Meet Tuesday.—The regular monthly meeting of C. W. B. M. of the Christian church will be held at the home of Mrs. R. A. Copple Tuesday afternoon, January 2. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Sends Greetings.—Coos Bay friends are in receipt of Christmas cards from James Grant Ferguson, formerly principal of the Marshfield High School, who is now taking a medical course at John Hopkins University at Baltimore.

Smallpox Epidemic.—According to information by letter to Victor Stauff at Cooson from his two sons who are attending college at Corvallis, there is an epidemic of smallpox ravaging that city. Over 300 cases are reported. All the students have been compelled to undergo vaccination, and there is grave fear of the spread of the disease.

Busy at Hatchery.—Supt. Frank Smith of the South Coos River fish hatchery reports that about 5,000, 500 salmon eggs have been secured for the next season. A little over two million of them are Chinooks, 1,000,000 being the most numerous.

Meet Wednesday.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Swedish Lutheran church will hold a meeting next Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. in the church hall. Mrs. Hillstrom and Mrs. Grant will serve refreshments.
 Find.—L. E. Salina, through the Times' lost ad, recovered a check which was presented him Christmas. Warner Ogden picked it up on the street, advertised it and Mr. Salina saw the ad and claimed his property, and feels more than grateful.

Well Known Here.—J. C. Greene, to whom Miss Mary Minot was wedded at Berkeley, Cal., Saturday is well known on Coos Bay. He has made numerous trips here for a wholesale candy house and is familiarly known by his friends here as "Jimmy" Greene.

Meet Wednesday.—The annual session of the Coos County commissioners will open Wednesday at Coquille. The session will be a long one as the accounts of the various county officers have to be audited, the work of the district road supervisors checked up, supervisors for the ensuing year appointed and the jury list for the ensuing year drawn.

Stemmler Wed.—The following item from Saturday's Roseburg News will be of interest to the many Coos Bay friends of "Jake" Stemmler of Myrtle Point: "J. O. Stemmler, a well-known Marshfield man, was married this afternoon to Miss Katherine Gray, recently from the East. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few witnesses by Judge J. W. Hamilton. M. and Mrs. Stemmler leave for Coos County tomorrow where they will make their future home."

Boys Bother Couple.—Saturday, a crowd of young boys caused much grief for the occupants of the Williams' building and the adjacent section by the tactics used in charivariing, Jas. Cowan Jr. and bride, Marshal Carter was called to cope with the first party of young lads and made them disperse after taking some money from them which they made Mr. Cowan give them to "buy the treats" with. Marshal Carter returned this to Mr. Cowan. Soon afterwards, another crowd of older lads appeared on the scene and became so boisterous that Nightwatchman Froupe had to be called. He took some of the leaders down town and threatened to jail them unless they promised to disperse and be good. They finally did. Marshal Carter says the next time the offenders will be arrested immediately and thrown into jail.
