

If You Really Want Private Water Pumping And Want a Dependable, Constant and Satisfactory Supply---

you should investigate the merits of electrically driven pumps.

These are now made in small sizes suitable for household use, and on small farms, etc.

The power is always ready; the supply of water does not fail.

Where other forms of power balk, cause delays and break down, the Electric Motor works smoothly, continuously and efficiently—also, economically.

Ask our New Business Department to give you accurate and up-to-date information about Electric Pumping. Telephone 178.

From tasting the cake baked with HAINES' flour. It is so much better than ordinary cake that if you don't watch her she'll eat the whole cake. #### ECCENTRIC WAGNER.

A Glimpse of the Famous Composer in One of His Moods.

Richard Wagner, the composer, needed a good deal of managing, and Frau Cosima was always tactful, according to Judith Gautier's "Wagner at Home." When the author hesitated before accepting Wagner's invitation to an excursion she says Frau Cosima made signs to her and, coming nearer, said in a low voice: "Do not refuse, he would be angry. And let him manage it all; let him take the lead, if you do not wish to grieve him."

Later on she gives another curious scene: "Behind the house, in that court which formed a part of the garden, and from which the carriage drive started, there was a high swing, which the children were allowed to use very carefully, and with which the older people sometimes amused themselves. One day Mme. Cosima was sitting on the narrow board. Wagner offered to start the swing and give her a good flight through the air. All went well for a time, but, little by little, the motion became more rapid; higher and still higher went the swing. In vain Mme. Cosima begged for mercy. Carried away by a kind of frenzy, the master paid no attention and the incident began to have a terrifying effect.

"Cosima grew white; her hold relaxed, and she was about to fall. 'Do you not see that she is fainting?' I cried, throwing myself toward Wagner. He grew pale in his turn, and the danger was quickly averted. But, as the poor woman continued to be dizzy and trembling, the master concluded it would be wise to create a diversion. He ran rapidly toward the house, and by the aid of the shutters, the moldings and protections of the stones, he climbed nimbly up the side and, reaching the balcony of the floor above, leaped over it.

"He had obtained the desired effect, but in replacing one evil by another. Trembling with anxiety, Cosima turned to me, saying under her breath: 'Above all things, do not notice him; do not look surprised, or you can never tell where he will end.'"

Gems In Verse

TEARS.

THERE be three hundred different ways and more of speaking, but of weeping only one. And that one way the wide world o'er and o'er is known by all, though it is taught by none. No man is master of this ancient lore And no man pupil. Every simpaton Can weep as well as every sage. The man Does it no better than the infant can.

The first thing all men learn is how to speak. Yet understand they not each other's speech. But tears are neither Latin nor yet Greek Nor prose nor verse. The language that they teach Is universal. Cleopatra's cheek They decked with pearls no richer than from each Of earth's innumerable mourners fall Unstudied, yet correctly classical.

Tears are the oldest and the commonest Of all things upon earth, and yet how new The tale each time told by them! How unblended Were life's hard way without their heavenly dew! Joy borrows them from grief. Faith trembles lest She lose them, even Hope herself smiles through The rainbow they make round her as they fall. And Death, that cannot weep, sets weeping all.

—Owen Meredith.

BLIND BROTHER.

OUTSIDE the gate you beg of men The coin they give to you; Outside the gate I ask in vain, Yet I a beggar too.

BEHOLD, your eyes are wide and blind; My eyes are quick to see. Blind brother, if they saw my heart What would they give to me?

BLIND brother, it is dark without; No stars burn in the sky. And now I hear the closing doors And now the night birds cry.

BLIND brother, will the hours be long That you and I must wait? Oh, do they know I beg for love Outside the city's gate?

—Jennette Marks in Success.
