AMERICAN DRESS.

MRS. ANNE WARWICK, the novelist, has incurred the displeasure of several American women by her recent assertion that they do not dress with individuality, and do not dare to be themselves.

Possibly what the French woman gains by bizarre effects, the American reaches by less spectacular methods, in dainty touches and a refined elegance which does not require the more obvious of conspicuity.

FEBRUARY REPLETE WITH IMPORTANT DATES.

FEBRUARY, the shortest month of 1912, will be replete with important dates and anniversaries.

The second day of the month will be Candlemas, or groundhog or bear or woodchuck day, as you will, when either or all of these animals will come out of their winter's hiding place and tell or not tell us what are the prospects for an early or late spring.

The 90th anniversary of the birth of the immortal Lincoln comes on the 12th. The 14th is St. Valentine's day, the 21st Ash Wednesday, or the first day of Lent, and the 22d the anniversary of the birth of the father of his country.

BIG BOND IS FILED

MILLIONAIRE BACHELOR HOLDS POOR OPINION OF NEW YORK'S WOMEN

SAN FRANCISCO Cal., Feb. 2 — Colonel Edward Howland Robinson Green, of Texas, son of Hetty Green, of Wall Street, arrived here recently, heralded as a man who wants to "marry a woman not a clothes horse."

"New York women do not seem to know the real meaning of matrimony," he declared. "They marry for a home and live out of it. Children are the last thing they want. None of them know how to cook or sew. And, holy horrors! They would deny that their good, old homely grandmothers knew how to wash clothes."

"If a fashionable New York woman went 14 Fifth avenue with a ring in her nose rings fast enough to supply the demand. They want to peacock around theaters and restaurants so as to be seen by men not their husbands."

MARRIAGE LICENSES

The following marriage licenses were issued by County Clerk Watson during the past week:

OBITUARY.

Emil Ogren was born at Eastport, Coos County Oregon in 1878 and died January 30, 1912, at Coquille City. He was 34 years, seven months and one day old.

He was brought up and spent practically all his life in Coos County, with exception of a short time that he was engaged in the stock business in Arizona. He was married in San Francisco, September 18, 1902, to Miss Margaret Fox, who was also born and brought up in Coos County, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fox.

In Mr. Ogren's death, Coquille and Coos County loses a valuable citizen whose honest, rugged qualities had won him the friendship and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. This was attested by the large attendance at the funeral in Marshfield, Thursday, when old friends and neighbors came from all points of the Coquille valley and from the Ten Mile section to pay their last respects to him.

He left a wife and two little children well provided for, having $4000 insurance in addition to his other property. Mrs. Ogren and the children will make their future home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fox, at Bandon.

WAS SHOCK TO CORVALLIS

Funeral of Father of Mrs. C. F. McKnight of Marshfield Held There

The Corvallis Republican has the following concerning the demise of John A. Spangler, father of Mrs. C. F. McKnight of Marshfield:

"The funeral services of the late John Spangler, who died suddenly of heart paralysis was held at the residence, 344 N. Sixth street, Thursday at 2 p. m. Dr. J. R. N. Bell conducted the service. The interment was in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery and was conducted by Barnum Lodge No. 7, I. O. O. F., of which the deceased had long been a member.

"Mr. Spangler's death came as a shock to the community as he had always possessed apparent good health, and was seldom in need of medical attendance. The possession of a weak heart was not known even to himself.

"John A. Spangler was a native son of California, born March 11, 1853. While yet a small boy he came to Oregon with his parents and located at Albany, where he grew to manhood. He early became interested in the printers' trade and mastered that calling in the Albany shops. His musical talent also developed early and all his life he was devoted to the cornet and clarinet giving much time and attention to band and orchestra work and private teaching of his favorite instruments.

He was married to Miss Jennie Luper, of Albany, and soon after removed to Independence where he was connected with a local newspaper. A few years later he removed to Corvallis. For some time he was employed as engineer in the Benton County Flouring mills and later was connected with the Oregon Agricultural College as an electrician. This position he continued to fill through the remainder of his active life.

"His three children are: Mrs. L. L. Porter of Oregon City; M. L. Spangler, of San Francisco, and Mrs. C. F. McKnight of Marshfield. The wife and mother died about four years ago."

BRIDE GETS "COLD FEET"

Marriage License, Unused, is Returned to Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 1.—A marriage license issued to Avan Gler Dow and Miss Edna Buley by the Clark County Clerk was returned. Mr. Dow and his prospective bride live in Portland. When the license was applied for, Mr. Dow had difficulty in raising the $4 fee.

To the license received at the Clerk's office the following note was attached:

"The lady got cold feet and Mr. Dow, after scratching up his nickel for the license, failed to have courage to ask a minister to join him in matrimony—with father 106 miles away."

The Clark County official is still in possession of the $4 belonging to Mr. Dow, which the latter paid for the license.

Home Permanency vs. Home Monotony

This is a vital question for present day homebuilders—whether to have a house which in appearance must always remain the same or a house that will permit of a little refreshing occasional change as do individual tastes—a frame house easily be made to harmonize with its surroundings—a fresh coat of paint often will make it as good as your neighbor's new house—the same as a new suit makes you feel like a new man. At any rate a frame house is susceptible to most any change you might desire and while it is permanent it does not necessarily need become an eyesore or a monotony. There are lots of things we've observed about houses and lumber that you should know before building—come in and we'll give you our views.
