Lent Begins—Today is Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent. Special services were held at the Episcopal and Catholic Churches in Marshfield this morning.

Kill Wildcats—Glen Rozelle and Walter Oldland yesterday killed two wildcats west of Libby. Their dogs treed the varmints and they shot them. One of the wildcats was an unusually large one. The wildcats had just killed a deer.

Plan Social—The Marshfield Fire Department will hold its annual ball and social at the Finnish Hall Thursday evening. The guests will be confined to members and their wives and sweethearts. Games, music and dancing will be followed by a banquet.

Want Team—It is expected that the Marshfield Fire Department will at an early meeting of the council renew its request for a team to haul the fire engine and for other city work. Some of the members are now arranging to take the matter up with the Council.

Celebrate Anniversary—The members of Myrtle Lodge No. 3, K. of P., Tuesday evening properly celebrated the anniversary of the lodge, a social session with refreshments following initiation work. There was a good crowd present and a fine time enjoyed.

Weds Again—The Roseburg Review says: Mrs. W. F. Bernell, who was formerly the wife of a theater operator and band director of this city, is now Mrs. Guy H. Palmer, of Mammoth Springs, Ark., where her husband, an electrical engineer, is the manager of a light and power plant. The Bernells formerly lived in Marshfield. Mr. Bernell's career as manager of the Masonic Opera House here ending abruptly. He left a number of creditors holding the sack.

Want Tug—Dr. E. Mingus of the Port Commission is gathering data on wrecks and vessels in distress along the coast with a view of presenting it to the government in an effort to secure the keeping of a powerful tug here for the purpose of assisting vessels in trouble in this vicinity.

Garbage Dump—Messrs. Ferguson and Cople of the Health Committee of the Marshfield City Council are arranging for a new garbage dump about a quarter of a mile beyond where it is now located. The garbage will be dumped into a deep chasm and then will be buried from time to time by grading down the embankment on it, thus eliminating the many objectionable and dangerous features of it.

Farmers in this vicinity are getting busy for spring work.

Mrs. B. F. Ross went to Marshfield Monday to have a tooth extracted.

Rev. Connor held services at Mrs. Sarah Bonebrake's home Sunday. The next meeting will be at school house in Ross district the last Sunday in March.
