Chairs on Island Tranquil Today but Outbreak Is Feared in Province.

EXPECT DISTURBANCES IN RURAL DISTRICTS

Sec. Knox's Action Fails to Create Much Interest in Congress Today

(By Associated Press to Cooos Bay Times.)

HAVANA, Cuba, Jan. 17.—Absolute tranquility reigned in Havana today in spite of the shock of the announcement in the morning papers of the possible impending intervention by the United States in Cuban affairs.

OPPOSED TO PLAN.

Chairman Sulzer Wants to Let Cuba Settle Its Own Troubles.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 17.—The threatened intervention in Cuba does not stir much interest in the House today.

LOCAL OVERFLOW.

JOE DODGE of Allegany is visiting friends in Marshfield.

MRS. WM. FARRIN of Sumner is a Marshfield shopper today.

W. H. MORGAN of Daniels Creek is a Marshfield visitor today.

CHAS. ESTERBECK of Catching Inlet is in Marshfield today on business.

MRS. WM. MAGILL and son have returned to their home in Curry county after a short visit with her brother, Mar Dano.

W. MAHONEY left for his home in Washington today after a short visit with his sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Adams and Miss Mamie Mahoney.

MRS. M. E. HILDRETH and her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Murr of North Bend are in Marshfield shopping and visiting for the day.

Attacks Woman.—Yesterday afternoon, Chas. Blstrom while badly intoxicated attacked Mrs. Trollinger, well-known Marshfield colored woman, on North Front street.

EVENTS PREDICTED FOR EUROPE.

This year Mme. de Thebes, the celebrated French seeress, has been more than usual in issuing her annual and international horoscope.

War, which will wreck Europe and her continents as well. Assassinations. Total ruin of Paris. Downfall of the German emperor. Epidemics. Will destiny for England. Guillotines and bloodshed in Spain. Wars and misery elsewhere.

CONGRESS TO HAVE LONG SESSION

Not Likely to Adjourn Until August and May Interfere With National Conventions.

(By Associated Press to Cooos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 17.—The democratic and republican leaders of the House agreed today that there is little likelihood of Congress adjourning before August next.

FILES ACTION FOR DIVORCE

Rev. J. T. M. Knox Starts Suit at Coquille—Plan to Divide Property.

The petition of Rev. J. T. M. Knox of Marshfield asking for a divorce on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment was filed with County Clerk James Watson at Coquille yesterday.

It is understood that Rev. Knox and wife have about $15,000 or $20,000 worth of property. It is not unlikely that an effort will be made to amicably divide the property and terminate the case without a legal fight.

CUMMINS A CANDIDATE.

Iowa Senator to Seek Republican Presidential Nomination.

(By Associated Press to Cooos Bay Times.)

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 17.—Senator Albert B. Cummins will shortly announce himself as a candidate for the republican presidential nomination, according to a report persistent among his friends here today.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 17.—Senator Cummins today absolutely declined to discuss the reports that he was about to announce himself as a candidate for the republican nomination for president.

NORTH INLET RANCH IS SOLD

R. A. Church Pays, $18,500 For John Bear's 160-Acre Tract Today.

Negotiations were closed today for the sale of the John Bear ranch on North Inlet to R. A. Church for $18,500.

Mr. Church will take possession of the ranch at once and plans to convert it into a fine dairy ranch. He had been negotiating for a ranch on the Coquille but the deal for that fell through.

Mr. and Mrs. Bear, who have been living on the ranch for the past year, will return to Marshfield to make their home.

C. W. SANFORD PASSES AWAY

Well-Known Cooos Bay Pioneer Succumbs to Pleurisy and Heart Trouble.

C. W. Sanford, one of the best known pioneers of this section and a resident of the Pacific coast for fifty years, died at Mercy hospital today after a brief illness of pleurisy and heart trouble.

Mr. Sanford spent the greater part of the last half century in and around Marshfield. For some years he was proprietor of the old Western hotel here.

He was born in New York and was seventy years and three days old. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of the G. A. R.

He is survived by twenty grandchildren and one great-grandchild. His wife died about two years ago.

The surviving children are: Mrs. Maggie Bowron of Ten Mile, Miss Grace Sanford of Haynes Inlet, Mrs. C. A. Nollner of North Bend, Herman Sanford of Sumner, Ernest Sanford of Haynes Inlet, Mrs. Cora Sanford of Ashland, Oregon, Vivian Sanford of Catching Inlet, Mrs. Wm. Simpson of Haynes Inlet, and two step-children, Mrs. Laura Houser of Oakland, Cal., and Chas. Liggett of Ten Mile.

The time of holding the funeral will not be determined until all of the relatives are communicated with.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

Detective Franklin Denies McNamara Jury Bribery.

(By Associated Press to the Cooos Bay Times.)

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 17.—Setting at rest all rumors that he would throw himself on the mercy of the court, Bert H. Franklin, the former McNamara detective, accused of jury bribery, pleaded not guilty to the two charges filed against him. His trial was set for February 27. The pleas were entered after Judge Willis had denied a motion of Franklin's attorney to discuss the two informations lodged against the detective by W. Joseph Ford, assistant district attorney.

Delegates to National Convention Want to Merge All Miners' Organizations.

WOULD WIELD GREAT POLITICAL INFLUENCE

Gompers and Mitchell Are Denounced and Government Ownership Is Advocated.

(By Associated Press to Cooos Bay Times.)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 17.—

One great union of the coal and metal miners of the United States and Canada must be formed if the mine workers are to successfully combat mine corporations, declared Edward Young of Great Falls, Mont., representing the Western Federation of Miners in his address before the United Mine Workers of America today. He urged that the national coal miners' organization absorb the metal miners' union and said he believed the merger plan now going forward would be successful within a few years.

Gompers Is Scored.

A heated debate followed the reading of a resolution providing for the withdrawal of the Mine Workers from the American Federation of Labor and condemning the leadership of Samuel Gompers and John Mitchell, as "affiliated with that sleep producing agency, the National Civic Federation." It is not expected that a vote on the resolution will be reached until late in the day.

FOR GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP.

United Mine Workers Adopt Resolution Favoring It.

(By Associated Press to Cooos Bay Times.)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 17.—Government ownership of all industries was favored by the United Mine Workers of America, now in convention here, in a resolution adopted today. The resolution, which was presented by a Pennsylvania union, is as follows:

"Whereas, We consider it would be a benefit to the community at large, therefore, be it resolved, that this convention go on record favoring government ownership of all industries."

The resolution was backed by the socialists in the convention and a count showed practically no opposition among the 1,300 delegates. The result of the vote was greeted with cheers.

"After we have united on the industrial field we will unite on the political field and then the men who daily risk their lives in mining coal and metals, will get that which belongs to them," said McKennon.
