SCHOOL NOTES

HIGH SCHOOL.

The regular monthly meeting of the High School Literary Society was held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the assembly room of the High School. The debate was won by Carl Larson and Bessie Flanagan. A reading by Miss Silverman was very well given. A very interesting original story was read by Mary Price, a piano solo by Lucy Powers was well rendered. The next regular meeting will be held Thursday evening, February 15.

Most of the High School classes are reviewing for the semester examinations which will be given next week.

As outside reading in English the following books are being read by the various classes: Xmas Carol by Dickens, Ninth grade; The Tale of Two Cities, by the Tenth grade; The Vicar of Wakefield by the Eleventh grade, and any one from the following list, by the Twelfth grade: The Last of the Mohicans by Cooper, My Study Window by Lowell, Up From Slavery, Booker Washington, Making of an American, Jacob Reis; Hypatia, Kingsley.

Superintendent Tiedgen went to Bandon Friday where he gave an address before the Parent Teachers' Association Friday evening.

EIGHTH GRADE.

The following pupils were promoted this week from the Eighth grade to the High School: Herbert Bradley, Dorothy Horton, Stella Justrom, Festus Walter, Lydia Holm, Oliver Johnson, Elmer Johnson, Dora Brown and Alice Josephson. Conditioned promotions: Florence Rehfield, Freida Holm.

In an arithmetic test given this week in the B division Carl Back, Eva Hansen, William Horsfall and Nellie Warwick handed in good papers.

Mrs. Stadden conducted the Eighth grade examinations Thursday and Friday this week.

The pupils of this grade have been reviewing preparatory to semester examinations which will be given next week.

FIRST GRADE.

The regular monthly meeting of the primary teachers was held Monday evening in the Central school building, in Mrs. Pennock's room. The meeting was in charge of Miss Elmore. The work for the month was planned. At the close of this meeting the teachers planned to meet again on Thursday evening to plan the art work for the month. Patriotism is the subject for the month, the games, stories, etc., centering around this subject.

There was a number of cases of la grippe in the room this week. Those absent on account of it were Alton Kardell, Louise Conner, Niva Lakin and Bryan Knox.

Harry Wolf was tardy Thursday morning. Such subjects as "The Bear and the Rabbit," "The Wolf and the Hen," and others were given for original stories. Many and varied were the situations portrayed showing great imagination and interest. Some of the best ones were dramatized. Elizabeth Jones, Alton Kardell, Calista Walter, Frederic Hoaglund told very good ones.

SECOND AND THIRD GRADES.

Those absent because of sickness this week were: Ely Haines, Lorena Hoffman, Cecil LaChapelle.

Painting and drawing this week consisted of winter scenes and among those who did good work should be examined before sending them to school.

All Children's Eyes

A child's eyes are delicate things. Hence it is only by the rarest skill, are children eyes fitted with glasses, which are in accordance with their requirements. Years of experience enables me to guarantee satisfaction in such cases.

were: Helen Colgan, Arthur Johnson, Tharald Conner, Robert Sneddon, Wayne Gosney, Ruth Sandquist and Reuben Sandquist.

Construction work consisted of Esquimo scenes, Mother Goose Rhymes in paper cutting. The grades are also making a circus parade.

THIRD AND FOURTH GRADES.

The Third and Fourth grade pupils have greatly enjoyed drawing some of their Christmas toys this week. Some good specimens of toy automobiles and horns were produced.

The Third grade have just begun the puzzling work of multiplying with large numbers containing several ciphers.

In the spelling contest between the Third and Fourth grades, the Third grade is coming out ahead this week. Those writing the most perfect papers are: Beatrice Cerossen, Elwin Johnson, Walter Moore, Crongie Noble, Stella Magnus and Hannah Hagquist.

SIXTH AND SEVENTH GRADES.

Ethel Haynes and Bessie Sanquist of the Sixth grade have been absent this week, there have been no absences in the Seventh grade.

Zoe Dolan of the Seventh and Ruby Cooley of the Sixth grade won prizes in a word building contest on Friday afternoon.

Sixth and Seventh grades are reviewing the semester's work in preparation for the semester examinations which begin Monday, January 22.

CENTRAL SCHOOL NEWS.

For story work with the scissors the primary pupils are cutting Jack and the Snow Man.

Mrs. Painter was a visitor in the primary, Second and Sixth grades Thursday.

Gladys Ferry of the Fourth grade has been absent the past week on account of illness.

Edna Johnson is a new pupil in the Sixth grade.

Orrin Stadden is a newly registered pupil of the Fourth grade.

Lester Daly of the Fifth grade has been absent the last week suffering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Pearl Perkins of Minneapolis, John Hymer of San Francisco and Eugene, Stadden of Haines Inlet are new pupils in the Seventh grade.

The Seventh grade are reviewing in all subjects.

Geo. Watkins of the Seventh grade is again in school after a few days' absence on account of illness.

THIRD GRADE.

Clyde Lawhorne has returned to school after an absence of two months. This time he spent in California.

The pupils of the Third grade have finished learning a poem entitled "A Quarrel." This little piece of poetry makes the point clear that:

"Two it takes to make a quarrel, One can always end it."

Bessie Thomas and Stella Erickson have been on the sick list the past week.

All of the pupils are looking forward to February as a month rich in art work. They can use Washington's, Lincoln's, and Longfellow's birthdays and St. Valentine's Day as subjects.

NOTICE TO VETERANS.

Members of the G. A. R. are requested to meet at the Wilson Undertaking parlors at 1:30 Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral of late comrade, C. W. Sanford at the Marshfield Methodist church. Members of the Sons of Veterans will act as pall-bearers but the G. A. R. will escort the body to the grave.

S. B. CATHART,
 Post Commander.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

For the balance of the winter, there will be a boat at the O'Kelly landing that can be chartered day or night.

ELIGIBLES ARE NUMEROUS

SEVERAL ADDITIONAL LISTS OF BACHELORS FROM MANY POINTS IN OLD COGS—BUSY YEAR AHEAD FOR GIRLS.

COOS RIVER BACHELORS

Leap Year Editor:
 I wish to state that Coos River has a few good looking bachelors who would make good if given a fair chance.

Following is the list.
 John Ellison
 Bill Mannerling
 Frank Smith
 Jean Long
 Rufus Goodman
 Geo. Smith
 Ed. Hinkley

ONE OF THEM

HOW ABOUT IT, MR. MOODY?

Leap Year Editor:
 There's one bachelor, a regular blue ribbon, who has thus far escaped the Argus eyes of the Leap Year Editor and the Leap Year Maiden, that is Pickens M. Moody, of the Oregon Power Co. He has too many qualifications of a man who would make a good husband to be permitted to blush unseen. Print his name in letters of gold that the girls may get wise.

—ONE WHO KNOWS HIM

FERNDALE'S OFFERING.

Leap Year Editor:
 I have been wondering why some of the young men at Ferndale have not been included in your columns having been omitted in the first list. They are a most deserving lot of fellows, deserving, I mean, of better attention and appreciation, and also of a fair chance with all the proposing maidens and widows.

Allow me to mention a few of them:

John Helgenes.
 Frank Martin.
 Dan Dollinger.
 Lars, Larson.
 Albert Larson.
 Henry Larson.
 Andy Welsh.
 Chas. Johnson.
 Gust Witt.
 Elmer Larson.
 Big Allen.
 Hans Hagemester.
 John Johnson.

FAIR PLAY.

SOME MORE "SWENSKA POJKAR"

Editor Leap Year:
 When you mentioned the numerous "Svenska pojkar" at Bunker Hill that are "heart whole and fancy free" and really fine parties for anxious young ladies and beautiful widows to choose from, I was surprised to find that you had overlooked so many. Let me suggest the following to complete the list:

Edwin Erickson.
 Fred. Edlund.
 Oscar Erickson.
 Erik Edlund.
 Oscar Hedlund.
 Pete Erikson.

—BUNKERHILLER.

A COOS RIVER BACHELOR.

Dear Leap Year Editor:
 I am immensely interested in your Leap Year Column and feel that no truly desirable young man should be overlooked, since it is sure to be of mutual benefit if a young lady can be directed to a fine young fellow. And I know of no more industrious, pleasing and generally gratifying young man to mention than O. F. Anderson of Coos River. INTERESTED.

MORE IN MARSHFIELD.

Leap Year Editor:
 There are still some very fine young fellows in Marshfield that you have overlooked. Allow me to suggest the following:

E. Nelson.
 J. Martinsen.
 Al. Peterson.
 Tom Malse.
 Chris. Lee.
 Alfred Fiesburg.

OBSERVER.

A LEAP YEAR SUGGESTION FOR THE LADIES.

(The following communication was sent in. We make no comment.—Ed.)

Leap Year Editor:

Could we suggest ladies Dayton Roadsters as an aid in the pursuit of the elusive bachelor?
