SOUTH SLOUGH PIRATE

TWO TO SERVE JAIL SENTENCE

W. Crouch and Chas. Blostrom Given 25 Days Each in County Bastile.

In charge of Constable Cox, W. Crouch and Chas. Blostrom were taken to Coquille this afternoon to serve sentences in the Coos county jail.

W. Crouch is the Haynes Inlet rancher who was arrested on charges filed by Fruit Inspector P. M. Hall-Lewis who alleged that Crouch had sold diseased fruit in boxes improperly marked. Crouch pleaded guilty. Owing to there being ten or more different offenses charged to Crouch, Justice Pennock imposed a fine of $50 or twenty-five days in the county jail after Crouch had entered a plea of guilty. Crouch said he would take the jail sentence.

Blostrom was arraigned on the charge of assaulting Mrs. Trollinger on North Front street the other day. He pleaded not guilty and declared he had no memory of even having seen the woman. Mrs. Trollinger was in court and told her story and Judge Pennock found Blostrom guilty and gave him the option of paying a $50 fine or spending twenty-five days in the county jail. Blostrom had no money. Blostrom is a barber and has been drinking heavily for several months. He was intoxicated when the offense occurred.

TO BUILD BOAT ON COOS BAY

Estabrook Company Places Order With Kruse & Banks For $115,000 Vessel.

Kruse and Banks, the North Bend shipbuilders, have just been advised that the Estabrook company of San Francisco have accepted their bid for the construction of a large steam schooner. The company submitted their figures a few months ago when Mr. Estabrook visited here.

This makes the second large contract the firm has secured in the past few weeks, the first being for a large steam lumber schooner for the Daventport company. These two contracts with the smaller work the firm has on hand will keep them busy for the next nine months.

It is expected that the Estabrook company will put the new boat on the Coos Bay-San Francisco run.

They are now operating boats between Bandon and San Francisco. The new boat will be 200 feet long, will have passenger accommodations for fifty people, and will carry lumber and general freight. The boat will cost about $150,000 complete, which will include the latest design of marine engines and boilers.

OREGON NAVAL MILITIA SUIT

Portland Man Attacks Right of Capt. Edgar Simpson as Head of Organization.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 18.—The right of E. M. Simpson to hold the commanding office in the Oregon Naval reserve will be the issue in the circuit court by a suit filed by George S. Shepherd. Both men claim title to the office by virtue of an election held December 9, 1911, in which Shepherd alleged he received 33 and Simpson received one vote.

An order was issued by the circuit court, upon the filing of the suit, directing Simpson to appear January 20 and show cause why he holds the office of captain. W. E. Finzer, adjutant general of the naval militia of the state, is declared to be in possession of the ballots cast at the December election, which ballots he is ordered to deliver into the custody of the court to be held pending the decision over the legality of the election.

It is charged in the complaint that Adjutant General Finzer instructed the inspectors of election to allow no one to vote except the officers, who number 10.

OLD STYLE CALENDAR ENDS FEBRUARY 17

Chinese for Last Time Plan Celebration of New Year's of Old Regime

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 18.—New Year's Day was given a belated celebration in Chinatown in accordance with the decree of the revolutionary government, which adopted the modern calendar too late to allow for festivities on January 1. While there was a considerable display of decorations and burning of punk, the Chinese are waiting for February 17.

Then the passing of the old-style calendar will be marked with the traditional 10 days of feasting, visiting, gift-making and religious observances, not forgetting the firecrackers. On that date also the merchants will wind up their yearly accounts and every Chinese will burn his canceled bills, so as to start the new year free of debt.

The February event will be the last celebrated under the old calendar, copies of which are already being bought up as souvenirs.
