Clark, Hattie Wheeler, Ida Downer, Mina Clark, Anna Cox and Carl O'Keenbeard, J. W. Motley, Ronald McGeorge, Guy Torrey, Mr. Saling, Nasburg and Drexel Hopson.

The marriage of Miss Freda Eckhoff and Herbert Bentley was solemnized Christmas day, December 25, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Chas. Eckhoff in North Bend. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Macleod, under a wedding bell hung in the beautifully decorated parlors, after which a wedding breakfast was served. The guests present were Mrs. Chas. Eckhoff, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rooke, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cronkhite, Mr. and Mrs. John Eckhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Eckhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Windsor, Miss L. C. Baker, Miss Charlotte Rooke, Miss Lillie Painter, Misses Belle and Violet Forrest, Misses Elsie and Carrie Eckhoff, Miss Lilly Eckhoff, Carl Eckhoff, Tommy Forrest, Ed. Forrest, Will Forrest and Clem Forrest.

The dance given Christmas night by the Marshfield Band followed the usual precedent of the band dances established in the past by the pleasant entertainment offered. A large crowd comfortably filled the hall and danced to the excellent selections rendered by the well-practiced musicians. Several new and beautiful waltzes were played that for time and melody rival many of the older and more tried productions. Another dance is to be given Saturday night at the Eagles' Hall, at which the usual gay crowd and stirring music is expected.

The Minnie-Wis club will meet with Mrs. Dresser Thursday, January 4, after adjournment for the holidays.

The A. N. W. club will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Chas. Kaiser of North Bend, Thursday, January 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Richards and children, who have been visiting at the Geo. F. Murch home, returned Tuesday to their home in Bandon.

Miss Lucy Horton entertained informally at an evening of music Thursday. Her guests were Miss Nellie Tower, Miss Charlotte Murch, Ansgar Lagerstrom, Cornell Lagerstrom and Hugo Quist.

Mr. Geo. Murch entertained two of his O.A.C. friends, Gordon Rasmussen and R. Cruik, at luncheon Thursday. In the afternoon the party made a trip to the Smith mill where Mr. Cruik who is a stranger to Coos Bay industries, was shown thru its yards and buildings.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30, at the Wilson home near Sumner, Miss Eva Wilson, sister of Fred Wilson of Marshfield, and Fred. Barnard also of Marshfield, were married by the Reverend H. I. Rutledge. A boat left Marshfield at 12:15, carrying a number of friends to the wedding, and returned at 7 o'clock in the evening, bringing the bride and groom to this city where they will make their future home. The ring ceremony was the one chosen, after which a supper was served. Among those present were Mrs. J. P. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Selander and child, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Selander and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rodell, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. O. Wilson and family, and Fred Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Magary entertained Xmas eve at an evening of amusements and holiday fun for the children, including Christmas tree and its attendant distribution of gifts. Lunch was served after several recitations had been given and songs sung. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gabernache, Mr. and Mrs. M. Cooley, Miss May Magary, Ruth Magary, Claude and Charley Magary, Oscar Johnson, and Don Robert.

Among those who entertained at Christmas dinner-parties for friends and relatives are: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crosthwait, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sehlbrede, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Simpson of North Bend, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hague, and Mr. and Mrs. O'Mara of North Bend.

A very pretty birthday breakfast was given Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Mary Thompson in honor of Miss Inez Baldwin. Those present were: Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Baldwin, Miss Striffler, Miss Silverman, Miss Carpenter, Miss Palmer, Miss Ferdine and Miss Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Merchant entertained at dinner and Christmas festivities Monday evening. Mr. Jack Merchant made a very passable Santa Claus in furs and mask, and a very merry evening was spent in enjoyment of Christmas games and customs. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tower, Miss Nora Tower, Mr. Frank Lacey, Mrs. Barbara Preuss and Miss May Preuss were among those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Powers were host and hostess to a few friends Monday evening. Their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cox, Miss Anna Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lawhorne and Ray Cox.

The American Women's League of North Bend will open the Exchange on Sherman Avenue Thursday, January 4. Articles of art and needlework, of imported novelties and of all branches of cookery will be for sale or exchange, and lunch will be served every day. It is planned to continue the exchange for some time.

The American Women's League will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. N. G. Haines in North Bend, Tuesday evening, January 2nd.

Miss Ruth Allen was hostess yesterday afternoon at a charming informal sewing party in honor of her friend, Miss Ella Felter of Bandon. Among her guests were Misses Ella Felter, Frances Williams, Nora Tower, May Preuss, Esther Silverman, Agnes Carpenter, Elvira Frizeen, Helen Bradley, Hazel Powers, Grace Kruse, Florence Aiken and May Stauff.

Miss Esther Silverman and Miss Agnes Carpenter entertained the Junior class of the High School Thursday, December 28, at the residence of Mrs. Mary Thompson. Among those present were Misses Ruth Allen, Frances Williams, Ruth Horton, Joan Fitzgerald, Hazel Powers, Ella Felter, Messrs. Ralph Kruse, Noble Pitman, Will Horton, Lee Byerly, Max Reigard and Leslie Isaacson. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and amusements in which guessing the baby pictures of the various people, added much to the enjoyment of all.

Friends of Harry Winkler and Miss Rose Wall, two prominent Coos Bay young people, have been apprised of their engagement although it has not been formally announced. The marriage will probably take place next month. Mr. Winkler is manager of the North Bend Pharmacy while his fiancée is one of the best known of the Marshfield young women, having spent practically all of her life here. A host of friends will unite in wishing them all the happiness that time can bring.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crosthwait entertained at a Christmas party Thursday evening, December 28. Rooms and tables were prettily decorated in the Christmas greens, holly and mistletoe. At cards, Mr. Parsons won the gentlemen's prize and Mrs. Houseworth and Mrs. Kreitzer tied for the ladies', Mrs. Kreitzer winning on the cut. In serving, Mrs. Crosthwait was assisted by Mrs. Van Duzyn and Mrs. Parsons. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Houseworth, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Toye, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Morrissey, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bachman, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. G'dley, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Van Duzyn, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hildebrand, Mr. and Mrs. E. Warwick, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers and Mrs. Effie Farringer.

A gay and music-loving crowd answered the invitations sent out by the Marshfield High School Athletic Association for Wednesday night, December 27, and assembled at the Eagles' Hall to dance to the excellent music rendered by Batchelor's Orchestra. The High School students were out in force, as were many of the college people who are home for the holidays. The dance was as select and pleasant a one as could be hoped for, and marks the arrival of a new younger set into the dancing world. Mesdames A. L. Barker, R. F. Williams, Christine Kruse, M. C. Horton and F. A. Tiedgen were the patronesses.

The Coos Lyric Quartet, composed of A. Richards, B. B. Ostlund, L. K. Ballinger and Preston Jones, is preparing to give a concert in the near future. The quartet will be assisted by Mrs. A. B. G'dley, soprano, and Miss Esther Johnson, contralto.

A musical program will be given soon at Eckhoff Hall by Miss Della M. Brouillard and Mrs. Charles H. Worrel. Miss Brouillard of Charles City, Iowa, has studied under some of the best teachers of the East, among them Grant Hadley, William H. Pontins, and Madame Braumann of New York, and for the past three years, under Miss Grace B. Raymond, of New York City, who is one of the most widely famed musicians of the country. Miss Raymond has pronounced Miss Brouillard's voice to be without exception the most beautiful she has heard. Miss Brouillard has held for several years the position of first soprano in the congregational church at Charles City and has had extensive experience as soloist on club programs and in recitals. She had prepared for the concert stage but poor health has forced her to take several months' rest, after which she expects to continue her studies in New York City.

As a pianist, Mrs. Worrel is too well known to need an introduction to a North Bend musical audience. She is an accomplished soloist, and as an accompanist stands second to none. She is sympathetic and follows the mood of the singer with a fineness of interpretation found only in the born accompanist. Technically, she has reached that high degree of perfection that makes her mistress of the key board and allows fullest opportunity of display of warm musical temperament. Mrs. Worrel's whole life has been devoted to music and she is well deserving of the popularity she has gained among her home people.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bolster of North Bend entertained the following guests at Christmas dinner: Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Wooden and Mrs. Garley and son, Fred Harold, of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Maxon of Myrtle Point.

The Ladies of St. Monica's Catholic church were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hugh McLain when further preliminary work was done towards the fair which the congregation plans to hold some time in February. Owing to the likelihood of the rector, the Rev. Father Munro having to go to California in the near future for his health, the definite date of the fair has not been agreed upon. The ladies will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. W. Montgomery in West-Marshfield.

The marriage of Jas. Cowan, Jr., and Miss Cora Bowron, two well-known Marshfield young people, will be solemnized today by Rev. Father Munro in a home which they have already prepared in a suite in the Williams Apartments. It will be a quiet affair, only relatives and close friends being invited.

The New Year's ball to be given at the Millcooma club rooms this evening for the members of that organization and their ladies promises to be one of the most delightful of the holiday dancing parties.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Toye will entertain a few friends at a New Year's dinner party at their home in West-Marshfield Monday.

The Ladies' Art club which adjourned for the Christmas holidays will meet next Friday afternoon with Mrs. F. L. Sumner. Besides the usual business, the election of officers will be held.

The Cordfally club is the name of a new club in Marshfield. It was formed a few weeks ago and meets every second Thursday night at the home of some member. Last Thursday night, it was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Campbell in South Marshfield when a Christmas tree and the exchange of presents was made a feature of the evening's diversion. Refreshments were served. Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hildebrand will entertain the club at a "Watch party" at their home and the next regular meeting will be held a week from next Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dodge. The members of the club are Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hildebrand, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dodge, Mrs. Fluella Turner and Geo. Dindinger.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Masters of Sumner entertained at dinner on Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. Will Steckle and daughter, Edith, and son, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Watson and children, Mary and James, of Coquille, Mrs. Lydia Steckle of Eastside, Elijah Masters, Lizzie, Gene and Abbott Masters, and Gilbert, Martin and Cleo Steckle, Robert, Jay and Miss Ollie Richards.

Miss Alice Watters entertained Friday night at her home in North Bend. Among her guests were Misses Frances Golden, Hattie and Nora Hage, Dorothy Kibbler, Lorraine Swearingner, Vera Wilson, Lola Richie, Juno Young, Naomi Smith, Norma Chase, Messrs. Jay Gray, Geo. Dewey, Glen and Alva Groat, John Watters, Leo and Tom Hage, Oscar Carlson, Carl Welling, Clyde Smith, and Fred Reynolds.

A very pleasant party took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gardner in honor of their little daughter's eighth birthday at which twelve of her little friends were invited and remembered her with many tokens. The little folks enjoyed themselves in one room, while their mothers joined in a rag carpet sewing bee in another room. A generous lunch and coffee was served after which all departed with wishes for many returns of the day. Among those present were: Jennie Bowman, Alice Richardson, Mabel Sneddon, Clara Abel, Pearl Lapp, B. Lapp, Loleta Lapp, Walter Welling, Robert Welling, Leo Haines, Henry Mansen, Emma Hansen, John Sponford Floyd, Adrian Gardner, Mrs. Lapp, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. A. Hansen, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. W. Richardson, Mrs. Welling, Mrs. Haines, Mrs. Abel, Mrs. L. Floyd, Mrs. D. Anderson, Mrs. J. C. Doane, Mrs. C. W. Gardner.

The members of the Swedish Lutheran church in North Bend gave a surprise party to Matt Kjelman, the Sunday school superintendent of the church, and his daughter, Selma, who is organist. Nearly the whole church marched in a body to the home, there taking charge for the evening. Rev. Bengtson, the pastor, made an appropriate address, setting forth the valuable services Mr. Kjelman and his daughter were giving to the church, and in conclusion, handed to Mr. Kjelman a sum of money as a token of appreciation from the members. The ladies brought fine refreshments which were served. Miss Kjelman, who is only thirteen years old, is showing remarkable talent as a musician, and shared the surprise with her father. The evening was a most pleasant one.

Christmas day, at six o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Meyers, the marriage of Miss Ethel J. Reynolds to Perry W. Dodson took place, the Rev. D. A. MacLeod officiating. Decorations of holly and Oregon grape gave the house a festive and holiday air. The bride was dressed in a gown of white messaline trimmed with Persian lace, and wore a veil of white Marquisette. She was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Reynolds, as bridesmaid, while Geo. McCutcheon acted as groomsmen. The wedding music was played by Mrs. W. A. Magee of Empire. Mrs. Geo. Reynolds, of Oregon City, the mother of the bride, was present, having come from the north to visit her daughter and attend the wedding. Only near friends and relatives of the bride and groom were invited among them Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Magee, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, Mrs. E. J. Ketting, Fred Reynolds, Marion Reynolds, and Geo. McCutcheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodson will live on South Second street, near Elrod avenue.

Mrs. C. K. Perry was hostess at a pleasant afternoon at duplicate Bridge Friday. Her guests were Mrs. W. C. Bradley, Mrs. Ward M. Blake and Mrs. J. T. McCormac.

Word has been received here of the marriage today, December 30, in Berkeley, California, of Miss Mary Minot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Minot, and niece of Mrs. Eugene O'Connell and F. E. Hague of Marshfield, to James C. Guene of Berkeley. Miss Minot is well-known on the Bay, having lived here many years previous to her departure for New York City a couple of years ago to take a course in nursing. Mrs. Minot, mother of the bride, is now visiting relatives on the Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Guene will be home at 1417 Bonita avenue, Berkeley, California.

The Alumnae of the Marshfield High School are organizing a basketball team to play under the boys' rules against such of the county high school teams as can be obtained for. They will begin practice week in the gymnasium but the team will probably be composed of Misses Alpha Mauzey, Ma Cowan, Nellie Tribbey, Beva Igan, and Mary Hansey, with Curtis and Rose Wall as substitutes.

Miss Beva Flanagan, who is teaching school on Isthmus Island, is spending a week of the holidays Marshfield with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Flanagan.

Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., will entertain the Bridge club at her next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. E. K. Jones left yesterday Portland to visit at the home of her sisters, Mrs. B. M. Rich and Mrs. Wm. Ford.
