

GIRL SEEKING CLASSY "BACH"

Inserts Want Ad Specifying Kind of Man She Wants—Leap Year News.

Oh, you bashful bachelors, read this!

"WANTED—A bachelor. Must be under 30 years, congenial, an athlete, neat, handsome, prosperous, and a good dancer. None others need apply. Address "Lonely," care "Times."

This want ad was brought to The Times this morning. Whether an invitation to the Leap Year Ball or a marriage license is waiting for the man who answers is something for the future to tell. The girl was young and is said to be a well-known Coos Bay lassie.

Apparently she wants to take advantage of Leap Year but is a bit bashful about it and wants to get a line on the man before she makes the start.

Sherman Gamble of Haynes Inlet is one of the latest well-known Coos Bay bachelors to have his name submitted as a Leap Year eligible.

"SWANSKA PIKA" BACHELORS.

Leap Year Editor: I have been reading the Leap Year news carefully expecting to see some of our prominent young Swedish bachelors at Bunker Hill put on the list of eligibles. However you have overlooked them and I think that you are doing an injustice to the Coos Bay girls who are planning to take advantage of Leap Year by not letting them know of our Bunker Hill bachelors. Among them may be enumerated:

- Herman Erickson.
- Emil Gidmark.
- Abel Engstrom.
- Peter Engstrom.
- Erik Edlund.
- Wm. Naslund.
- Otto Edlund.
- Hennig Larson.
- Andrew Nelson.
- Gust Green.

—BUNKER HILLITE.

SOME AT BEAVER HILL.

Leap Year Editor: While we may not have as many eligible bachelors at Beaver Hill as some other towns in the county, we have some fine ones, and I think the Leap Year girls will agree with me that in such a case as this quality instead of quantity counts. One of our "best catches," Dr. Hopson, is now in Portland and unless he is taken captive by some Rose City maiden, there is a fine chance for some Coos Bay girl. Among the Beaver Hill bachelors are:

- Jas. Merchant.
- Dave Liljereth.
- Alfred Backman.
- Joe Lewis.
- Mr. Hablin.
- Herman Johnson.

—CUPID.

Eastside Bachelors Bashful.

Leap Year Editor: While you are publishing the names of eligible men I think Eastside ought to have a show. The bachelors of Eastside are so shy they only need a little encouragement to make some girl a good home.

- Among them are:
- Fred. Bisset.
- Al. Whitty.
- Irvin Vineyard.
- Patsy Dalton.
- J. Robinson.
- Will Leighton.
- Mart Peterson.

PRAISE GIVEN CAPT. LOFSTEDT

a rowboat would not have had any trouble navigating it. They stood off about eight miles west of the Cape Arago lighthouse. Added to the delay was the fact that the steamers President and Bear and one other steam schooner hailed them and asked if they could not be of assistance. Capt. Lofstedt informed that he was in communication by wireless with Coos Bay and that a tug would shortly come out and bring him in here. The vessels then

As the hours passed and no tug hove in sight, some began to get worried. Finally Monday morning when the southeast gale sprung up and the wind attained a velocity of fifty miles or so per hour, evidence of danger was seen and Capt. Lofstedt began calling for some other vessel to come and the Alliance was broadside to them. Finally the Nome City responded to the calls for aid.

The first line the Nome City got aboard the Alliance broke soon after being made fast. The second line held and about 10 o'clock Monday night, the heavy seas broke a second hawser. A third held safely. From then on, the trip up to the Columbia river was fine.

Owing to the fine treatment accorded them by Capt. Lofstedt and crew and the knowledge that the mishap was one of the unavoidable accidents that occur, Messrs. Baker and Hopping this morning assured Agent McGeorge that their next trip would be on the Alliance and that they would "boost" for the vessel whenever possible.

During the tedious wait and trip, Mrs. Baker declared that if she ever reached land again, she would never leave it. However, when Mr. Bawer informed her that they could catch the Breakwater and reach Coos Bay much quicker than they otherwise could, and asked her what she thought about it, she showed that she was game by declaring, "Sure, I'll take the chance."

Home Permanency vs. Home Monotony

This is a vital question for present day homebuilders—whether to have a house which in appearance must always remain the same or a house that will permit of a little refreshing occasionally. Neighborhoods change as do individual tastes—a frame house easily made to harmonize with its surroundings—a fresh coat of paint often will make it as good as your neighbor's new home—the same as a new suit makes you feel like a new man. At any rate a frame house is susceptible to most any change you might desire and while it is permanent it does not necessarily need become an eyesore or a monotony. There are lots of things we've observed about houses and lumber that you should know before building—come in and we'll give you our views.
