DON'T WEAR A TRUSS

That will not sit comfortably, no matter what it costs, it will do you more harm than good. A truss that won't stay in its place under all conditions you can get your body into should be thrown away at once. It can never be depended upon and is sure to fail you at a critical moment. We sell a truss at $2.00 that we guarantee under all conditions to positively retain the most complicated form of rupture painlessly. This truss is neither clumsy nor uncomfortable about the body, and wears well. ALL FITTING IS DONE BY AN EXPERT and our stock is most complete in every surgical requisite.

THE WEIGHT OF A PIECE OF MEAT

Isn't always an indication of its usefulness. It is with ours, however, for every ounce can be eaten with enjoyment. When you buy meat here you get all meat, not a lot of bone, gristle or fat. Try a roast for Sunday. You'll see every bit of it eaten, not an ounce of it goes to waste. That's real economy.

BORN.

JOHNSON—To Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Johnson at their home on North Fourth street, Tuesday, February 20, a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Picnic Thursday—The Marshfield High School students are arranging for a picnic excursion to the government works Thursday if the weather will permit. Thursday is Washington's birthday and will be observed as a holiday in the schools.

Mother Dead—Mrs. R. H. Perkins today received a telegram from Stillwater, Minnesota, announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. Olson, at that place. Owing to the distance, it is not likely that Mrs. Perkins will be able to attend the funeral.

Son is Born—Cards have been received in Marshfield announcing the birth of a ten and a half pound boy to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Duke in Portland, Thursday, February fifteenth. Mrs. Duke was formerly Miss Emily Wall of this city.

Storm Delays Redondo—The Redondo crossed in about 2 o'clock this afternoon from San Francisco, having been delayed about twelve hours by the northwest wind that she had to buck all the way up the coast. She will reach Marshfield late this afternoon.

Sweaters Arrive—The fifteen sweaters for the members of Marshfield High School team have arrived and will be awarded soon. They are blue with the large collars and will have a yellow "M." Part of the cost of them was defrayed out of the $60 netted from the senior class play.

Somers' New Project—It is reported that J. H. Somers, who formerly resided in Marshfield and who started to promote a number of projects here, is said to be starting the promotion of a railroad from Grants Pass to Coos Bay. He and an engineer named Morgan, from San Francisco, are said to be going over the route now.

Yield Great—Instead of forty tons per acre, Nick Bastendorf, who brought in a forty-pound rutabaga for exhibition at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, secured seventy tons off an acre of turnips. Tom Coke says that Mr. Bastendorf's field of turnips was one of the finest he ever saw anywhere.

Seeks Son—Marshal Carter has received a letter from Mrs. Josie Boland of Lents, Oregon, asking him to try to locate her son, Roy Boland, who is mysteriously missing. She thinks he might have been "shanghaied." He is nineteen years old, six feet tall, fair complexion and blue eyes.

May Open Street—It is reported that E. G. Penham, who recently purchased the eighty-acre tract north of West Marshfield, is planning to have Tenth or Eleventh street opened through the tract. This will make a direct thoroughfare to North Bend as soon as Sherman avenue is completed and will open up a large new residence section.

Slide Delays Mail—No newspaper mail was received today from Roseburg as a result of another big landslide in the canyon about a mile from Laird's yesterday. The letter mail was brought in this morning, having been packed through by the carriers over the worst stretch of the road. This is the second big slide in that vicinity within a few days. It is expected that the paper mail will be brought through tonight or tomorrow.

Found Lost Garment—Miss Mary Hansen of the Coos Bay Home Telephone Co. is the latest addition to adherents to Times want ads. Night before last she lost a gray sweater. Last night she inserted a three-line want adv. in The Times. Before Miss Hansen was at her desk in the telephone office the sweater was waiting for her at The Times office. The garment had been found by Mrs. Peter Scott, Jr., who read the notice in The Times want ads and promptly brought it to its office and it was returned to its owner. The Times want ads get results.

Appeal Case—J. H. Barbour of Los Angeles has appealed his case against the Merchant Land Company. He is seeking to establish a claim to a one-third interest in Railroad addition on the ground that he was one of R. A. Graham's partners when Graham was building the local railway several years ago and dickering in Coos Bay real estate. The claim which Mr. Barbour is trying to establish would possibly affect the titles of all the property in Railroad addition. Mr. Barbour and Mr. Bennett some time ago offered to relinquish their claim to the various lots on the payment of $10 or so per lot, but J. C. Merchant, manager of the Merchant estate, stated the estate would stand behind the people who owned the property and fight the case. In the lower courts, Barbour lost.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The Breakwater sails from Portland this evening for Coos Bay and should reach here early Thursday.

It is announced that Capt. Edgar Simpson will command the A. M. Simpson on her initial trip from North Bend to San Francisco instead of Capt. Bendergard.

The Alliance is due in here late tomorrow or early Thursday morning from San Francisco and will sail Thursday at 1 o'clock for Portland. The Redondo, which arrived in late this afternoon from San Francisco, will sail from here Friday afternoon for San Francisco.

H. M. Barnes, who was arrested last week for violating the North Bend vehicle ordinance by teaming without a license, was found not guilty by a jury in City Recorder Derbyshire's court yesterday. It seems that the evidence that Barnes was the proprietor of the vehicle that was alleged to have been responsible for the offense was not definite. Barnes was arrested and punished some months ago for teaming without a license.

While there he issued an order permitting the Haskins youth, recently convicted of contributing to the delinquency of a minor at Coquille, to leave the state without his bond being forfeited, the bond being still good for his continued behavior.

JAS. WATSON, the Coos County Clerk, came over from Coquille last evening on business and pleasure. It is understood that Mr. Watson will be a candidate for renomination and re-election and so far as known he will have no opposition for the Republican nomination. As yet, the Democrats have not brought out any candidate against him.

CAPT. W. C. HARRIS of Sumner, who was a Marshfield business visitor yesterday, reports that the Larson dredge Oregon is making good progress on the improvement of the upper portion of Catching Inlet. The proposed cutoff may be impeded owing to J. S. Masters asking $150 for right-of-way. The Southern Oregon company has contributed the right-of-way through

NOT ALLOWED TO INTERVENE

Rood and Marsden Not Permitted to Enter Election Contest Suit.

Judge John S. Coke today handed down a decision that D. L. Rood and Robert Marsden, Sr., could not intervene in the election contest case of R. A. Copple vs. E. E. Straw, involving the mayoralty of Marshfield. Judge Coke pointed out that the statutes governing election contests absolutely forbid any parties other than the contesting candidates being parties to an election contest.

The attorneys for Mayor Straw have filed a demurrer to the petition of Mr. Copple. This, which alleges among other things that the city council alone has jurisdiction over the qualifications of city officials, will be argued before Judge Coke tomorrow.

Other Cases Decided.

Judge Coke also denied a new trial in the case of Willey and Schroeder vs. J. T. Herrett.

In the case of East Marshfield vs. J. W. Gardner, Judge Coke gave judgment and decree in favor of the plaintiff.

J. W. GARDNER of North Bend was in Marshfield today on business. He reports that the owners of the North Bend property which the Southern Pacific has been negotiating for as right-of-way property are anxiously awaiting the answer of the company to the prices fixed. Some consider the prices reasonable, while others claim they are high.

RECEIVES SHOCK.

Fred M. Stora, timekeeper at McDonald and Vaughan Camp, on Daniel's creek, received a shock while repairing the telephone line which he will remember for some time. He took hold of the broken wire with both hands just as some one rang for central. The current was so strong he could not move or let go of the wire until the party on the line stopped ringing.

ONE POETIC CANDIDATE

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 20.—Herman Wise of Astoria, Ore., is a poetical Democrat. He is a candidate for delegate to his party's national convention, and says if he is elected he will hustle for:
 "More wool in woolen garments.
 More leather in our shoes,
 And on our bread more butter,
 Less tax on what we use.
 More Democrats, good trust laws,
 Less promises, more deeds,
 I want to go to Baltimore,
 To argue for these needs."
