BORN.
HIGLEY—To Mr. and Mrs. O. Higley, at their home in Porter, Friday, February 16, a nine-pound girl. Mother and child are doing nicely. Mr. Higley has charge of the yard department of the sash and door factory.

PAINTER—To Mr. and Mrs. Warren Painter, at their home in North Bend, Friday, February 16, a ten-pound son. Mr. Painter is agent for the Alliance at North Bend and the young couple's many friends will hasten to extend congratulations over the arrival of their second child.

New Restaurant—The Gem Waffle Kitchen, at 627 North Front street, opened for business this morning and will serve regular meals every day hereafter. O. C. Smith is proprietor, assisted by Mrs. Meecher.

Gets Umbrella—Mrs. J. T. Hall has recovered a $10 gold-handled umbrella as a result of a "want ad" in The Times. She valued it highly as a present and is elated over its recovery.

Boys Bother—Some small boys are charged with entering the A. P. Owens residence property on West Eleventh street and doing some damage. Marshal Carter is trying to round up a number of lads who are charged with various offenses.

High School Vacation—In order to enable the Marshfield High School teachers to visit the North Bend High School, the high school today is taking a vacation. It is the general custom to have the teachers visit other schools and get in touch with the work as conducted in them.

Raise Money—J. W. Bennett, E. S. Smith and Hugh McLain, the special committee of the Chamber of Commerce appointed to raise $250, Coos Bay's assessments towards the maintenance of the Rivers and Harbors Congress, yesterday raised $185 of the amount.

discovered, going to the Odd Fellows' Hall where they were assisting in decorating for the bazaar. Mr. Dennis estimates the damage at from $150 to $200. It is fully covered by insurance.

In New Business—F. A. Sandberg, formerly City Engineer, has taken a position as the Coos Bay representative of the Warren Construction company, which is planning to compete for the paving in Marshfield this year. They put in the bithulthic paving.

Opens Office—R. J. Montgomery is arranging to open a real estate office on Front street near Central avenue. His long familiarity with Coos Bay real estate is sure to win him the success which his many friends will wish him in the new business.

Oppose Plan—Chas. Hickox and others are circulating petitions remonstrating against the proposed closing of Mill Slough which is being petitioned for by others. One of the remonstrances is to be signed by property owners directly affected and the other by the general public.

New Boat—Ned Galloway, who operates the launch North Star between here and Ten Mile is having a large freighter built for handling the increasing freight traffic on the run. The boat will carry about 20 tons and will be equipped with an eight horsepower engine and will have a cabin.

Seek Dingman—Constable Cox has requested Sheriff Gage to assist in locating Wm. Dingman of North Bend who is wanted on a statutory charge, the victim being his 15-year-old cousin who had been keeping house for him since the death of Mrs. Dingman. He has not been seen in North Bend for several days and the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, made complaint to Justice Pennock. Dingman's three children are with relatives at Looking Glass, Douglas county.

Is Democrat—Through a misunderstanding, it was stated yesterday that Walter Richardson would be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Constable in this district. It should have stated that he was seeking the Democratic nomination. Mr. Richardson has always been a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat and objects to the intimation that he has changed his politics.

Adjust Trouble—Yesterday J. C. Kendall, in behalf of some outside creditors, attached the cigar store of T. L. Batchelor on North Front street. His claims amounted to $106 without a $25 attorney fee. Mrs. C. A. Howard showed that she had a mortgage on the property and the attachment proceedings were dropped this morning when Mrs. Howard paid the $6.25 costs. Mr. Batchelor is now arranging to straighten matters out.

Farewell Party—At the Baptist Church this evening a farewell reception was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smith and Mrs. Wm. Greene and son, Roy. Mr. Smith will leave tomorrow for Eastern Oregon to take up his new position as colporter of the Baptist Church and his family will soon join him there.

Fire Last Night—Fire starting from a defective flue caused slight damage at the home of Mrs. M. J. Elrod last evening. The fire was discovered by Matt Stenholm, who promptly turned in the alarm and the Fire Department's prompt response and effective work extinguished the blaze before it had done much damage. Mrs. Elrod is in San Francisco and Frank Denning and wife have been staying there during her absence. They left the house about 30 minutes before the fire was discovered, going to the Odd Fellows' Hall where they were assisting in decorating for the bazaar. Mr. Dennis estimates the damage at from $150 to $200. It is fully covered by insurance.

Bazaar in Progress—The bazaar which is being given by the Sisters of Bethany opened at the Oddfellows Hall this afternoon with a good attendance despite the unfavorable weather. The bazaar will close this evening and there promises to be a large turnout as arrangements have been made for an unusually enjoyable affair.

Plan Boat—Capt. J. J. Reynolds, who operated a cannery here the past season and who is connected with the Barnes Salmon Canning Company of Portland, arrived here today on business. His company is figuring on building a large gasoline schooner for their trade and it is understood that his visit here is in connection with the construction of the new vessel.

To Hospital—Judge John F. Hall today ordered Mrs. Maggie Quatermass committed to the State Hospital at Salem. She has been suffering from melancholia and her condition became such that Mr. Quatermass and the family could no longer protect her against possibly becoming a victim of her strange hallucinations. The case is a very pathetic one.
