Bradley, Frances Williams, Nora Tower, May Preuss and Mrs. Coleman are regular members of the club while Misses Edna Stanley, Agnes Carpenter, Charlotte Murch, Ruth Horton, Marjorie Cowan, Marie Maloney and Myrtle Cowan are special guests of the afternoon.

The dearest of children's parties was given Monday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Jennings at their North Bend home in honor of the eleventh birthday of their little daughter Mable. A drizzling rain kept the guests indoors but in spite of the wet weather a few jolly hours were spent in games and music. When refreshments were served a big birthday cake was on display, holding the eleven candles that marked Miss Mable's years. The little guests present were Misses Bessie Christianson, Mable and Gladys Crocker, Theresa Stein, Margrete Best and Doria Gubser.

The Sisters of Bethany spent a pleasant and practical afternoon sewing, embroidering and completing plans for the fair. Everything is now arranged, work is apportioned, and committees are in working order to produce in the many booths, one of the most successful displays on record. After a busy time of chat, Mrs. Bargelt, the hostess of the afternoon, served dainty refreshments. The society will be entertained Feb. 6 by Mrs. Geo. F. Murch.

A feature of the delightful dance given Monday night at Loggie Hall by the U. M. O. Club of North Bend was a surprise dinner tendered the married couples and chaperons by the young men of the club. The supper was as informal as it was delicious and made a very pleasing aftermath to the jolly dance. Messrs. Dennis Hull, Robt. Banks, Edgar Simpson, J. Hartman, B. McDade, John Olson, George Sheridan, John Mullen, C. J. Kinney and Fred Kruse were the hosts.

Mrs. E. Mingus entertained Monday at a delightfully informal bridge party at her pretty home in West Marshfield. Card trophies of the four tables were won by Mrs. G. A. Bennett and Mrs. Eugene O'Connell. Mrs. Mingus is entertaining at another small bridge party this afternoon.

The Progress club will meet Monday February 5 at the home of Mrs. John Lafon in West Marshfield. Mrs. Barry was to have been hostess, but owing to the imminent departure of Mrs. Lafon the program has been altered. The subject for Monday will be "Famous Women of the French Salon."

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church meets Wednesday Feb. 7, at 2 o'clock with Mrs. John Dashney, at her home on South Fifth St., for the customary sewing and conversation.

Miss Marjorie Cowan leaves today on the Breakwater for Portland and Eugene where she will continue her third-year course at the University of Oregon.

The Bridge club will be entertained Wednesday, Feb. 7, by Mrs. Wm. Ho. stall, Jr., at her home on Central avenue.

Mrs. F. K. Gettins has issued invitations for cards, Tuesday, Feb. 6.

Mrs. W. F. Miller has issued invitations for a large and elaborate Valentine party for February 14.

The Royal Neighbors and their friends were guests at a social evening given Tuesday in the Finnish Hall in their honor by the Modern Woodmen of America. A program had been arranged, a feature of which was the floor work of the Lodge to the music furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Ellerbeck. The program included recitations by Miss Mable Craig and Mrs. Kelley, solos by Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. E. W. Smith, a musical trio by Mrs. Soubret and Misses Nelson and Larson and the excellent floor work. A supper was served at the conclusion of the program.

Miss Alice Tickell arrived here from Portland this week to visit her sister, Mrs. G. LeRoy Hall. She will spend some time here and at Coquille.

The North Bend Knights of Pythias will tender a reception and social at their hall February 12 complimentary to the wives and sweethearts of the members.

The boys of the I. O. U. dancing club gave another delightful dancing party at Loggie's hall, North Bend, Friday evening. About seventy-five people were present and had a jolly time dancing to the excellent music. Mrs. A. L. Davis, Mrs. E. Langenberg, Mrs. L. Falkenstein and Mrs. P. Reberg acted as patronesses. Among those present were Misses Vesta McCullough, Frances Golden, Esther Imhoff, Edith Horn, Edith Thomas, Elizabeth Hoelling, Otilla Hoelling, Rose Pulley, Dorothy Kibbler, Bernice Hickey, Mrs. Frank Frame, Misses Jeanette Barrett, Inez Anderson, Louise Lillebo, Amelia Lillebo, Lola Ritchie, Nora Hage, Amy Reynolds, Maude Crosby, Marjorie Swearinger, Messrs. Glen Grout, Clarence Kibbler, Fred Reynolds, Marion Reynolds, Frank Muskas, Wm. Davis, Lloyd Huntley, Robt. McLaughlin, Wm. Reed, Herbert Morton, John Sheppard, Will Davis, Percy Phillips, Peter Reberg, Joe Windsor, Chas. Gauntlett, August Hoelling, Lyle Chapelle, Geo. Dewey, Connie McDade, A. Marston, Warren Murphy, McLeod, Lee Craven, Fred Kruse, L. Falkenstein, Arthur Chase and Edward Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Getting, who have been spending some time recently in North Bend, left yesterday to resume their residence at the Light-house on the Slu-slaw.

Orrin Pratt, a graduate of the Blinnore Forestry School and a recent employee of a Eureka business firm, has returned to Coos Bay to accept a position in the C. A. Smith Lumber Company.

Mrs. Edward Langenberg, a sister of Miss Esther Imhoff of North Bend, will leave about the last of the month for her home in Vancouver, Wash.

Miss Grace Kruse who is making a short visit in San Francisco is expected home in a week or two.

Miss Mary Kruse is issuing invitations to a number of young people of the High School set for a Valentine party February 14 at her pretty home in West Marshfield.

The Eagles' Hall, Saturday night, February 10, will be the scene of a delightful dancing party at which Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tower and Miss Nora Tower will entertain.

One of the cleverest entertainments for some time was given last Thursday evening by the Christian Endeavor of the North Bend Presbyterian church, in the form of a Chinese Tea. The church parlors were elaborately decorated for the event in all manner of strange mattings and curios that transformed them into a veritable Chinese Tea room. No chairs were allowed, the guests being compelled to sit, Oriental fashion, upon the mats and cushions that strewed the floor. Quaint Chinese games were played to while away the evening and the climax was capped when the characteristic refreshments of rice and milk, tea and flat cakes, were daintily served by little maidens gowned in the flowing Oriental robes. In the games, prizes were awarded the youth who had the longest finger-nails and the maiden who possessed the tiniest feet. In these truly Chinese requirements, Marion Reynolds and Miss Norma Chase were awarded the well-won honors.

Among those present at the pleasant entertainment were Mrs. Geo. Hazer, Mrs. Edward Langenberg and Misses Josephine Griffin, Hendry, Alice Watters, Dorothy Kibbler, Frances Golden, Naomi Smith, Esther Imhoff, Marian Hevener, Vesta McCullough, Norma Chase, June Young, Bessie Immel, Alice Carlson, Amy Reynolds, Mildred Rood, Alpha Wicklund and Lillian McCann, Rev. D. A. MacLeod, Messrs. Lyle Chapelle, Harry Conro, Marion Reynolds, Fred Reynolds, Oscar Carlson, Herbert Morton, Glen Grout, Clyde Smith, J. Hisey, Wm. Wood, Clarence Covey, Walter MacLeod, Chas. Peterson and Clarence Kibbler.

The following musical program was given by the choir of the Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday evening, and a free will offering was taken at its close for the benefit of the families left destitute by the North Star disaster:

I Know that My Redeemer Liveth.
 Blessed is He.
 Behold I Stand at the Door.
 Magnify the Lord.
 The Christ is Come.
 The Beautiful City of God.
 He Will Have Mercy.
 Praise God From Whom all Blessings Flow.
 Benediction.

The numbers were excellently rendered and were equally gratefully appreciated, as was proven by the generous collection taken. A substantial aid was given the Relief Fund thru these efforts of the choir and director, Mr. F. A. Sacchi, who has given so much valuable time and thoughtful care to this matter. Under the direction of Mr. Sacchi the choir has reached a high degree of musical prowess, with the result that the selections given Wednesday were exceedingly pleasant to hear and indicate excellent training and practice. The members of the choir are:

Tenor—Frank Sumner, Mr. Isaacson, Clay Church, Frank Howe.
 Soprano—Ruth Allen, Mrs. Cooley, Mrs. Howard Savage, Mary Hansen, Mrs. P. Birch.
 Alto—Mrs. Irish, Evelyn Langworthy.
 Bass—Mr. Grannis, Milo Sumner, Leslie Isaacson, Dr. Winkler, F. C. Birch, Mr. Hunt.

Mrs. Harry Nasburg gave a little quilting party yesterday afternoon at which several ladies of the Episcopal church were present.

Invitations have been issued by Miss Hazel Merriman and Miss Evelyn Langworthy for a Valentine party, Feb. 14.

Miss Mary Clarke today received particulars of the marriage of her sister, Miss Theresa Clarke, to Dennis McCarthy at St. Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco last Monday morning at 8 o'clock. The news of the wedding will come as a surprise to the host of friends of the couple on Coos Bay. Although there were intimations of the nuptials when Mr. Mc-Carthy left for California last week soon after Miss Clarke went to San Francisco, none of their friends were sure of it. Mr. McCarthy is head timber cruiser for the Coos County Commissioners and is one of the most highly respected men in this section. His bride has been engaged in the millinery business here with her sister and their many friends will unite in wishing them all the happiness that the future can bring. After a six weeks' honeymoon trip through California, they will return to Marshfield to make their home. The cathedral in which they were wed was the one that the mother of the bride attended services in for years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Kammerer are moving from their Railroad Addition house to the place formerly occupied by R. M. Jennings and wife in West Marshfield.

The Ladies of St. Monica's Catholic Church were entertained last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Blanchfield in South Marshfield. They will meet with her again next Wednesday afternoon.

The Young People's Society of the Swedish Lutheran Church met for ordinary business last evening in the church. The election of officers was postponed until next meeting.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will be entertained next Wednesday by Mrs. E. W. Lewis and Mrs. Peter Clausen at the Clausen home in South Marshfield. The society meets on the first Wednesday of every month for an afternoon of business and pleasure.

A Midwinter Ball is to be given this evening at the Eagles' hall by Mr. Toelle and his orchestra of North Bend, the proceeds of which are in-swell the Relief Fund for those who were widowed and orphaned by the North Star wreck. It is hoped that all will attend and that as large a purse as possible will be raised for their benefit.

After a short business meeting, the Young People's Society of the Baptist church, meeting Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Harrington, proceeded to devote the rest of the evening to fun and frolic. Games of all kinds were started and the lively evening furnished a great deal of pleasure to all who were so fortunate as to attend. Recitations were given by Miss Frances Franse and Mrs. E. E. Kelly that were delightful in mood and expression. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Alpha Mauzey. Among those present were Misses Uma and Isis Marsh, Alpha Mauzey, Clara Rehfield, Frances Franse, Ruth Matthews, Belva Flangan, Emma Quatermass, Anna Downs, Helen McLaughlin, Cora Dye, Edna Craig, Randa-
