BORN.

SWANTON—To Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Swanton at their home in Marshfield, Monday, February 12, a daughter. Although she arrived a few days ahead of St. Valentine's day, Mr. Swanton says she is the finest valentine that will be received on Coos Bay.

In Business Here—W. A. Reid, a son-in-law of C. A. Sehlbrod, is arranging to engage in the real estate business here and will shortly open offices in the Coke building.

Will Leave Soon—Wesley Smith, until recently Sunday school superintendent in the Baptist church and one of its most active members, has accepted an appointment to become Sunday school colporteur for the American Sunday School Union. He is appointed to Hillsboro, Ore., and will shortly leave for that city.

Torrey to Run—O. S. Torrey, a well-known Marshfield resident, has decided to become a candidate for Justice of the Peace and is preparing his nominating petitions. He is a Republican and his candidacy makes two aspirants for the office, the other being the present incumbent, Justice Pennock.

Wed Tomorrow—A Portland paper says "Miss Helen Doble and Claude Nasburg have decided upon Wednesday, February 14, as the date of their wedding, which will be celebrated at high noon in St. Mark's Episcopal church. Mrs. Grant Mays of The Dalles is to be Miss Doble's matron of honor, and Harry Butler of San Francisco, a college mate and fraternity brother of Mr. Nasburg, will be best man. A wedding breakfast will be served to a few friends at the Hotel Multnomah.

Installation of Officers—The Suomi Society last night installed its officers, the first to be elected since the consolidation with the "Knights of Finland."

Filling Broadway—The dredge Oregon has now been placed in the channel a little north of the Mill Slough and started to jump into the fill of South Broadway this afternoon. The shore crew found some difficulty in keeping up the retaining walls and bulkheads at first, but overcame the troubles by some hard, persistent work.

Is Improving—W. S. Chandler, who has been laid up for a few weeks with stomach trouble, is now rapidly improving, much to the gratification of his many friends on the bay who were more or less alarmed over his condition a week ago. It is hoped that he will soon be able to be up and around and will probably leave with Mrs. Chandler for California to recuperate as soon as he is able.

EXTEND CALL TO REV. FRISK

Marshfield Swedish Lutheran Congregation Selects Pastor Now at Seattle.

Rev. C. E. Frisk of Seattle, Wash., was the unanimous choice for pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church at the meeting last evening, and he will be called to come here at once. The church in North Bend will doubtless act in unison with the Marshfield organization, a meeting being held this evening for the purpose of deciding.

Rev. Frisk is a popular and successful preacher and is at present moderator for the Columbia Conference of the Augustana Synod. He has made several visits to this city and knows the field, and it is the hope of all that he will be ready to accept the invitation to take charge of this parish.
