Told by the Herald

An ordinance was enacted by the Coquille council levying a tax of five mills on all taxable property in the City of Coquille to defray the expenses and cost of operating said city.

The city recorder was notified to instruct certain parties in this city that they were permitting riotous and disorderly conduct in their places of business and unless conditions were remedied at once the council would consider the advisability of cancelling the licenses, or would refuse to grant new licenses upon the expiration of the license period.
