

SOCIETY AND WOMAN'S WORLD

PERSONAL notices of visitors in the city, or of Coos Bay people who visit in other cities, together with notices of social affairs, are gladly received in the social department. Telephone 122. Notices of club meetings will be published and secretaries are kindly requested to furnish same.

And social affairs planned from those who would lend it. Quite minus unwelcome arrangement!

CONTRIBUTIONS concerning social happenings, intended for publication in the society department of The Times, must be submitted to the editor not later than 6 o'clock p. m., Friday of each week. (Exceptions will be allowed only in cases where events occur later than the time mentioned.)

younger girls of the church. 3. Bakers' Booth, in charge of Mrs. Saechl and Mrs. Bradfield. Small pots of baked beans, home-made bread, home-made rolls and various other baked dishes will be in evidence.

4. Dutch Booth, in charge of Mrs. Geo. Murch, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Otto Schetter and Miss Frances Williams. Quills and kitchen aprons will be on display here, and coffee and breakfast-cake will be served.

5. French booth, presided over by Mrs. DeWolfe, assisted by Mrs. S. C. S. and Mrs. C. K. Perry and Mrs. Elizabeth Lawlor.

6. Italian Booth, in charge of Mrs. A. Campbell, chairman, assisted by Mrs. P. A. Hazard and Miss Charlotte Marsh. Home-made pies and cakes will be sold at their wigwam.

7. Furniture Booth, under the stars, Mrs. Maud Reed and Miss Florence Alken.

8. Fishpond, under the rod of Mrs. R. K. Booth.

9. Baby-booth, in charge of Mrs. W. A. Toye, chairman, assisted by Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. F. E. Loeffe, Mrs. W. S. Turpen, Mrs. J. Albert Matson and Mrs. J. H. Flanagan. At this entertaining booth, articles of all kinds for baby use will be on sale.

10. Ticket Booth for dancing, in care of Miss Evelyn Anderson and Miss Agnes Hutcheson. At this booth, tickets may be procured for one or all of the five dances that will occur at intervals of the evening.

11. A musical program of three numbers, under direction of Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., will be given. 12. An amusing Pedlars' Parade made up of little children and under the supervision of Mrs. J. W. Bennett, will furnish an interesting event of the evening's program.

Besides this coming activity the society has been far from idle in the past. A cake sale held Saturday, January 13, at the Perry-Montgomery store netted an addition of twenty-four dollars to the treasury fund, and a tea Monday at the home of Mrs. J. T. Harrigan, at which tea, sandwiches and cake were sold at fifteen cents a plate, was equally successful on its smaller scale.

Mrs. Eugene O'Connell, assisted by Mrs. F. E. Hague and Mrs. F. E. Loeffe, entertained at a charming bridge luncheon Monday afternoon.

complimentary to Mrs. Henry Sengstacken and Mrs. J. T. McCormac. A delicious luncheon was served prior to the afternoon's entertainment of bridge, in which game Mrs. A. T. Haines and Mrs. E. G. Flanagan were fortunate in winning prizes. Among those present were Mrs. J. T. McCormac, Mrs. Henry Sengstacken, Mrs. J. Albert Matson, Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. H. G. Flanagan, Mrs. W. S. Turpen, Mrs. L. S. Harrington, Mrs. F. E. Loeffe, Mrs. W. T. Marchant, and Mrs. F. E. Loeffe.

The Progress club meets Monday, January 22, with Mrs. L. S. Harrington, at which time the subject of the day will be "Art in Decoration." 14. The year's term took place, presided, Mrs. Alva Bond; vice-president, Mrs. Lau a San (Dial); secretary, Mrs. Anderson; treasurer, Mrs. John Nangle. Another meeting will be held next week. The place as yet is undetermined.

On February 17, in the Eckhoff hall in North Bend, the Women of Woodcraft are planning to give a leap year dance which will be open to the public, the proceeds to be turned in to the Lodge Treasury. A committee has been appointed to take charge of the affair and attend to the details, composed of Elizabeth Babcock, chairman; Winifred Kern, Selma Simpson and Margaret Haines.

The Bridge club will be entertained Wednesday, January 24, by Mrs. J. Albert Matson at her home in West Marshfield.

F. F. Jennings and bride of North Bend returned this week from a honeymoon trip to San Francisco, Newberg, Oregon, and other points.

Miss Della Brouillard, soprano, and Mrs. C. H. Worrell, pianist, will give a recital at Eckhoff hall in North Bend next Tuesday evening, January 23.

The Altar Guild of St. Mary's Episcopal church of North Bend met at the home of Mrs. Lavinia Kinney Saturday afternoon. Among those present were Mrs. Cora Lennan, Mrs.

Achie Phillips, Miss Lena Krump, Annie Kinney, Miss Gertrude Margo and Mrs. George Everett. Miscellaneous business of the Guild was transacted. Plans are being carried out to hold a bazaar sometime after Easter.

Mrs. A. G. Alken will leave next week for San Francisco where she expects to spend a couple of weeks on business and pleasure.

Mrs. Henry Sengstacken and daughters, Misses Genevieve and Della will leave next week for San Francisco where they will visit friends. There they will be joined by Mrs. J. T. McCormac who is early this week overland for Orland, California, to visit awhile at the home of her daughter, Mrs. French. The four will then proceed to New Orleans.

The Leap Year Ball in the Eagles' Hall

Was a wonderfully fine recreation; 'Twas held by the hosts to quell the boasts

Of the masculine aggregation. Each hostess there found was exquisitely gowned

In a beautiful rainbow creation. Expressly designed the masculine mind

To induce to abject subjugation. The autos were rumbling and chauffeurs were grumbling,

As swiftly they flew to the dance. Bearing hostesses so wary her poor helpless quarry

To enrapture, bedazzle, entrance. There was laughter and dancing and music entrancing,

And punch that was quite beyond par. And the maidens and wives had the time of their lives

In the fun that such things always are. It was strange to behold the fair maidens so bold

As they filled up their programs, delighted. And the men looking mullish, awkward and foolish

With their hearts to rebellion incited. But the ball was O. K. and the ladies are gay

With the thought of their fine entertainment.

The Leap Year Ball was a huge success. It was unquestionably the most fun that the ladies at least, have ever been privileged to enjoy, and they all took royal advantage of every leap year prerogative that presented itself as desirable to their minds. It was certainly a great pleasure to see autos whisking about carrying guests and their fair escorts to the ball, to behold the patronizing, engaging little airs that each hostess assumed for the occasion as one would assume a becoming mask, and to watch their solicitous care that the programs and time of their partners showed no lack of attention or want of forethought. Place the credit where it is due and agree that the ladies of Marshfield have furnished as delightful a dance as ever the masculine aggregation has been able to display.

The patronesses of the dance were Mesdames J. T. McCormac, H. S. Tower, A. T. Haines, E. Mingus, C. W. Tower, Henry Sengstacken, Wm. Horsfall, Jr., J. S. Coke, and J. W. Bennett.

The Minnie-Wis Club held one of the nicest and pleasantest sessions of the year Thursday at the home of Mrs. Perkins in West Marshfield. The usual business matters came up for consideration and the newly-elected officers were installed: Mrs. E. Kelly, president; Mrs. Chas. LaChapelle, vice-president; Mrs. D. A. Jones, secretary-treasurer. The rest of the afternoon was spent at needlework and the usual good "cats" were served. Mrs. John Bashney and Mrs. Helen Baldwin were present as guests of the club. Mrs. Baldwin has invited the society to meet with her at the home of Mrs. Mary Thompson in South Marshfield, Thursday, February 1.

The Sisters of Bethany have for some time been busily planning ways and means by which to reimburse their treasury. To this end a bazaar is being prepared that will take place in the I. O. O. F. hall, the Friday evening before Ash Wednesday. Many delicate and beautiful booths are in point of making, to be presided over by the various ladies of the church and society. A committee on general arrangements, consisting of Mrs. Arthur McKeown, Mrs. E. Downing and Mrs. H. Nasburg, has assigned already to the different productions the person or persons most capable of successfully preparing them. The following is a list of the booths as they will be shown, and of the entertainments and diversions that will make the evening a pleasant one for pleasure-seekers as well as for patrons.

1. Japanese Booth, arranged by Mrs. Earl Downing, chairman, assisted by Miss Edna Stanley, and Mrs. Arthur McKeown. At this booth will be sold Japanese towelings, hanging baskets, fern dishes, trays, etc., and the appropriate refreshments of tea and sandwiches will be served.

2. Candy Booth, in charge of the younger girls of the church.

3. Bakers' Booth, in charge of Mrs. Saechl and Mrs. Bradfield. Small pots of baked beans, home-made bread, home-made rolls and various other baked dishes will be in evidence.

4. Dutch Booth, in charge of Mrs. Geo. Murch, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Otto Schetter and Miss Frances Williams. Quills and kitchen aprons will be on display here, and coffee and breakfast-cake will be served.

5. French booth, presided over by Mrs. DeWolfe, assisted by Mrs. S. C. S. and Mrs. C. K. Perry and Mrs. Elizabeth Lawlor.

6. Italian Booth, in charge of Mrs. A. Campbell, chairman, assisted by Mrs. P. A. Hazard and Miss Charlotte Marsh. Home-made pies and cakes will be sold at their wigwam.

7. Furniture Booth, under the stars, Mrs. Maud Reed and Miss Florence Alken.

8. Fishpond, under the rod of Mrs. R. K. Booth.

9. Baby-booth, in charge of Mrs. W. A. Toye, chairman, assisted by Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. F. E. Loeffe, Mrs. W. S. Turpen, Mrs. J. Albert Matson and Mrs. J. H. Flanagan. At this entertaining booth, articles of all kinds for baby use will be on sale.
