BORN.

BUCKINGHAM—To Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Buckingham, at their home in Ferndale, Monday, January 15, 1912, a baby daughter. Mother and child are doing well and the happy father says he has the finest leap year girl in the whole world and "My Lord, the Duke of Buckingham" was never half as proud as he is.

OUTTING—To Mr. and Mrs. Louis Outting at the A. H. Imhoff hospital in North Bend, Friday, January 12, 1912, an eleven pound son; Mother and child are doing well and the father who is a member of the Life Saving crew, is as proud of his first son as the Captain of an ocean liner when he gets his first commutation. They are receiving congratulations from their many friends.

Baby Dead.—The one day old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Crouch of Ten Mile, died today. The mother is getting along as well as could be expected.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening to take up various matters, including the proposed fill in South Marshfield by the Dredge Oregon.

Postpone Meeting.—Owing to the freshet which made it impossible for many of the members to be in attendance, the meeting of the Coos Bay Grange scheduled for last Saturday was postponed.

Is Better.—W. R. Foote, the aged slayer of Chas. Wilcox, who was released from jail by Sheriff Gage and placed in charge of a nurse in private quarters on account of illness, is reported much improved today, according to advises from Coquille.

Plan Ball.—Arrangements are being made for a grand midwinter ball in Eagles' hall Saturday night, February 3. The music will be furnished by a six-piece orchestra.

Are Engaged.—Friends of Don W. Griffin have been apprised of his engagement to Miss Marcia Morse of Portland, the wedding to take place early in May. The nuptials will be the culmination of quite a romance. A year or so ago, Mr. Griffin saved the life of his fiancée by rescuing her from drowning when she met with a boating accident on the Willamette river.

Will Lecture.—Geo. L. Carr, field secretary of the Oregon Out-to-win Prohibition movement, will give a lecture Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., at the Methodist Episcopal church. The subject will be "The Attitude of our National government to the Liquor Traffic." Mr. Carr is a business man and a forceful speaker and will show up some points of interest that the voters of Marshfield should know.

Ball Is Success.—The Leap Year ball given at the Eagle's hall Saturday evening was a decided success. About 125 couples were in attendance, the ladies giving an excellent demonstration of how they would do things if they always had the initiative in such matters. A few of them got slightly mixed in making up their programs but the crowd was a most congenial one and everyone enjoyed themselves immensely. The early hours of the evening were made especially entertaining by the activities of the ladies in filling out their programs. Many handsome gowns were in evidence.
