

SAYS HUSBAND IS MODEL MAN

Young Matron Objects to Leap Year News—More Bachelors Entered.

"The Leap Year, girls, and don't forget, The privilege of the suffragette. With bashful, hesitating beaux, Pluck up your courage and propose, Until old Precedent's red tape, And let no guilty man escape, She who hesitates is lost, So land your man at any cost, If you have youth as well as beauty, The Leap Year cry is "Do your duty."

Say, Horace, dear, will you be mine? Of all mankind for you I pine, If he a happy year should wish you, And slyly try to dodge the issue, Just get a grip upon his coat, And put the question to a vote, If he votes "No" and you vote "Yes" Throw out no signal of distress, "Hip, hip, hurrah, it is a He— Bless be the He that blinds," you cry.

WOW! READ THIS.

The Leap Year Editor got a hard jolt this morning, almost a solar plexus and the only thing that prevented a knee-knocking was the belief that the first little pang of jealousy of some newlywed had prompted it. Here it is, the Leap Year Editor even being ignored in address:

Editor Times: "Won't you kindly stop printing this Leap Year stuff in your paper? I am getting tired of it and I think a lot of other people are. The idea of people being interested in such stuff.

"And then last night that advertisement you printed should not have been printed. No nice girl would advertise for a husband. And besides there is only one man on Coos Bay who could meet the requirements and he is my husband. He doesn't know it and I don't want him to and if you keep printing such things in your paper, he will. "So, kindly, discontinue it or I will have to stop your paper." Gee, what do you think of that? The letter was not signed so you will have to guess who the author was.

NEWCOMERS WANT IN.

Leap Year Editor: If you will give the newcomers a chance, I would like to submit the names of some very nice young men who recently arrived here, to be included in the Leap Year list. They are not as old as some of the bachelors you have been enumerating but it would be real nice if some Coos county girls would anchor them here as permanent residents. They are known as the Biltmore Forestry School bunch and include the following:

- Fred. Lamou. Albert Tardy, Jr. Geo. Thompson. Harry S. Walby. E. L. Segersten. Geo. McCaskey. Frank Heath. Chas. O. Marston.

—NEWCOMER.

ANSWERS "LONELY"

Leap Year Editor: Relative to the "want ad" that appeared in The Times yesterday, would offer the following:—I am a young man, a bachelor, of twenty-eight years of age, with a good education without undue hesitation that I am amiable and congenial—means that my wife could have her way nine times out of ten but that I'd put my foot down mighty hard

IS OUT OF GAME.

Leap Year Editor: I notice yesterday that the name of Sherman Gamble had been sent to you to be included in the list of eligibles. This is incorrect. It is too late. Mr. Gamble is out of the game. He has played hearts and won and will shortly receive his prize.

THE WIDOW.

KENTUCK INLET BACHELORS.

Leap Year Editor: I have not seen any names of the Kentucky Bachelors yet, and I am sure no place can boast of a better collection of them than can Kentucky Inlet, not only in quantity, but in quality as well. Their only drawback is that they are a little bashful—but Leap Year is supposed to correct that and they have waited patiently for it for three years. Here are some of them:

- E. P. Hellos. Jack Hagen. Gilbert Stanson. Ulysses Nay. Cyrus Klingston. Willie Gamble. Robert Lake. August Lappion. Ed. Hussey. Sherman Smith. Eric Anderson. Clarence Souris. Capt. Hansen. J. Smith. Otto Stephens. Herbert Stephens. Ole Evensen. Ole Knutsen.

—A READER.

FOUR OF A KIND.

Leap Year Editor: Somehow or other you have missed four of the most popular bachelors at the Smith mill and they don't like to be "missed" this way. Kindly include their names in the list of Leap Year eligibles. Their names are:

- Oris Albee. Geo. Parker. Wm. Ackley. Ed. Hayes.

—ONE OF 'EM.

LEAP YEAR POETRY.

Leap Year Editor: Here is a little poem for the bachelor girl.

Oh! maiden fair, do not despair, There is ample hope for you, Bide your time, await your chance, Catch the man, and wear the HIRAM SKIRT.

A PUNK PERFORMANCE.

Last Night's Attraction Proves to Be an Awful Agony.

It was a tramp show, all right, "The Millionaire Tramp" at the Masonic Opera House last night is said by those unfortunate enough to have been present to be the poorest, punkest and most putrid performance ever produced on the local stage.

The actors, spare the name, if they could be so called, tore tragedy to tatters, clawed comedy like a clam dagger and made melodrama a misfit. If they were acting in a contest for the largest lumber schomper in the world they wouldn't get a grain plank—no, not even a toothpick.

It was a harrowing and distressing performance. When one of the actors announced to the heroine that her "husband was dead," the heroine proceeded to a couch and wept, "My husband dead," while the audience groused and manifested more regret that any of those were left alive.

And the price was 75 cents. And the audience large. And all present were agreed that the Marshfield moving picture theater give a better show every night for 5 and 10 cents.

The audience breathed a sigh of relief when the agony was over. Manager Pratt is scarcely to be censured as it is difficult to get reliable advance information on many of these traveling aggregations of clam-diggers and hop-field canaries posing as actors, but it seems a shame that the amusement-loving people should be made the victims of such performances as that of last evening.

IT GROWS HAIR

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, in none of these cases were the hair roots dead, nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet requisite, is delicately perfumed, and will not gum or permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair, and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, Lockhart-Parsons Drug Co., "The Busy Corner."

Home Permanency vs. Home Monotony

This is a vital question for present day homebuilders—whether to have a home which in appearance must always remain the same or a home that will permit of a little refreshing occasionally. Neighborhoods change as do individual tastes—a frame house can easily be made to harmonize with its surroundings—a fresh coat of paint often will make it as good as your neighbor's new house—the same as a new suit makes you feel like a new man. At any rate a frame house is susceptible to most any change you might desire and while it is permanent it does not necessarily need become an eyesore or a monotony. There are lots of things we've observed about houses and lumber that you should know before building—come in and we'll give you our views.
