Buy's Ranch.—It is announced that Jerry G. Kinney has purchased the T. T. Totten ranch, five miles north of Allegany, for $3,500. Mr. Totten and family expect to return to Oklahoma.

Is Recovering.—Robert Starkey, the well-known Bay City pioneer and poet, is recuperating from the effects of a bad fall he sustained lately. That he will soon be over the ill-effects of his injuries is the ardent wish of the many friends of the venerable old gentleman.

No Bandon Shooting.—A report in circulation here yesterday that there had been a shooting affair at Bandon, involving an Italian there, was absolutely without foundation, according to advises to The Times from Bandon. How the report originated is unknown.

To Learn Business.—Vernon Smith, the eldest son of C. A. Smith.

who graduated from Harvard last year, has come here to become actively identified with the company. He will start in at the bottom and work his way up, learning every phase of the business so as to prepare himself to later succeed his father as head of the big business.

Play Coquille.—The Marshfield High School basketball team went to Coquille this afternoon to play the High School team there this evening. They will return at noon tomorrow. Those going were Pitman, Isaacson, Larsen, Stutsman and Clarke and Prof. Grannis and Manager Harrington.

Here For Bout.—Jack Duarte, an Oakland boxer, arrived here yesterday for his fifteen round go with Jess Day which is scheduled to take place at the Marshfield Skating Rink January 26. He says he is in excellent condition but he will continue his training here. Day has been in training for some time, having expected the bout would take place tomorrow night.

Is Brought Here.—H. Gray, a timber cruiser, who was taken ill of inflammatory rheumatism while working in the Fall Creek country, above Allegany, was brought to Mercy hospital this week for treatment. For some time he has been cared for in a lonely cabin twenty-eight miles from Allegany. As he did not improve, it was finally decided to bring him to Allegany on a pack horse and then take him by boat to the hospital. Two friends brought him to Allegany, one walking on each side to hold him on the horse on the steep and narrow trail.

here yesterday en route to Wedderburn to look over the holdings. The company has not fully completed its plans for developing the property.

F. J. FENEY of Bandon was in Marshfield yesterday on business. He reports everything flourishing at the city by the sea.

THOMAS THORSON and wife and daughter, Blanche, of Isthmus Inlet will leave tonight for eastern Oregon where they expect to locate. P. A. SANDBERG will leave today for Portland on business. He may visit Spokane and other northern points before he returns to the Bay.

CAPT. N. J. CORNWALL of Gardiner passed through here yesterday en route home after spending a month with his family at Berkeley, Cal.

JAMES FALCONER and wife will leave tonight for a three weeks' stay in Portland. They will visit other northern points before they return to the Bay.

J. ALBERT MATSON and John Kronholm left this afternoon for south Coos River to see that the freshet does no damage to Mr. Matson's summer home, "The Nook."

MRS. F. E. WESTERBERG arrived here yesterday from Portland to join her husband who is arranging to open a five, ten and fifteen cent store in the O'Connell building.

DEL. BENGTON has returned from Bay Point where he has been working in the offices of the C. A. Smith Lumber company to take a position in the Coos Bay offices of the company.

C. M. WHEELER arrived here last evening from Portland via Drain. Mr. Wheeler is with the Warren Construction company which has charge of the bitulithic paving in the Northwest and will try to introduce it here.

MRS. O. N. WILSON and little daughter, Verla, of Sumner, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Barnard and other relatives and friends in Marshfield, returned home today.

S. W. SHOOK, who resides on the Ivy Condon ranch on North Coos River, was a Marshfield business visitor today. He says the river is rising rapidly as a result of the heavy rains.

CHAS. HUNTER came down from Isthmus Inlet today with his wife and son. The baby has not been well and he and Mrs. Hunter will remain in Marshfield. Mr. Hunter will resume his position at the Smith-Powers Logging camp.

FRED HARRIS and family will leave shortly for Portland and may return to their old home in Dallas, Tex., where Mr. Harris was assistant cashier of the City National Bank. Mr. Harris has made some extensive investments here and expects to return.

R. J. MONTGOMERY and wife and son returned last evening via Drain from Berkeley, Cal., where they have been spending a few weeks. Mr. Montgomery says that Coos Bay certainly looks good to him. His operation for appendicitis was a success and he is now in much better health than he has been in a long time.

E. C. PADDOCK returned yesterday from his holiday vacation in San Francisco. Mrs. Paddock will remain until February 14 to attend the marriage of her sister, Miss Gertrude Ryan, who weds a Mr. Michelson of the Southern Pacific railway. Miss Ryan will be remembered by many Coos Bay friends who met her when she visited Mrs. Paddock last summer.

MR. and MRS. C. J. HOWARD, and family arrived this week from Cottage Grove to make their future home on Coos Bay. Mr. Howard succeeds R. L. Finlayson as coast representative of J. A. Folger & Co., of San Francisco. Mr. Finlayson taking the interior territory. Mr. and Mrs. Howard are making their home for the present in the I. S. Smith flats on South Broadway. Mr. Howard expresses himself favorably impressed with Coos Bay and is already enrolled as a new member of the Booster club.

ARE WED IN EUGENE.

Miss Agnes Morgan and Ray Condon Married at J. D. Hamlin Home. A very pretty wedding took place at Eugene, Oregon, January 9, when Mr. Ray Condon and Miss Agnes Morgan were united in marriage. The ring ceremony was used, Rev. Neff officiating. The bride was prettily attired in blue silk. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. After the ceremony a sumptuous dinner was served at the home of Mr. J. D. Hamlin, Mr. Hamlin being an uncle of the groom and well-known on Coos Bay. The groom is a Portland man and the bride is a daughter of W. H. Morgan, a Coos Bay girl, her many Coos Bay friends here join with us in wishing them joy and happiness.
