Good Things to Know

"Never wash the inside of Tea or Coffee Pots with soapsuds. If granite or agate ware is used and becomes badly discolored, nearly fill pot with cold water, add one tablespoonful of borax, and heat gradually until water reaches the boiling point. Rinse with hot water, wipe and keep on back of range until perfectly dry."

"The strands of a New Broom closely together, put into a pail of boiling water and soak two hours. Dry thoroughly before using."

Injures Himself.—C. J. West of Eastside while trying to half sole a shoe at his home yesterday inflicted a severe flesh wound in the thigh. The knife slipped and cut into the muscles. Several stitches were necessary.

Cuts Thumb.—Alvin Church, the nine-year-old son of E. L. Church, almost severed the thumb of his left hand while chopping and kindling wood last evening. It may be that the digit can be saved as a result of the prompt medical attention secured.

Elect Grimes.—At the first meeting of the new executive committee of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce last evening, Col. Wm. Grimes was elected chairman for the ensuing year. He will name the standing committees later. Preliminary plans for the ensuing year were discussed but no definite action was taken.

Fine Concert.—The concert given by the Coos Bay Concert Band at the Masonic Opera House Sunday afternoon, drew a large audience. The program was pronounced by the music lovers present to have been one of the best that has been given under the direction of Mr. Fenton. Other concerts will be arranged for the near future.

Hearings Later.—Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist returned to Coquille this morning after having concluded the preliminary arraignment of Goldie Bestscoff. He informed Justice Penneck that he would return in a few days for the hearings of Cornell Lagerstrom, charged with violating the game law by shooting after sunset. The case of Andrew Stanback of Coos River charged with beating his wife will probably come up in a week or so.

Feared Burglars.—An occupant of an apartment in the O'Connell building last evening thought that she heard a burglar in one of the apartments that had just been vacated. She told others and finally a call for the nightwatch was sent in. He made careful search but no trace of any burglar could be found. Later it was ascertained that the noise she heard probably came from another apartment where a little party was in progress. After it was all over and explained, everybody thought it a good joke.

Opens Branch.—The Unique Panatorium has opened a branch of its establishment in North Bend.

FAVOR VOTING CONTEST NOW

Want Popularity Contest Between Coos Bay Bachelors—Suggest Judges.

A voting contest to determine the most popular bachelor on Coos Bay is the suggestion that has been made to the Leap Year Editor by several in the last twenty-four hours. What do you think of it?

If you favor it, drop a note to the Leap Year Editor and enclose the name of the most popular bachelor on Coos Bay. Your name will be kept secret, honest truly. From the entries, the ten receiving the most nominations will be selected.

One Reader of The Times, who has figured the whole thing out has suggested that prizes be offered and that the following young woman be appointed judges of the contest:

- Mamie Mahoney.
- Clara Myren.
- Esther Johnson.
- Emma Erickson.
- Elizabeth Tellefson.
- Selma Johnson.
- May Burke.
- Hattie Wheeler.
- Julia Holm.
- Inez Johnson.
- Pearl Riggs.
- Ella Sneddon.
- Madge Simpson.
- Una Marsh.

Bachelor Can't Dance.

Dr. Taggart insists that his name be withdrawn from the list of eligible bachelors. A member of The Times staff told me that the reason Dr. Taggart gave was his inability to dance and that he did not want embarrass any lady by having to reject an invitation to the Leap Year ball next Saturday night. Now, I know of two or three bachelors who are arranging to take dancing lessons and Dr. Taggart should join them if that is the only reason.

SAYS WYNNE IS WINNER.

Leap Year Editor:
I am much interested in your department in The Times. I have been waiting for some one else to give you the name of Jas. E. Wynne as one of the eligible bachelors. Mr. Wynne is a sure winner and that he is still a bachelor is undoubtedly due to the bashfulness which Leap Year is supposed to take care of. Kindly enter his name in the list.

BACHELOR GIRLS USING LEAP YEAR PRIVILEGE

GREAT BEND, Kan., Jan. 9. —Fifty bachelor girls of Great Bend will give the unmarried men of this town no chance to form a club similar to the Grant County Bachelors' Club. The "leap year league," organized by the girls on New Year's eve will make that quite unnecessary. The active campaign began when the league gave a leap year ball. The invitations were given personally by members of the club, and the announcement was made that triflers would be given no consideration and need not apply for invitations to future entertainments.

NORTH BEND NEWS.

The monthly business meeting and social of the Mizpah Bible Class will be held Friday evening, January 12, at the home of Miss Ellen Anderson on Sherman avenue. Election of officers will be held. All members are urged to be present.

T. V. Johns, has leased Jerry Haines' farm in Myrtle Point and will move his family there soon.
